THE HEIGHT OF FOLLY.

To wait until you are in bed disease you may not get over for months, is the height of folly, when you might be easily cured during the early symptoms by Parker's Ginger Tonic. We have known sickly families made the healthiest, by a timely use of this pure medicine. Observer.

Go to Leaming's for your Wall Paper. He has a large and varied assortment on hand, at prices to suit, and it will be to the interest of all to examine his patterns before going elsewhere.

The Only Exclusive Dress Goods Man— J. V. W. KIRK.

Miss Martin would most respectfully inform the Ladies o' Rensselaer and vicinity that she has in stock the following beautiful line of hair goods: Star Wave, Pinafore Wave, Opera Coquette, Langtry Wave, Bony Wave, Coquette, Ventilated Wave and Pinafore Coquette. Call and examine.

A BIG SUCCESS.

"My wife was in bed two years with a complication of disorders her physicians could not cure, when I was led to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. It was a big success. Three bottles cured her, at a cost of a dollar and fifty cents, and she is now as strong as any woman. —B. D. Buffalo.

KEENER ITEMS.

Items few and scarce this week, on the account of farmers being busy with their spring work.

Trustee, Guild has to have a hand this spring to work in his place, while he talks to candidates for superintendent.

John O'Donnel has the honor of being section boss at DeMotte. Hurrah for John! He says he likes a soft job.

The mill of B. W. Harrington is being again repaired. He can once more resume his old position with "one hand in the hopper and the other by his side."

W. C. Tyler paid his parents and friends a flying visit last Saturday & Sunday.

It is reported that quite a number of Hollanders fresh from the old country will locate in this township soon.

The funeral service of Miss Nina Fairchild will be held at Center school house next Sunday by Elder Shortridge.

Below we give the DeMotte, market as given by the railroad hands:

Alum, five cents per teaspoonfull, by retail.

Turpentine five cents, per oz.

Quinine twenty cents per dose, and other things in proportion.

The new saloon was the cause of quite a sensation at DeMotte, the other day. One of the fair sex of Wheatfield township, being in the opposite the saloon discussing with the proprietor (of the store) the disadvantage of such an institution to the neighborhood, became so enraged that she walked into the saloon and among quite a number of men and boys, gave the saloonist a lecture on the importance of his quitting the business and engaging in a more honorable calling. It is believed the woman is a temperance woman and meant business, as she was heard for several rods around.

How sad to the heart are the scenes at DeMotte,
When riot and blunder presents them to view;
The saloon, and bachelor's hut which stands by it,
And the wonderful Railroad crew;
The wide-spreading sand field, and the mill that stands by it,
And every loved spot which the town people knew.

PEDANT.

Joe Sharp, the Photographer, of this place, caught a 10 lb. Pike the other day, at Cedar Lake. Mine host, Blue, of the Makeever House, secured the beauty and will serve it to guests.

WHY SHOULD THEY.

No man or woman can do satisfactory work when the brain is dull, the nerves unsteady, the system relaxed and they feel generaly wretched. Why should anybody drag through their work in this condition, when a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic will at moderate cost give them the strength and will to perform their duties satisfactorily.—Ed.

The New Rail Road.

WINAMAC, IND., MAY 7, 1883.

Editor SENTINEL:
Rensselaer, Ind.

Dear Sir:

The people here, and east of here, are exerting themselves in securing the right of way, and preparing to vote the tax in aid of the early completion of the R. R. & St. L. Rail-road, and it is hoped that your people will do the same. Enough has transpired already to satisfy the people on this end of the line, that the projectors of this road intend to build it, if the people along the line will secure the right of way, and vote the tax in the townships through which the road will run. The two per cent. tax should not be looked upon as a "bugbear," for it is nothing more than money loaned to the R. R. Co., at compound interest, as the taxable property of the road will refund it, four fold, every year for all time to come. Your nonresident land owners are being made rich by the construction of rail roads, and why should they not contribute the small sum of two per cent. on the value of their lands to help enrich themselves? There are no reasons why they should not, and many good reasons why they should. This road will benefit this section of the state immensely, as it will fill up the last link in a great trunk line between N. Y. and the East, to St. Louis. With three or more transcontinentals to the Pacific, and another line, recently opened, to the city of the Montezumas. you can buy tickets and check baggage almost from your own doors to every prominent city between the two oceans, when this link of one hundred miles is completed. Then do not hesitate to grant the small pittance of a two per cent. tax, and the strip of land 100 feet wide for the track of the road, for when this is done, the road is assured. The people on this end of the line, have satisfied themselves that the road is a certainty, provided they do what they promised, and they are doing it promptly and cheerfully. Will your people do the same? If they do, you can all look for an early completion of the road. Have each man use his influence with his neighbor, and keep the ball rolling, until the last man to the Illinois state line has given the Company the right of way, and made up his mind to vote the tax. When this is done the rail-road is a "sure thing." Hoping that you will stir your people up to the great importance of securing the construction of this road, I am

One of the Vox Populi.

A LOSS PREVENTED.

Many lose their beauty from the hair failing or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

All persons having open account on my books will save costs by calling and settling the same before March 1st 1883, as after that time 10 per cent will be added for collection.

WM. A LAMSON.
