1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed they are held responsible until they have notified the publisher and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud."
6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.
7. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their term, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on and the subscribers will be responsible for an express notice, with payment of all arrears, sent to the publisher.

A NEARABOUT RESULT OF THE RECONSTRUCTION POLICY.—One of the nefarious results of the reconstruction policy and despotic rule of the Southern States by the Republican party, which we have been reviewing heretofore, was the Election Returning Boards to enable Republican parties to change and control the results of the elections of the people in those States.—This was illustrated in the Presidential election of 1876. There is not a well-informed and fair-minded man in the United States, probably, of any political party, who does not know the fact that Samuel J. Tilden was fairly and certainly elected President by a majority of the votes of the people at that election. And yet, by political manipulation and stratagem, the defeated Republican ticket was declared to be elected, and Hayes inaugurated as President. This was an overthrow of popular Government and a crime against the majesty of the people. When and how can this great wrong be remedied, and the supremacy of the people vindicated? This is a great living issue before the American people. The transaction, it is true, is in the past, but the record and the precedent are in the present.—American Register.

Rumor says that a new Democratic paper is to be established at an early date.
Yes, "there shall be wars, and rumors of wars." At no time have the prospects of the Democracy for success been more cheering, and with harmonious action success awaits it. This the opposition know, and they will give out numerous "rumors," in order to create distrust and disaffection. In this they will be aided by paid emissaries pretended Democrats—who will learn, before they die, what boomerangs are made for.—Avoid all such, treat not with them, but let them go to where they belong—the embraces of radicalism.
