THE Soldiers'
RE-UNION!

—WILL BE—
A GRAND SUCCESS.

PHIL H.
SHERIDAN
Lieutenant General U. S. A.,
Will be here with his Staff—
He wants to "Shake Hands with the Indiana Boys!"
Come and see him, and give him a Grand and Hearty "SHAKE!"

Large delegation of our citizens visited Chicago last Saturday and called upon Gen. Sheridan at his headquarters in that city. They were received most cordially by the General, who is a very pleasant gentleman and utterly devoid of "red tape" or stylish airs. The delegation was a representative one, and composed of the following gentlemen: Hon. E. P. Hammond, Chairman of Ex. Com. and Commandant of Post; H. E. James, representing McPherson Post, G. A. R.; E. E. Rockwood, representing Board of County Comm'rs; C. H. Price, Clerk; E. C. Nowels, Auditor; M. B. Alter, Treasurer; J. T. Abbott, Recorder; J. W. Powell, Sheriff; Louis Alter, Surveyor; J. H. Willey and B. F. Ferguson, of Town Trustees; M. F. Chilcote, Sec.; and F. W. Babcock, Treas. Ex. Com.; John G. Reynolds, Ass't Qr.; Dr. J. H. Loughridge, Ch'mn Com. on Invention; Dr. O. C. Link, F. J. Sears, W. J. Imes, Leslie Grant, Healey Bros, and many other prominent business men. The interview was most satisfactory to all concerned. The spirit was in fine health and mise to attend our re-union and see and mingle with his old comrades.

INSTITUTE NOTES.

Two weeks before the time allotted for the Annual Institute, each pedagogical received a cordial invitation to spend a fortnight in Rensselaer and hear upon the valuable instruction to be given by several of the most prominent educators of the State. Accordingly, August 25th found a large number of teachers assembled in the court room ready and anxious to open campaign. The house at once proceeded to organize, the nominations resulting in election of J. F. Austin, Vice President; T. E. Price, Enrolling Secretary; Miss Bouk, Corresponding Secretary. After taking the enrollment, the Chairman, D. B. Nowels, made a few introductory remarks. Mr. Shiering very kindly addressed us upon the Department of the Teacher. His advice was good, to say the least of it. The course of study was discussed and its efficiency aptly shown by a large majority. None of our instructors having arrived, we sought the last resort—the "Query Box." In its depths was again found the perplexing question, "Is the teacher the authority to force a pupil to pursue certain studies?" The reply—"The laws of Indiana are sufficiently binding to force any pupil to pursue every branch specified in the course of study prepared by County Board," was a consolation of the superlative degree. After usual opening exercises on Tuesday Professors Bass and Thomas were presented. Prof. Bass immediately took the floor and at once began his series of lessons upon Language, to which and thenceforth which he claims, there is no royal road. In his talks upon this subject, Bass, with the aid of the County Board, presented only 10 of common errors committed by the innocent pedagogues in his frantic endeavors to drag his pupils over that "unfathomable" road. A little mechanical training is necessary if one would have the drills in Language executed in an orderly manner and with neatness and dispatch. It was shown plainly how to conduct the recitations, the nature of topics to be used and the order in which to take them up. T. E. Price, who has heretofore enveloped Language has been partially removed. In Arithmetic Prof. Bass discoursed mainly upon how to teach per centage in a simple, business-like way to a class just beginning it. His talks upon Pedagogics flavored very little of philosophical terms, but were practical and interesting. Sickens deprived us of his second week's services, and on Saturday Prof. B. made his exit for Indianapolis. Prof. Thomas took up subjects of Reading, Geography and School Management. His lectures upon methods of teaching Reading were most excellent, and outlines furnished will no doubt be "handed down" or around. We hope to refute his assertion that the reading of the poor party branch in our schools, by assiduously following the a few mentioned outlines of knowledge and development and strengthening of mind, and that Geography goes far toward accomplishing this object by developing the powers of observation, memory, imagination and judgment beside cultivating other reasons. It is Prof. T's firm belief that the child should never be taught to make the printed characters, and that the combination of Word and Phonics methods would undoubtedly be the happy men so eagerly sought. Urgent business called the Prof. away on fifth day. On Tuesday eve of this, the first week, Supt. Bloss addressed a large audience in the Court House. His remarks were directed more particularly to teachers but were enjoyed by all. It is his most earnest desire that the teacher make a daily practice of reading the works of the best authors, (paying special attention to history), and that he create a taste for good literature in the school. In a short talk the next morning he stated that two poor teachers in a township will do more toward lowering educational interests than six good ones can build up, as by the two the whole system is brought into disrepute. On Thursday eve of this week Professor Thomas read a very entertaining and instructive manuscript. Monday morn, Sept. 4th, Institute opened with a much better attendance. Prof. Hunter, of Washington, Ind., was introduced as the sole instructor for the ensuing week. Stronger advocate of Object Teaching could not be found, it seems, and if all profit by his example and his explanations, Mathematics and Geography will attain a much higher standard in our schools. The way is known, if anything is lacking it is the will. History, too, can be better taught with the assistance of Hunter's Historical Cate and his entirely new and original Chronological Outline of Early Settlements of different States. On Tuesday eve Prof. Hunter lectured upon the theme—"How the West was Won." On Thursday Prof. Brown, of Valparaiso, Ind., put in his appearance and labored zealously in the educational cause. His instructions upon Language, Grammar, and Arithmetic were carefully noted, and many were the expressions of regret when the necessary brevity of his visit was made known. On Friday, a would-be political meeting forced us to evacuate our comfortable quarters and seek refuge in the M. E. sanctuary for the remaining two hours. Quiet being restored the different committees were called upon to report. By imposing a fine of 10c. for each day's attendance, and with the liberal donation of $50 from the county, the Committee on Finance was enabled to defray all expenses and report the enormous surplus of $150. With awe-stricken countenances each inquired of his neighbor—"What in the world will we do with the dollar-fifty?" The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following: Resolved, That we recognize in our County Superintendent, D. B. NOWELS, a faithful and obedient servant of the People Schools of Jasper County. That, We heartily concur with him in his unbiased, impartial and successful endeavors to elevate the standard of all the schools, and all the teachers thereof. That, It is the sense of this Institute, that the personal attack made on him in the Rensselaer Republican of August 29th, was unwarranted, wrong, and unjust. That he not only introduced State Superintendent JOHN M. BLOSS, on the night of his lecture in this place (Rensselaer) in a genteel and becoming manner, but throughout his entire visit treated him with that courtesy and affability which one gentleman always bestows upon another. CANDACE BOBOWS, } Com. T. E. PRICE, } Report adopted unanimously. A resolution in favor of teaching vocal music in the schools was voted down by a large majority.

In his closing remarks, D. B. Nowels urged the teachers to enter their schools with the determination to do better work and more of it than ever before, and, also, to unite their efforts more in the coming year, and leave the old stamping grounds far in the rear. Prof. Hunter closed his farewell speech with a generous offer of a very neat and pretty vase pattern. This article sadly needs condensing, but the half has not yet been told.

WHO DARE DISPUTE IT?
In the last issue of the Rensselaer Republican is an article headed "Personal Liberty in Politics." Among many unanswerable(?) things occurs the following:
"The personal history of each man on the Republican ticket may not show life-long sobriety, but the ticket represents temperance sentiment and it is straight. Next after this article comes report of Jasper County Republican Central Committee. 'In the absence of the chairman, M. F. Chilcote, D. D. Redmond, President, P. W. Babcock was chosen Secretary.' Now who will call in question the sentiment of our Jasper County Republican ticket? controlled by a Central Committee at whose head stand the names of such well-known temperance men. No longer doubt but, show your political integrity. You wouldn't dare put a 'weak' temperance man, and a 'doughface', indeed, to show yourself so 'non-compos' as to doubt that all the temperance sentiment is with the Republican party, most severely practical illustrations presented only 10 of common errors committed by the innocent pedagogues in his frantic endeavors to drag his pupils over that 'unfathomable' road. A little mechanical training is necessary if one would have the drills in Language executed in an orderly manner and with neatness and dispatch. ANNOUNCEMENT—RECORDED.
EDITOR OF SENTINEL: Please announce that I will be a candidate for Recorder of Jasper County, subject to decision of voters of said county at the polls.
AUGUS. H. WOOD.

To all Citizens of Jasper County, Indiana:
I respectfully announce myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the County election, basing my claims to your fair and just consideration on unquestionable qualifications for the duties of such office—on a law-and-order-abiding citizenship of said county, for twenty-one years of mature manhood, three years of which were passed as one of the county's quota in the army that stamped out the great rebellion. Because the results of the exertions of my life thus have lauded to this community, and because it would not be right while some soldiers and many that never were soldiers are munificently provided for, other soldiers who have served as faithfully as man could serve his country are left to struggle against poverty and greedy rivalry until utterly crushed.
JAMES A. BURNHAM.

IRA C. KELLEY, Dentist.
