

Newspaper Decisions

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice of discontinuance are considered to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order or refuse to take their papers, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.

3. If subscribers are notified or refuse to take their papers, the publishers are not responsible for the cost of the papers.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The service has decided that "refusing to take papers" from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held to be a subscriber.

7. Subscribers who pay in advance their arrears to the publisher at the end of their term, to keep the papers, to continue taking it, or to make the publisher is authorized to sell it as an independent business, and the publisher is not responsible for the payment of all arrears in the case of the subscriber.

The Spy of Atlanta.

A Beautiful Allegory of the war of the rebellion in six acts, will be produced at the Opera House at Rensselaer commencing on Monday evening Dec. 25th, Mr. Edward Wolska the talented young actor who our citizens remember as having played the part of the "spy" in the "Mermaid" so well this season with Felix A. Vincent, has been engaged for the role "the spy". The best amateur talent of our town will support him, and we can assure our people that they will give a performance far in advance of any ever given here before.

The play is one of deep interest to every true American heart, being a truthful picture of our late war from the firing of the first gun at Sumpter until the surrender of Lee at Richmond. It is interspersed with recited drill, and a battle scenes, on a grand scale. The scenery is of home, tableaux of Secession, Submission and closing by the realistic scene and tableaux of Decorating our heroes graves. Admission: being only 25 & 35 cts, we they will be greeted with packed houses.
