

Newspaper Decisions.
1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers desire the discontinuance of their subscription, they must give notice to the publisher, and the publisher will be responsible for the same.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, the papers are sent to the former address, and they are held responsible for the same.
5. The courts have decided that "renewing" a subscription from the office or removing and leaving them at a distance, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, without having ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.
7. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their term, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscribers will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears is sent to the publisher.

He who imagines that it is a glorious thing to be an editor, should undertake to convince eleven candidates for the same office that he is their own particular friend, and is doing his level best to secure the nomination for each and every one of them. If he succeeds in this he will then realize that the devil don't know anything about systematic lying.—Pike County Democrat.
