

NEWS CONDENSED.

(Telegraphic Summary)

EASTERN.

Gov. Cleveland has signed the bill which practically repeals what are known as the "Sunday Blue Laws" of New York.

A new metal, discovered by a Boston metallurgist, is it is claimed, special fitness for telegraph wires, having great conductivity and tenacity and being exempt from rust. It can be produced at a cost of about 5 cents a pound.

Gov. Butler has requested the State Board of Health of Massachusetts to remove Sanborn, its Secretary, who has not taken the oath of his office for several years. The Governor says if Sanborn is retained he will allow no public money to be used under his direction.

Many counsel have expressed the opinion that the great Brooklyn bridge cannot be made free for any kind of travel.

A branch of O'Donovan Rossa's Irish Revolutionary League was organized in New York last week with a membership of one hundred. Dynamite is the rock upon which the society is built.

Gov. Sprague, the famous trotting stallion owner by J. I. Case, of Racine, Wis., died last week at Lexington, Ky., of pink eye. The animal was owned on the turf last season for $10,000.

The Trustees of Columbia College, New York, have prepared a plan to receive young women for a four-year course outside of, but under the supervision of the college, graduates to be entitled to the same honors as young men who have taken the regular course.

John Callahan filled his 3-year-old boy full of whisky at Woburn, Mass., and, when the child refused to drink more, the father threw it in his face. The little fellow died in convulsions.

The New York World has been sold by Jay Gould to Joseph Pulitzer, of St. Louis, for $400,000. The World will continue to be Democratic in politics.

A serious collision occurred between two engines on the Third Avenue elevated railway, in New York. One of the firemen was fatally injured, but none of the passengers were seriously hurt. The water scalding horse and foot passengers on the street below.

There arrived at Boston by the steamer Phenician 821 evicted tenants from Ireland, most of whom had been "assisted" to emigrate by the British Government.

Ward McConkey, a murdered Georgia man, was killed by a man named George A. McClure in dead Man's Hollow, near McKeesport, Pa., Aug. 21, 1881, was executed at Pittsburgh. He protested his innocence on the gallows, and met death with unconcern.

During a storm lightning struck and exploded a large oil tank in the Standard Oil Company's works at Canton, N. Y. The blazing fluid quickly spread in all directions, reaching the other tanks and exploding them, and before the fire was got under control twelve large tanks, eighteen cars, six barges, a dredge, three docks and five brick structures were wrecked. The tanks were burned to death. The total loss will exceed $1,500,000.

WESTERN.

City Editor Keister, of the Ft. Wayne Gazette, beat Editor Cooper, of the Call, into unconsciousness in the streets of that city. Cooper published a scandalous matter about Keister, and the now resulted when he refused to make retraction.

Crop reports from every county in Indiana have been published, from which the following averages are drawn: North Division—Wheat, per cent. of condition, 70; corn, per cent. planted and to be planted, 100; clover, per cent. of condition, 97; timothy, per cent. of condition, 90; peach buds, per cent. alive, 30; apple buds, per cent. alive, 88. Central Division—Wheat 70, corn, 100, clover 98, timothy 94, peaches 21, apples 77. Southern Division—Wheat 70, corn 97, clover 98, timothy 94, peaches 21, apples 77.

The Indiana Farmer publishes reports from Ohio and Illinois showing the relative conditions: Wheat, Indiana 72, Illinois 73, Ohio 71; corn, Indiana 99, Illinois 100, Ohio 100; peaches, Indiana 40, Illinois 61, Ohio 30; apples, Indiana 40, Illinois 61, Ohio 30.

Dodge City, Kan., has never enjoyed an enviable reputation, has become the scene of the most flagrant lawlessness. The most desperate element of the community has undertaken to drive out the more orderly class, and a vigilance committee has taken possession of the place, with the tacit consent of the local authorities. It has been made to the Governor of Kansas to establish martial law at Dodge City.

The burning of barns in Eastern Indiana is attributed to farm hands, who are endeavoring to drive farmers to abandon the use of self-binding harvesters and other improved farm machinery.

Some of the Dakota legislators have been indicted for crooked work in connection with the Capital Removal bill. Four legislators were before the Grand Jury that they were offered money for their votes.

Eleven frame structures, including the Postoffice, at Vienna, Ohio, were consumed by fire.

An error in the compounding of a prescription caused the death of three infants at the St. Louis City Hospital.

T. North's bank at Vassar, Mich., was robbed by burglars, who cracked the vault and exploded the safe, and carried away $70,000. They were at work on the strong box containing currency amounting to $7,000 when they were frightened away.

Railway fares from Louisville to Chicago were cut last week by $1. From Louisville to Indianapolis to $1. The grows out of the refusal of the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis Company to continue the arrangement of last year for an excursion of $7 to Chicago and return.

SOUTHERN.

The Supreme Court of Louisiana has decided that municipal bonds cannot be taxed.

The Governor of Louisiana has called a convention to assemble at Baton Rouge, June 18, to consider the building and repairs of levees, and the improvement of Mississippi navigation.

A young negro who made a criminal assault upon the wife of his employer near Hanson, Ky., was taken by a mob the following day and hanged.

The trial of Congressman Philip B. Thompson for the murder of Walter Davis was begun at Harrodsburg, Ky., on the 9th inst., with a powerful array of counsel on both sides, including among others Senator Voorhees, and Congressman Blackburn for the defense, and Gov. Carroll and Jesse Morton for the prosecution.

At Oxford, Miss., City Marshal C. E. Butler shot and instantly killed Capt. S. M. Thompson, editor of the Oxford Eagle, who was resisting arrest. Butler immediately surrendered himself to the officers.

A few days ago it was announced by telegraph from San Antonio, Tex., that Maj. J. R. Wesson, Paymaster of the Military Department at that point, had been robbed of $1,400,000, which was borrowed twelve years ago to pay the German war indemnity. The treachery of the country is now so great that it can borrow $4 and even 5 per cent.

Instead of the persons which was proposed to be bestowed upon Gen. Wolsley and Admiral Seymour, payable also to their heirs after the death of the pensioners, it has been decided by the British Government to was organized at Washington by the election of ex-Gov. Brown, of Tennessee, President, and the Hon. Wm. V. Hoar, Vice President. It is estimated that the canal will cost $30,000,000, and will be completed in three years.

Andy Taylor, one of the Taylor brothers, who last fall boarded a train on the Texas coast, Virginia, and Georgia railroad, killed Sheriff Galt, of Hamilton county, Tennessee, and his deputy, John Conway, and rescued John Taylor, who was being conveyed to Knoxville for trial, has just been indicted and sentenced to death at London, Tenn.

At Oregon City, Ark., Sam Hester insulted Van R. Elliott's wife, Elliott and his brother hunted Hester up and riddled him with bullets, killing him.

On Warwick farm, near Salado, Tex., two Mexicans killed themselves with the same knife. One stabbed the other in the region of the heart, leaving the knife sticking in the wound. The other then quickly drew the knife from his own breast and stabbed his antagonist.

During a fire at Baltimore, Mr. Adams, a paralytic, was suffocated; a colored cook was burned to death, and a female colored servant was injured by jumping from a third-story window.

The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered a decision in the case against the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, known as the Hughes suit, the gist of which is that the State of Illinois has a right to fix maximum charges for the conveyance of freight and passengers.

The millers won two notable victories in the Supreme Court, the Deuchfield and Dowdell patent suits having been decided in favor of the defendants. The royalty sought to be recovered under the Deuchfield patent for cooking and drying meal amounted to $1,000,000, while the Dowdell patent for manufacturing middling flour was estimated to be worth $3,000,000.

The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered a decision in the case against the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, known as the Hughes suit, the gist of which is that the State of Illinois has a right to fix maximum charges for the conveyance of freight and passengers.

The millers won two notable victories in the Supreme Court, the Deuchfield and Dowdell patent suits having been decided in favor of the defendants. The royalty sought to be recovered under the Deuchfield patent for cooking and drying meal amounted to $1,000,000, while the Dowdell patent for manufacturing middling flour was estimated to be worth $3,000,000.

John Callahan filled his 3-year-old boy full of whisky at Woburn, Mass., and, when the child refused to drink more, the father threw it in his face. The little fellow died in convulsions.

The New York World has been sold by Jay Gould to Joseph Pulitzer, of St. Louis, for $400,000. The World will continue to be Democratic in politics.

A serious collision occurred between two engines on the Third Avenue elevated railway, in New York. One of the firemen was fatally injured, but none of the passengers were seriously hurt. The water scalding horse and foot passengers on the street below.

There arrived at Boston by the steamer Phenician 821 evicted tenants from Ireland, most of whom had been "assisted" to emigrate by the British Government.

Ward McConkey, a murdered Georgia man, was killed by a man named George A. McClure in dead Man's Hollow, near McKeesport, Pa., Aug. 21, 1881, was executed at Pittsburgh. He protested his innocence on the gallows, and met death with unconcern.

During a storm lightning struck and exploded a large oil tank in the Standard Oil Company's works at Canton, N. Y. The blazing fluid quickly spread in all directions, reaching the other tanks and exploding them, and before the fire was got under control twelve large tanks, eighteen cars, six barges, a dredge, three docks and five brick structures were wrecked. The tanks were burned to death. The total loss will exceed $1,500,000.

City Editor Keister, of the Ft. Wayne Gazette, beat Editor Cooper, of the Call, into unconsciousness in the streets of that city. Cooper published a scandalous matter about Keister, and the now resulted when he refused to make retraction.

Crop reports from every county in Indiana have been published, from which the following averages are drawn: North Division—Wheat, per cent. of condition, 70; corn, per cent. planted and to be planted, 100; clover, per cent. of condition, 97; timothy, per cent. of condition, 90; peach buds, per cent. alive, 30; apple buds, per cent. alive, 88. Central Division—Wheat 70, corn, 100, clover 98, timothy 94, peaches 21, apples 77. Southern Division—Wheat 70, corn 97, clover 98, timothy 94, peaches 21, apples 77.

The Indiana Farmer publishes reports from Ohio and Illinois showing the relative conditions: Wheat, Indiana 72, Illinois 73, Ohio 71; corn, Indiana 99, Illinois 100, Ohio 100; peaches, Indiana 40, Illinois 61, Ohio 30; apples, Indiana 40, Illinois 61, Ohio 30.

Dodge City, Kan., has never enjoyed an enviable reputation, has become the scene of the most flagrant lawlessness. The most desperate element of the community has undertaken to drive out the more orderly class, and a vigilance committee has taken possession of the place, with the tacit consent of the local authorities. It has been made to the Governor of Kansas to establish martial law at Dodge City.

The burning of barns in Eastern Indiana is attributed to farm hands, who are endeavoring to drive farmers to abandon the use of self-binding harvesters and other improved farm machinery.

Some of the Dakota legislators have been indicted for crooked work in connection with the Capital Removal bill. Four legislators were before the Grand Jury that they were offered money for their votes.

Eleven frame structures, including the Postoffice, at Vienna, Ohio, were consumed by fire.

An error in the compounding of a prescription caused the death of three infants at the St. Louis City Hospital.

T. North's bank at Vassar, Mich., was robbed by burglars, who cracked the vault and exploded the safe, and carried away $70,000. They were at work on the strong box containing currency amounting to $7,000 when they were frightened away.

Railway fares from Louisville to Chicago were cut last week by $1. From Louisville to Indianapolis to $1. The grows out of the refusal of the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis Company to continue the arrangement of last year for an excursion of $7 to Chicago and return.

The Supreme Court of Louisiana has decided that municipal bonds cannot be taxed.

The Governor of Louisiana has called a convention to assemble at Baton Rouge, June 18, to consider the building and repairs of levees, and the improvement of Mississippi navigation.

A young negro who made a criminal assault upon the wife of his employer near Hanson, Ky., was taken by a mob the following day and hanged.

The trial of Congressman Philip B. Thompson for the murder of Walter Davis was begun at Harrodsburg, Ky., on the 9th inst., with a powerful array of counsel on both sides, including among others Senator Voorhees, and Congressman Blackburn for the defense, and Gov. Carroll and Jesse Morton for the prosecution.

At Oxford, Miss., City Marshal C. E. Butler shot and instantly killed Capt. S. M. Thompson, editor of the Oxford Eagle, who was resisting arrest. Butler immediately surrendered himself to the officers.

A few days ago it was announced by telegraph from San Antonio, Tex., that Maj. J. R. Wesson, Paymaster of the Military Department at that point, had been robbed of $1,400,000, which was borrowed twelve years ago to pay the German war indemnity. The treachery of the country is now so great that it can borrow $4 and even 5 per cent.

Instead of the persons which was proposed to be bestowed upon Gen. Wolsley and Admiral Seymour, payable also to their heirs after the death of the pensioners, it has been decided by the British Government to

WASHINGTON.

In the trial of Kelley, at Dublin, James Carey, the informer, swore that every one of the Invincibles, with the exception of Joe Brady, had offered to turn informer.

Joe Brady had the last man who offered to testify against the prisoners.

The London Times, in referring to the vote by which the Affirmation bill was defeated, says: "The authority and power of the Government have received a shock. This without doubt, the Ministers will recognize themselves. The spell of their own broken."

J. R. Keene's Bluegrass won the Burwell stakes at Newmarket, England, from four competitors.

The death sentence of Delaney, convicted of participation in the Phoenix Park murders, has been commuted.

The reply of the Prussian Government to the note from the Vatican has created an unfavorable impression at Rome.

A letter from the President of the French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

The French republic informs the King of Annam that the inability of the latter to preserve order at Tonkin compels France to establish a protectorate over the country.

WASHINGTON.

Interesting Notes and Gossip from the National Capital.

Important Decision by Secretary Teller—Fred Douglass' Convention—The Colored Citizens' Exhibition—Presidential Appointment—Deaths.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

WASHINGTON.

Interesting Notes and Gossip from the National Capital.

Important Decision by Secretary Teller—Fred Douglass' Convention—The Colored Citizens' Exhibition—Presidential Appointment—Deaths.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has received complaints from the Postoffice Department that cattle-brandings in Nebraska have recently increased.

The Commissioner of the General