

NEWS CONDENSED.

EASTERN.

A tow of thirty-seven coal barges broke from their moorings at Pittsburgh, Pa., and were swept rapidly down the river, colliding with several steamers, one of which was sunk, and a number of other barges, which also sunk. The damage done is estimated at $50,000.

The work of blasting out Hall Gate has been stopped for want of appropriations. The chair manufacturer of Harwood Brothers, of Loomister, Mass., was destroyed by fire. Loss $100,000; insurance $75,000. Seventy-five hands are thrown out of employment.

P. T. Barnum, the veteran showman, and two others were arrested for holding a trial in $200 each, at New York, for permitting the performances of the Elliott children on unlicensed bicycles.

The large leather-board mills of J. A. Harwood, Loomister, Mass., were burned. Loss, $100,000; insured for $71,000.

A fire at Jersey Shore, Pa., swept away $100,000 worth of property.

A prize-fight at Duluth, Jefferson county, Pa., resulted fatally to one of the combatants, a lad of 18, named Martin Sinsky. In the sixth round he fell unconscious, his chin striking against a stool, breaking his neck.

Peter Cooper, the philanthropist, died at his home in New York on the 18th inst., at the old age of 92. He was born in New York city, and there spent almost his entire life. Born of poor parents, he was compelled at an early age to begin the battle for existence. Energy and endurance enabled him to succeed, and he died a millionaire among the then few millionaires of his native city. His gift to the people of the metropolis—the Cooper Institute—will be a lasting monument to his broad and generous philanthropy.

Three little girls were drowned in the Hudson near Yalste, N. Y., while playing on the ice.

Nathan S. Morse, business manager of the New York Daily News, committed suicide by shooting.

Nancy Remsen, a colored cook of New York City, died at the age of 111 years.

Barnum's elephant Pilot was killed at New York, as he had become intractable.

Edward Sweetwood's lodgings house in Jersey city was burned. One lodger was burned to death and another jumped from a window and broke both his legs.

John A. Wilson and his wife and two daughters were burned to death in a house three miles from Hartwick, Oswego county, and at Ellensburg, N. Y., three negro children were cremated.

WESTERN.

A portion of the rolling-stock of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northern Railroad Company was wrecked at Elgin, Minn., at the end of the Northwestern Fuel Company, which claims $1,251,550 damages for violation of contract.

Charles F. Kring, of St. Louis, the murderer of Drommer, has, by the decision of the United States Supreme Court, been granted a new trial, which will be his seventh. The crime was committed six years ago, and the murderer has been thrice sentenced to death. Kring's imprisonment has broken down his health, and a few months since the jail officials, in order to give him more liberty and mental occupation, appointed him prison librarian.

Fire at Eland, Wis., destroyed $50,000 worth of property, principally belonging to Bauger & Gould, of Oshkosh.

Ex-Postmaster Walle, of Cincinnati, who sued the Gazette of that city for $50,000 damages for libel, has been awarded $5 by a jury.

Nearly 3,000 bricklayers went on a strike in Chicago, their demand for an increase of wages from $3.50 to $4 per day having been refused by the employers.

The officers of the Government steamer Itly, which arrived at Cairo, Ill., on a trip down the Ohio river, valued at $1,000,000, will not cover the loss sustained by the overflow between Louisville and Cairo.

The report of the receiver of Brown, Bonnell & Co., the iron manufacturers of Youngstown, Ohio, who suspended a few months ago, shows an apparent surplus of assets over liabilities of over half a million dollars.

Six of the crew of the tow-boat Polar Star, plying between Cairo and St. Louis, lost their lives by the explosion of one of the boilers when opposite Belmont, Mo.

Nine firemen were severely burned by an explosion of gas in the cellar of the Hotel B. Hotel, San Francisco, where a fire had started.

The Hon. Charles C. Trowbridge, of Detroit, who was prominent in the politics of Michigan half a century ago, died the other day, in the 84th year of his age.

The Iowa Grand Army Post was in session at Des Moines. There are 137 posts in the State, with a membership of 4,701. Eighty-seven posts were formed in 1883.

Chief Spioche and his band of Creek Indians, who left the reservation recently, have gone into camp with the Cheyennes not far from the Sac and Fox reservation, and great trouble is apprehended.

A Hastings (Neb.) mob took Ingham, Green and Babcock, accused of murdering Merchant Millett, from the officers, and hanged the two former from a railway bridge, but returned Babcock, who pleaded guilty, to the authorities.

Flames swept away several business houses in the city of Greeley, Colo., involving a loss of $150,000.

Ex-Senator Thurman fell on the steps of his residence at Columbus, Ohio, and broke his arm.

As a result of competition, the price of gas in St. Louis has been reduced from $2.50 to $1.50 per 1,000 cubic feet.

P. H. Tompkins, a banker of El Paso, Ill., has made an assignment, with liabilities amounting to $150,000.

The young woman who was charged with shooting "Lucky" Baldwin, at San Francisco, has been acquitted by a jury on the ground of insanity existing at the time of the assault.

Twenty business houses at Kentland, Ind., were destroyed by fire, involving a total loss of $100,000, on which the insurance was only $50,000.

At a meeting of the San Francisco triennial convocation committee, the committee on hotels reported every assurance that all visiting Knights Templar would be properly accommodated.

SOUTHERN.

The Governor of South Carolina refuses to call an extra session of the Legislature to appropriate funds to meet the legal expenses of three persons arrested for participation in election frauds.

John Jackson, a negro who had committed several assaults upon women, was hanged by a mob at Moscow, Ky.

By the explosion of a boiler in a mill at Kots Point, Miss., nine men were killed and ten seriously injured.

B. C. O. Benjamin, of Charlottesville, Va., is the first person to call to apply for a license to practice at the bar in Virginia. The license has been granted him.

A. L. Crawford, Deputy United States Marshal, was arrested at Atlanta, Ga., for making fraudulent returns, but escaped from the officer.

A lighted match thrown into the manhole of a sewer in Baltimore, by a boy, caused an explosion that killed two children and did damage to property to the extent of $30,000.

Brig. Gen. Joseph K. Barnes, retired, late Surgeon General of the United States army, died at his residence in the national capital of Bight's disease.

WASHINGTON.

Following is a recapitulation of the last monthly national debt statement:

Bonds at 5, continued at 9 1/2 per cent. $ 60,648,000
Four and one-half per cent. 220,000,000
Four per cent. 27,454,100
Three per cent. 800,626,500
Refunding 281,450
New pension fund. 14,000,000

Total interest-bearing debt. $1,333,118,000
Matured debt. 10,575,100
Total debt. $1,343,693,100
Certificates of deposit. 9,715,000
Gold and silver. 10,575,100
Fractional currency. 7,010,578

Total without interest. $201,067,700
Total debt (principal). $1,544,760,800
Total interest. $ 12,217,295
Total cash in treasury. $10,034,383
Total cash in circulation. 1,331,300,000
Decrease during March. 11,948,173
Decrease of debt since June 30, 1892. 1,244,200
Interest due and unpaid. 1,068,237
Total cash on hand. 10,575,100
Interest thereon. 128,453
Gold and silver held for redemption. 10,575,100
Certificates of deposit. 9,715,000
Cash balance available. 140,171,028

Total. $15,054,983
Available assets. $15,054,983
Bonds issued to Pacific railway loan fund, interest payable in lawful money, interest payable in lawful money. 64,028,812
Principal outstanding. 64,028,812
Interest paid by United States. 67,388,383
Total. 131,417,195
By transportation service. 14,436,332
By payment of 5 per cent. 6,518
By earnings. 65,968
Balance of interest paid by United States. 40,121,885

The President has appointed Judge Walter G. Gresham, of Indiana, Postmaster General, vice Hon. T. O. Howe, deceased. Judge Gresham is a stalwart Republican and a friend of the free coinage of silver.

The President has appointed Judge Walter G. Gresham, of Indiana, Postmaster General, vice Hon. T. O. Howe, deceased. Judge Gresham is a stalwart Republican and a friend of the free coinage of silver.

POLITICAL.

An election was held in Michigan on Monday, April 2, for two judges of the Supreme Court and two Regents of the State University. Two tickets were in the field.

At the election in Michigan, the ticket nominated by the Democrats and Greenbackers combined. Returns at this writing indicate that the Fusion candidates are elected.

The biennial municipal election in Chicago resulted in a victory for the Democrats. The ticket headed by Carter H. Harrison, by majorities ranging from 4,000 to 12,000. This makes the third term for Harrison.

At Springfield, Ill., the Citizens' municipal ticket, framed in the interest of high liquor license, was elected by a decisive majority. A large number of other Western cities held municipal elections, the results of which are recorded below: Cincinnati elected a Democratic Mayor and Council, the Republicans securing two or three minor city offices.

In Cleveland, Ohio, the Democrats elected John H. Farley Mayor, by nearly 4,000 majority, the whole city ticket, fourteen out of eighteen Councilmen, and seven out of nine members of the Board of Education. In Toledo, Ohio, the Republicans elected the Mayor and Police Clerk by 75 majority, the Democrats carrying all the other municipal offices by majorities ranging from 300 to 1,000. At Columbus, Ohio, Walcott, Republican, was chosen Mayor by about 500 majority. Mansfield, Dayton and Steubenville, Ohio, elected Republicans. Grand Rapids, Mich., elected the Demo-Greenback city ticket; Lansing, Mich., the Republican ticket; and Bay City, Mich., the Democratic ticket for local officers.

The Republicans carried their city ticket through in Battle Creek, and the Democrats swept the field at Adrian, Mich. At Keokuk, Iowa, the Republican municipal ticket triumphed, and at Dubuque the Democrats carried the day. At Champaign, Ill., the fight was between the Temperance and Reform tickets.

The Citizens' ticket, composed equally of Democrats and Republicans, was chosen at Hartford, Ct. At Bismarck, Dak., the Citizens' Independent ticket was successful. All of the (Democrat) ticket was elected in the city of St. Paul, Minn., except the Mayor, who was chosen at Evansville, Ind. The city elections in Milwaukee, Madison, Oshkosh, Watertown and Eau Claire, Wis., resulted in the success of the Democratic candidates.

Leavenworth, Kansas, elected the Republican ticket. At Topeka and Wichita the fight was between the Prohibitionists and Anti-Prohibitionists, and in both cities the Anti candidates were elected. The Prohibition ticket was elected in Clinton, Iowa. At Omaha and Lincoln, Neb., the Republicans carried the day. In St. Louis, Mo., the Democrats swept the field. Denver, Colo., elected ex-Gov. Routt Mayor and the entire Republican ticket.

At Charleston, W. Va., the Greenbackers of the Third Congressional district nominated Samuel B. Hawver, of Greenbrier county, for Mayor.

The President has made the following appointments: A. W. Sheldon, of Maryland, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Arizona, vice W. W. Hoover, suspended. S. E. Snyder, Agent of the Indians at Fort Keogh, Agency, M. T.; William W. Carter, Col. of the Indian Revenue, Seventh district of Indiana.

Anti-Monopolists held a conference at Indianapolis and decided to call a mass convention to assemble in that city June 6.

The Ohio Legislature decided to submit two constitutional amendments on the liquor question, one providing for prohibition, and the other for legislative control.

The gubernatorial election in Rhode Island resulted in the defeat of Sprague, Bourn, the Republican nominee, being elected by about 2,300 majority. The Assembly is composed of Republicans.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has rejected the bill exempting those who observe the seventh day of the week from the penalties of the Sunday laws.

BUSINESS FAILURES.
C. S. Short, banker, Marion, N. Y.; liabilities, $25,000 to $50,000.
David Forchheimer & Co., hatters, New York; liabilities, $100,000.
R. C. M. Lowell, coal dealer, Covington, Ky.; liabilities, $108,000.
The Brilliant Glass Works, at Steubenville, Ohio; liabilities, $27,000.
P. H. Tompkins, banker, El Paso, Ill.; liabilities, $150,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Rev. Isaac L. Nicholson, D.D., of Philadelphia, who was selected to the Bishopric of Indiana by the Protestant Episcopal Diocesan Convention early last month, has declined the office.

The Union machine shops and several business houses were destroyed by fire at Montreal. The loss was estimated at $100,000, and was fully covered by insurance.

Chicago is in telephonic communication with New York city. It is said the wires work well the entire distance, and that a whisper is audible from either end.

The message of the Mexican President to Congress states the country is at peace with all nations, and commends the commercial treaty with the United States, which he will present to the Senate for ratification at a future time. Treasury receipts have increased, the industries of the country are prospering, but import duties have fallen off. The rapid advance of railway work has considerably diminished.

Lieut. Danenhower, of the Jeannette expedition, has been granted one year's leave of absence.

The statistics of crime in the seven leading American cities—viz., New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, Cincinnati, Chicago and San Francisco, show from comparison that Boston and Chicago are the least bloodthirsty. Baltimore, with a population equalized to New York city, would produce 50 homicides a year; Cincinnati would produce 80, San Francisco would produce 135 and Philadelphia would have only 31.

The Iron Association held a very important meeting in Pittsburgh last week. A plan for the revision of the scales was presented. This contemplates a reduction in wages of from 10 to 20 per cent. The manufacturers throw the onus of the decrease on the reduced protection afforded by the revised tariff, and also on the depressed condition of the trade.

The date of the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland has been changed from Sept. 19 and 20 to Oct. 24 and 25, at Cincinnati.

The Indians who have recently been committing depredations in Arizona and New Mexico have escaped across the Rio Grande. There are apprehensions of an outbreak of the San Carlos reservation Indians.

A fire at Iquique, Peru, on the 10th of last March, news of which has just reached this country, destroyed 1,000 buildings, valued, with their contents, at $10,000,000.

Nothing is reported on the Panama canal works, but the Panamanians and Centralists, and some twenty of the former have been murdered. The Government is powerless to maintain order.

The Chicago syndicate, composed of Messrs. C. B. Farwell, John V. Farwell, Abner Taylor and Col. A. C. Babcock, who is the chief manager of the syndicate, has been bought from the State of Illinois, $1,500,000 what is known as the Pan-Handle of that State, have transferred their claim to a party of Londoners for $10,000,000. The property amounts to 3,000,000 acres, or some 5,000 square miles, and is marvellously rich in arable and grazing lands, watered and timbered to a high degree.

FOREIGN.

Herr Vollman, a Socialist member of the Reichstag, has been arrested for denouncing Bismarck.

A treaty of commerce between Germany and Spain has been agreed upon.

A thirty-days' secret session of German Socialists has been held at Copenhagen. It was determined to oppose Bismarck's social programme and to force the fight against capital.

The question of the triple alliance between the Italian, French and German republics by the Italian press.

The trial of the prisoners charged with the Phoenix Park assassinations has been postponed because of the lack of funds to pay counsel for the defense.

The National Theater, at Berlin, burned, together with all the warboxes, and many other properties it contained. There was no loss of life.

Michael Davitt writes from prison to the Young Ireland Society, of Glasgow, condemning the dynamite policy as only exacerbating the demands of England, and playing into the hands of Ireland's enemies.

Four members of the German Reichstag, who were home from the Copenhagen Congress were arrested at Kiel.

The Danish authorities made a descent upon the Socialist Congress at Copenhagen, and the foreign delegates were ordered to leave the country.

It has been definitely decided that neither Parnell nor any of the other members of the Irish Parliamentary party will attend the convention at Philadelphia.

Peter Carey, a brother of James Carey, has followed the example of the latter and turned Queen's evidence in the Phoenix Park conspiracy case.

The sentry in the Newry (Ireland) barracks who was guarding the powder magazine fired at a man who was scaling the wall, for the purpose, it is alleged, of blowing up the place.

An explosion of a powder depot at Paso Corrales, Italy, being used in conducting engineering operations, killed forty persons and wounded many more.

The Birmingham (Eng.) police arrested an alleged Irish-American named Whitehead, who is said to be a high-ranking gangster—a great nerve center specially related to motion and sensation.

The clot may be (1) absorbed, (2) become surrounded with a sac (cyst), gradually undergo fatty degeneration, and be absorbed in about two years; (3) may inflame the adjacent brain substance, and give rise to the softening of the latter; (4) may cause degeneration of the nerves and give rise to atrophy, or death.

THE BUSINESS FAILURES IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA, for the week ending April 2, reported to the Commercial Agency of G. D. Dunn & Co., New York, numbered 17, as compared with 182 the previous week. The distribution of failures was as follows: New England States, 11; Western, 38; Middle, 34; Southern, 46; Pacific States and Territories, 14; New York City, 18, and Canada, 1.

The President and party were received at Jacksonville, Fla., by the booming of artillery and the cheers of the citizens. No President has ever before visited the Florida.

The verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case of the Broadwood mine disaster exonerates the managers of the mine from blame, and assumes that the accident was such as might happen at any mine under similar circumstances.

The "ball-line" billiard tournament at Chicago, for the championship of the world, was won by Jacob Schaefer, of Chicago, the French champion, Vignaux, taking second prize. The playing of this tournament is said to have been the most brilliant exhibition of billiards ever witnessed.

Heavy rains, causing the flooding of many of the plantations, are reported in the Lower Mississippi valley.

William A. Le Sueur, proprietor of the Baton Rouge Capitulation, the official newspaper of the State of Louisiana, was shot and killed at Baton Rouge by W. T. Sanford, a prominent broker of that city.

Confederate graves were decorated at New Orleans and the Army of the Tennessee was laid. The association of the latter army gave a banquet in the evening, Jeff Davis being among the guests.

The polygamist Mormon church has been holding its fifty-third annual conference at Salt Lake City, Utah. The Josephite, or monogamous, Mormons held a jubilee at Kirtland, Ohio, in honor of the restoration of their temple there.

Howard Underwood (colored), dressed in a white robe, was hanged at Charleston, Mo., for the brutal murder of a negro. He made an extraordinary speech, declaring, saying he was going straight to walk the streets of glory in golden slippers and his own costume.

P. H. Burch, who widely advertised himself as the Union Manufacturing Company, of Galena, Ill., has filed that city, taking about $5,000 in remittances, for which he never sent an equivalent.

The members of the Cleveland Base Ball Club recently called on President Arthur at the White House and were received in the Cabinet-room. After a general handshaking, the President complimented the men upon their fine appearance and that they looked like good base-ball players, and that good base-ball players were good citizens.

Lawrence & Asher, stationers, New York; liabilities, $320,000; assets, $150,000. Suit has been begun at Boston to restrain the Bell Telephone Company from increasing its stock, as the directors recently decided to do, to nearly $100,000.

The Methodist population of New York has fallen from 1 in 64 to 1 in 104.

Do Animals Think?
The question whether animals have souls is not debatable, because the meaning of the term "soul" has never been determined. But that animals think is as plain as can be, and did not really need the volume by Mr. Romanes.

Still, the differences in animal intelligence are very marked, and higher trails are very marked. The manufacturer threw the onus of the decrease on the reduced protection afforded by the revised tariff, and also on the depressed condition of the trade.

Two snails lived in a garden, where their favorite food was very scarce. The larger went off on a sort of observation tour, and on its return brought a supply of the food he sought, he returned like a little gentleman, and induced his companion to go with him. Here were thought and kindness illustrated, and he was rewarded by the elimination from the case except by the violent and wholly unwarranted supposition that when he arrived in the good garden he discovered that he had been tricked, and he was tricked.

"Nothing of the kind," he shortly answered, "I am sorry to hear of it." "What else?" she said, after a longer silence.

"He looked steadily in the eyes," he answered, briefly. Then, turning to the attendant, he said, "Take her up, dress her, and bring her some beefsteak and bread and butter."

The treatment was brutally brutal, and he was told to be patient. She never, however, forgave the physician.

Another case was that of a leader of fashion in a Southern city, who came with his suite of husband, maid, lap-dog, and a small dog, and declared herself "a perfect wreck." For a couple of days he watched her through her usual routine: lying on a couch through the day—groaning, shuddering, helpless—then up at night brilliantly dressed for her opera.

As the result of his watching, he ordered her into the hospital, and put her through the usual regimen of bed, absolute inaction, solitude and manipulation.

On the second day she dressed herself unobserved, stole out of the house and to the station, and literally ran away, never halting until she was at New Orleans, from which city she telegraphed to her husband and for her clothes.

Nervous diseases are alarmingly rare in this country. But there is a nervousness born of illness, or of fashionable life, or of a general nervousness, which makes victims not only of the patient but of her family. Many a household is enslaved by these irritable invalids, who do not realize the cause of their ailments, and who only need fresh air, hard, daily work and regular hours of sleep at night to cure them of their fancied ills.

George III. Makes His Own Bishop. When Archbishop Moore died, Manners Station was Bishop of Norwich, and also Dean of Windsor. He was at that moment, residing at his deanery, and was entertaining a party of friends at dinner. In the middle of dinner the butler came up to him with an excited face. "Beg pardon, my Lord, a gentleman wishes to see your Lordship directly, but he won't give his name." "None," said the Bishop; "I can't come now, of course." "The gentleman says it is very important—very important, indeed, my Lord, or he would not have troubled me." "What is it?" said the Bishop, somewhat crossly. "ask him to wait a few minutes till I have finished my dinner."

"Beg pardon, my Lord," said the butler, persistently, and with some confidence, "the gentleman says it is very important, and he won't give his name." "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly.

"The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was still more amazed to find King George III., who, as usual, was in the habit of calling on him directly. "The Bishop, amazed at his man's coolness, made an apology to his guests and went into the next room, where he was