

THE DEMOCRATIC SENTINEL.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JASPER COUNTY, INDIANA.

FRIDAY JUNE 1, 1883.

Let the Government take care of the rich, and the rich will take care of the poor, is the logic of Republican protectionists.

Star Route Defuses to surround the books and papers of the Republican national committee, of which he claims he is still secretary.

From the State law: "Whosoever kills or injures, or pursues with intent to do so, any turtle dove, sparrow, robin, blue bird, meadow lark, wren, swallow or martin, shall be fined not more than $10 nor less than $1."

The local elections in Virginia indicate that Mahone's party is not so strong as it was a year ago. Take away from Mahone the patronage of Arthur's administration and one-half the strength of his party would be gone.

"They say," in the Remington News, says that are long men with white shirts, will control the political affairs of Jasper county. That is self-evident—the self-dubbed loyal flunkers of the "bloody shirt" are gradually diminishing in numbers.

The dude who writes the Rensselaer items for the Remington News aims higher for associates than he will ever reach. When he is measured by our measure, it will be when he establishes the fact that he is not a political ringer; when he ceases clamoring for all the crumbs at the disposal of the Commissioners, and when he advocates party from principle and not for the spoils that may be placed within his grasp.

A big strike of iron workers is announced for to-day. Why do they strike? Let honest men ponder and solve the problem. Manufacturer are highly protected and from the profits of their trade, which the consumers pay directly into their pockets, are rapidly being converted into millions! Their laborers, owing to the high cost of living, made so by high tariff legislation—"protection to home industry"—and the wages they receive does not afford them a support. Hence, a strike follows.

Since Mark Twain's causing weeping under the grave of Adam nothing more comical has appeared than the tears the New York Tribune has been shedding over the woe of underpaid British labor. This tender-hearted paper has secured the service of that sympathetic and soft-souled animated volume of logarithms and statistical information, Robert P. Porter, whose eyes are hardly dry from weeping over the census investigations and shedding tears as he is gathering statistics in the progress of the Tariff Commission's investigations. It is Mr. Porter's business, in sorrow and tears, to gather figures showing the misery of the British laborer.—Cincinnati News.

Under free, untaxed, unharassed, unfettered trade neither the Tribune's man Porter nor itself has yet told the fact that, however low or inadequate the wages of the British workman may be, his condition is vastly better than it was under the British protective system. His wages have increased about 50 per cent. since protection was abolished. His rent has decreased, and his food, groceries, clothing and household goods are all much cheaper since free trade was adopted, and employment has more than doubled for British workmen since the inauguration of free trade. Neither Porter nor the New York Tribune tells its readers of these things, and they also conceal the fact that the British artisan and laborer work fewer hours and are paid more wages than are received by the workmen of any "protected" country on the Continent of Europe.—Chicago Tribune (Republican).

Taking it for granted that the American working people understand their own interests, it might be well for those who blubber exceedingly over the misfortunes of British workmen to inquire why it is that American workmen are so generally dissatisfied with their wages. The tariff protects their employees, enables them to accumulate colossal fortunes, but the workmen remain poor and are constantly fighting against a decline of wages. Those who deplore the condition of the English working people are continually telling the American working people that they are prosperous and happy, etc., but the American working people, by thousands, tell these charlatans that they lie. They tell them that the protected monopolists are constantly seeking to reduce their wages and to make the problem of living more difficult. Taxing one class of men for the support of another class is not in the interest of any one except those who receive the tribute money, and working people are beginning to comprehend the subject.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

FISHBACK-PEELLE—NINTH. More about the Prohibitory Duty on Steel Blooms—Mr. Kelley's Methods—Civil Service Reform—The Party Tyrannized Over.

[The Indianapolis News.] Hon. Stanton J. Peelle. The law by which you imposed an increased duty on imported steel blooms, passed under the name of the "Steel Blooms Act," is a piece of legislation that I have been informed by a reliable source that he can buy steel rails of the Pennsylvania monopoly for $39 per ton. The increased tax which you put upon blooms, simply to favor that monopoly, makes the blooms cost in the yard of our rail mill here in Indianapolis $47 per ton. I spent an hour recently in going through that mill, which has been put in running order at an expense of several hundred thousand dollars. The ponderous machinery is in splendid condition, skilled workmen are ready for service, there is a home market for steel rails, but your law says not a rail shall be rolled in Indianapolis. Our Republican National platform of 1880 says:

We reaffirm the belief avowed in 1874 that the duties for the purpose of revenue, should so discriminate as to favor American labor.

Is the labor employed in Johnstown, Pa., American labor, and the labor seeking employment in an Indianapolis rail mill foreign labor? It would seem so for you have deliberately shut our Indian mills, and have told railroad builders to go to Pennsylvania and buy their rails. I say you did this deliberately because you have never yet confessed, what was probably true, that you gave an important vote for a measure which inflicted such an injustice upon your immediate constituents.

The fact is the Republican party must call a halt and consider whether Mr. Morrell, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Kelley are safe leaders in the matter of the tariff. What ever happens to Indiana or other parts of the country, you will observe that these three men manipulate every tariff enactment that it puts more money into the pockets of their constituents and less into the pockets of the public. And here let me improve the time to say a word about civil service reform. Mr. Kelley retains popularity with his constituents, he declines to meddle with appointments. Some of our most useful public men have appointed themselves out of office. In the first success full case of civil service reform in this country, when Mr. Kelley was appointed one of the Postmasters his popularity begins to wane. Men who insisted that the civil service was a necessary part of the government, and that it was the duty of the government to see that the civil service was properly conducted, are now being driven out of office. Men who insisted that the civil service was a necessary part of the government, and that it was the duty of the government to see that the civil service was properly conducted, are now being driven out of office.

But this by the way. To return to our friend Mr. Kelley. The Republican party must learn to resist the pressure of Mr. Kelley and his party in the lobby. They care nothing for the party when it can not be used to make money for Pennsylvania manufacturers at the expense of other States. It matters not what issue is before the country, Mr. Kelley never makes a stump speech in Congress or out, which is not full of his peculiar tariff notions. When President Johnson was trying to force his "policy" upon us and Republicans in the North were fearing that the war would be lost, Mr. Kelley was in the South, and was in the South when the celebrated riots occurred in Mobile. He went home by way of Indianapolis and was prevailed upon to stay and make a public address here. A brass band was hired to play the "Star Spangled Banner" and the "Dixie" and the "March of the Union." Mr. Kelley made a public address here, and was prevailed upon to stay and make a public address here.
