

NEWS CONDENSED

(Telegraphic Summary)

EASTERN.

Jesse Oakley & Co., soap manufacturers, at New York, are insolvent. The preferences amount to $24,000.

Forest fires in the vicinity of Groton, Va., have destroyed $150,000 worth of property.

The car shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, situated on the meadow near Newark, N. J., were destroyed by fire, at a total loss of $100,000. Many valuable coaches and engines were burned. Nearly 500 men are left unemployed.

Charles Avery, who was Professor of Chemistry in Hamilton College, New York, for thirty-five years, from 1834 to 1869, is dead, at the age of 87.

About 4,000 miners in the railroad coal fields of Pennsylvania returned to work at the 3-cent rate pending.

The mysterious conflagration of the Irish murder trials is finally answered, and the guesses of the detectives turn out to be right. Tynan admits that he is No. 1 of the Invincibles, and through his attorney, Roger A. Pryor, announces himself ready to respond to the requirements of the laws of the United States. He denies that he has been a fugitive from justice or in hiding, but admits that he has not attempted to obtrude himself upon public notice. The letter, which he replied that he has received no instructions whatever looking to the arrest of Tynan, but will be glad to communicate with the gentleman when circumstances require.

The Twenty-eighth New York Volunteers and the Fifth Virginia Infantry (small town's old regiment) had a reunion at Niagara Falls, the Virginians returning to the New Yorkers a flag captured during the war.

An electrical inventor at New York has applied for a patent upon a contrivance for executing criminal justice, which, without disfigurement, he generously offers to assign the patent to the Government.

Matthew Arbuckle, the famous cornet player, died at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., of pneumonia, aged 54 years. He was a native of Scotland.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, edited by Democratic material with the remark that Patterson is ineligible on account of his age, Cleveland has cut his own throat, and Butler has stood the machinery of Massachusetts on its head.

The steamer Prussian landed 1,060 "assisted" Irish emigrants in Boston the other day.

WESTERN.

Ex-Judge Chester H. Krum, of St. Louis, left his home April 26th and went to Chicago, where he remained for a few days. There all traces of him appear to have been lost, nothing having been heard from him at St. Louis, where several important professional engagements have been missed by him.

A sensational development in the "grub-stake" social war at Denver, which spread out of the refusal of the wife of Jack Bush, one of Gov. Tabor's partners, to exchange calls with the new Mrs. Tabor, is the result of Bush against Tabor to recover damages for malicious prosecution and for alleged services, one item of $10,000 being for services in securing the new location of the United States Senate, obtaining a divorce from his wife, and bringing about the marriage with the present Mrs. Tabor.

Several officials in Dakota have been indicted for attempting to corruptly influence the action of the Capital Commission in the selection of a new location as much as $15,000, it is alleged, having been offered for one vote.

Corn in Northern Illinois has been somewhat damaged and all kinds of vegetation have been seriously injured by the frost.

Over 5,000 people witnessed the opening of the great Railroad Exposition at Chicago. Mayor Harrison welcomed the visitors, and Hon. E. B. Washburne and others made speeches. The main building of the Exposition is given up to the smaller machinery on the exhibition, while the south part of the building is devoted to electric lighting apparatus and such paraphernalia as switches, signals and blocks. An electric railroad of two coaches encircles the building, carrying forth passengers. The north part of the annex contains the products of mill and foundries, in the way of rails, boiler plates, etc. Among the curiosities are the old Stephenson engine, the work of the inventor, and the Arabian No. 1, the first engine to do any service in the country.

A messenger for the United States Express Company at Cleveland, Ohio, was robbed of two money-pouches supposed to contain about $10,000.

Two Indians, with two pet bears, visited St. Ignace, Mich., got drunk, and went to sleep on the track. The next morning the men and both bears were killed and the second Indian was badly wounded.

At Monmouth, Ill., Rev. Joseph Cook encountered a commercial traveler who ate his beef and swore when his taste was called in question, for which latter indecent Mr. Cook was fined $100 by the court. The man, who was a member of the hotel dining room, was then taken thereupon vowed to drink the gore of the exponent of the unknown, and to avoid the execution of the threat Mr. Cook called on the city police force to escort him to another hotel.

The boiler in the Bismarck (Dakota) brick works, owned by R. J. Granberry, exploded, instantly killing John Larson, engineer, Joseph Outlette, a carpenter, and perhaps fatally injuring Clem-att Outlette, one of the latter, and severely wounding Daniel Lyons, fireman. Larson was blown from his body, and he was thrown over the building, a distance of 300 feet, and frightfully mangled. Two other employees were slightly injured. A piece of metal from the boiler was blown through Joseph Outlette's head, carrying out the brains and shattering the skull.

SOUTHERN.

Mrs. Dr. Ridley, daughter of the late Senator Hill, jumped from a runaway buggy at Atlanta, Ga., and was fatally hurt.

Jay Gould is said to be desirous of acquiring the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railroad, which will furnish his railway system with a seaport outlet in the South.

A family feud in St. Helena parish resulted in the killing of Guion and Pierce Linder, brothers, and William Curley.

Gen. J. R. Chalmers, of Mississippi, and Col. Matt. Galloway, of the Memphis Appeal, who were to fight a duel, were arrested at Memphis and held in $10,000 bonds to keep the peace.

A bloodless duel was fought near New Orleans between David Todd, son of a Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, and Joseph Levey, publisher of the Masses, in consequence of a paragraph in Levey's paper reflecting upon Judge Todd.

Fifty men of the Macon (Ga.) Volunteers, organized in 1825, will leave their native city June 10 to visit several Western cities, including Chicago and Cincinnati.

Snow fell on the 23rd of May, a foot deep between Lynchburg, Va., and Clinton Forge. The weather was exceedingly cold and considerable damage was done to crops.

The press of Georgia is commenting upon the increase of lunacy in that State.

especially among the colored people, and the lack of facilities for the proper care and treatment of insane persons.

WASHINGTON.

The condition of Hon. William D. Kelley, who is suffering from an ulcer of the jaw, says a Washington dispatch, is believed to be more satisfactory. Kelley, formerly Attorney General, has the case in charge.

President Arthur, accompanied by Secretaries Folger and Chandler and Attorney General Brewster, went to New York and participated in ceremonies of opening the great Brooklyn bridge.

The President has appointed Richard Lambert, of California, United States Consul at San Blas, Mexico.

Postoffice officials claim that there will be $3,000,000 surplus this year, which is about twice as much as last year. No surplus is expected after the 2-cent stamp takes effect.

There is not the slightest probability that the Southern Pacific railroad will be successful in its attempt to secure the land grant of the Texas Pacific. The matter will not be taken up for consideration for some time.

Dr. Agnew, of the quartette of physicians who attended Garfield, has the case in charge.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The authorities at Washington are of opinion that the provisions of the Immigration law relative to pauper immigrants will warrant the exclusion of two-thirds of the Mexicans brought here from foreign countries.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriated for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

been seized by the police for publishing an invitation to men to join the Invincibles and for treasonable references to the Emperor.

The alleged traitors, conspirators, Kennedy, O'Connell, O'Connell, alias Dalton, Dessey and Flanagan, were formally committed for trial on the 23rd of May, at Liverpool. They reserved their defense.

The ceremony of blessing the Imperial flag was performed in the Kremlin, Moscow, on the 23rd of May, in the presence of the Emperor and Empress, the Imperial family, and the Emperor's military household. The Emperor and Empress drove to the Kremlin without escort.

John Dillon, in a letter to the Freeman's Journal, advises the Irish people to make the Parnell fund such a success that the Pope will realize how grievously he has been deceived by the English Government and the miserable pauper landlords who infest Rome.

The English "Derby" was witnessed by the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Albany, the Duke of Connaught and thousands of the upholders of English racing. The hundreds of thousands of ordinary citizens enjoyed the day's outing and looked on at the defeat of the favorite as usual.

The American contingent present, Lord, Walton and Ten Broeck, were the most notable. The race was won by the favorite, The betting against the winner at the start was 6 to 1, and against Galliard, who finished third, was 7 to 2. An immense amount of money changed hands on the result.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

The Cuban sugar crop is estimated to be 36 per cent less than last year.

Advices from Madagascar state that French detachments landed on the island, and that the French Admiral Pierre has occupied the Custom House at Majunga, securing the road and waterway to Tananarive.

TORNADO'S PATH.

It Leads from Missouri to Wisconsin, and Is Strewn with Death and Destruction.

Training the Windy Monster from Its Birth to Its Disappearance.

The cyclone which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.

The cyclone, which recently swept over portions of Illinois and Wisconsin was one of the most extensive and damaging visitations of the kind ever experienced in the West. Its trail of destruction and death is visible from Montgomery county, in Missouri, to the Gulf of Mexico.

The storm seems to have consisted of a series of funnel-shaped clouds, each with a dark and dense interior, and a lighter, more ethereal exterior, and a long, narrow, and winding path.