

NEWS CONDENSED.

(Telegraphic Summary)

EASTERN.

Aaron W. Hatties, a New York City clothier, has made an assignment, with liabilities amounting to $45,000, and assets to $10,000.

Mike Cleary, the pugilist, sues Mayor King of Philadelphia, and a Police Lieutenant for $5,000 damages for preventing his sparring exhibition with John I. Sullivan.

A drunken wife-beater at Pittsburgh, Pa., met with a horrible fate, the object of his cowardly spite turning upon him and driving a red-hot bayonet through his breast, the weapon having been used as a stove poker.

Ex-Chief Justice Sharwood, of Pennsylvania, is dead.

Three railway laborers on the line of the Philadelphia, Norristown and Pottsville road, were fatally injured by a bank engine in upon the bridge.

Six men were drowned in Boston harbor by the captain of the yacht Skylark.

A crush and panic occurred on Decoration Day at the New York side of the new Brooklyn bridge at the short flight of steps leading to the main footway. For some reason coming from Brooklyn a large crowd of people was rushing toward the bridge, and the crowd was precipitated downward, and persons in the rear were tumbled on the victims three or four deep. The cries, shrieks and means of the throng were appalling, and in the struggle the clothing of hundreds of persons were torn to shreds. Fifteen were killed and hundreds were wounded.

The new code of ethics, permitting physicians to consult with practitioners of any school of medicine, has been unanimously adopted by the New York Medical Society.

Benjamin F. Butler has the distinction of being the first Governor of Massachusetts upon whom Harvard University has not conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. Upon a motion to comply with the precedents the Trustees voted 11 yeas to 10 nays, refusing to bestow the title upon the Governor, who, it had been alleged, intended to refuse it had been tendered to him.

WESTERN.

A new play, entitled "The Power of Gold," by a French author, will be produced at McVicker's Theater, Chicago, on Monday next. An excellent company has been secured for the production, and it will receive all the scenic embellishments and mechanical appliances which this house so well knows how to furnish.

A compromise was effected the other day between the Chicago bricklayers and their employers, by which a strike that had lasted for two months was brought to an end. The basis of the agreement between the masters and the employees is 40 cents per hour for competent workmen. Those whose services are not worth this sum will be deemed as working under instructions, and will be paid during the strike.

Touching the recent battle between the militia and striking miners near Collinsville, Ill., a dispatch from that place gives the following particulars: As Deputy Sheriff Anthony addressed the strikers from a box on the depot platform, saying they had come to have no trouble but to get their money, a shot was fired at them from the hill, which came so near that he drew a revolver and fired at the spot where it came. A general fusillade from the mob followed, and a soldier, getting out of the cars, dropped with a bullet through his chest. Deputy Sheriff Anthony asked Col. Barkley to give the troops an order to fire, which he did, and the militia poured a volley into the strikers. The mob retreated and returned the fire, when a second volley greeted them. The militia and women scattered like sheep through the gullies and ravines. The exact number wounded could not be learned, but twenty-six of the mob were captured, and are guarded at Edwardsville by Company 7. The following list of casualties is authentic: Fred Hoffmann, glassblower, killed—shot through the head; William Starkey, shot through the head and hips; in the side; James Blanchard, Carroll, wounded slightly in the leg; Elmer James, of Edwardsville, one of the militia, shot through the fleshy part of the leg; not dangerous. Those that were arrested were removed to the county seat, Bellevue, where, having been examined on the charge of riot, they were taken to the court house to appear for trial. The town was filled with sympathizers with the prisoners, and after the latter had been released they were taken upon the shoulders of friends and carried through the Court House yard, where they were treated with much kindness.

Thirty students in Delaware (Ohio) College have been suspended for drunkenness and belligerent play. Some of the boys put on in President Payne's room to frighten him, and the animal ruined $300 worth of property.

A considerable delegation of the numerous non-combatant relatives of the Apache Chief Loco have surrendered to the military authorities near San Carlos, Arizona, having recently returned from New Mexico. They report that the hostilities are anxious to submit themselves once more to the authority of the Great Father.

Ex-Vice President Davis and his bride arrived at their home in Bloomington, Ill., last week.

The Northern Ohio Fair Association has ceased to exist, and its grounds near Cleveland were sold at auction the other day. The Cleveland Park Company, which succeeds the Cleveland Club, bought forty acres, which will be devoted to races.

At Fremont, Neb., a Deputy Sheriff was shot in the month by one of two desperadoes, whom he and the Sheriff attempted to arrest. The Sheriff in turn shot the men dead, and after a long chase his companion was captured.

SOUTHERN.

A negro incendiary was hanged by a mob at Marietta, La. county, Ark.

Joseph Hall, Assistant Postmaster at Atlanta, Ga., is $9,000 short in his accounts.

In two hours the Treasurer of Galveston, Tex., disposed of $100,000 of 5-per-cent bonds, the money to be used to carry out his improvements until Congress meets.

This Grand Jury in Montgomery, Ala., has returned six new indictments against United States Marshal Paul Strobel, eighteen against Thomas J. Smith, register of the Land Office and nine against Samuel D. Oliver, the Chief Deputy Marshal.

At Helenwood, Tenn., John and Elmer Cecil, father and son, were shot down by three brothers named Smith. The affair was the result of a feud of several years' standing.

A free fight between whites and blacks at Archer, Alabama county, Ala., resulted in the killing of one on each side.

Mrs. Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, Ky., has published a long statement denouncing the court and jury that she claims was organized to acquit Paul Thompson, and making a strong defense of her husband, claiming his entire innocence of criminal intimacy with Mrs. Thompson, throwing all the blame on Judge Thompson, and claiming that the reason her husband took Mrs. Thompson to his room at the St. Clair Hotel last November was because Miss Barker's room was closed against her at the time for the reasons which are all hinted at.

The most important fact in the statement that a letter was found written by Davis to Thompson, and dated April 28, referring to the scandal connecting him with Mrs. Thompson, solemnly declaring his innocence and his ability to prove it if he (Thompson) could give him the opportunity. This is supplemented by statements from other parties detailing conversations to the same effect, but which they were not permitted to give in evidence at Thompson's trial. The publication has made a great sensation in the New York press, and the affair is not yet over.

Lynchburg, Va., was visited by a conflagration in which a large amount of property in the business part of the city was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $400,000. The fire broke out in the rear of the building, and spread rapidly out of the walls of one of the burning buildings.

James T. Rapier, Revenue Collector of the Montgomery (Ala.) district, and formerly member of Congress, is dead.

Mormon missionaries in Western North Carolina have made many proselytes, who were baptized into the new faith with shocking orgies. Public indignation has been aroused, and some lynchings are not improbable.

The condition of Hon. William D. Kelley, who is suffering from a cancer of the liver, says a Washington dispatch is believed to be more serious than at first supposed. Dr. Agnew, of the quartette of physicians who attended Garfield, has the case in charge.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriation for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The Interior Department is investigating the charges against the management of the Freedmen's Hospital.

There are indications that President Arthur intends to stop the distribution of official patronage in Virginia in the interest of Senator Mahone.

Silas W. Burr, who last year refused a similar position on the National Civil Service Commission, has accepted the Chief Examiner of the New York State Commission, of which John Jay is President.

Senator Warner F. Miller, of New York, in an interview with a Chicago paper, said that the Republican party has made for itself a distinctive record as a protection party, and that any attempt to evade a square avowal of the principle in the next National Convention's platform will result disastrously to the organization.

The market buildings and a large section of the business portion of Uxbridge, Canada, were burned to the ground. Loss, $40,000.

The ship Northampton, from New Orleans for Liverpool, with 1,380 bales of cotton and 9,500 staves, has been wrecked on the coast of Ireland.

Jay Gould and Gen. Grant and the Mexican Government have signed a contract consolidating the Mexican Southern and Mexican Oriental railroads. The former line, which was not subsidized, will now receive $4,000 per kilometre completed.

The receipts of the American Baptist Publication Society last year $73,000, in excess of the receipts of any previous year.

The United Presbyterian Synod, at Pittsburgh, adopted the report of the majority on the music question, which indorses musical instruments in churches. A rather bitter feud has been going on between the delegates prepared a protest which was presented to the synod, against the decision of the majority.

Wherever the weather was propitious, Decoration day was observed at the North by the beautifying of the graves of the white soldiers and sailors who fell in the war. There were exercises of a particularly noteworthy character at Washington and Annapolis, the ex-Confederates uniting at the latter place with those who were blue. In many localities the outdoor observances were of the most interesting character.

There will be no strike of iron-workers at Pittsburgh. A dispatch from that city says: "The conference of the iron manufacturers and Amalgamated Association committees resulted in the manufacturers signing last year's scale of $3.00 per ton for pig iron, and the iron-workers agreeing to a strike. The manufacturers who have all along persisted that they would not pay more than $5, and who were supposed to have a solid front, give as a reason for their unexpected action that they had received information that a number of Western mills had made arrangements to continue at the old scale, with the condition that if the manufacturers here were successful the workmen would accept the same wages; and, rather than risk to see their trade go to other places, decided to pay the wages demanded by the Amalgamated Association. President Jarrett, of the latter scale was signed unconditionally, and characterizes it as a victory without a battle. In the same statement expressed on all sides over the settlement." This settlement applies to all the iron mills in West Virginia, Youngstown and Cleveland.

The National Board of Health has suspended all quarantines against small-pox.

The Government has accepted an additional section of twenty-five miles of the Northern Pacific Railroad in Washington Territory.

Vice President Blanchard, of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad, has been giving a thorough English course to the white and colored men of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, which is the suggestion that it might check the growing disposition of American buyers to go to the continent, rather than deal, as formerly, through English houses.

A considerable delegation of the numerous non-combatant relatives of the Apache Chief Loco have surrendered to the military authorities near San Carlos, Arizona, having recently returned from New Mexico. They report that the hostilities are anxious to submit themselves once more to the authority of the Great Father.

Ex-Vice President Davis and his bride arrived at their home in Bloomington, Ill., last week.

The Northern Ohio Fair Association has ceased to exist, and its grounds near Cleveland were sold at auction the other day. The Cleveland Park Company, which succeeds the Cleveland Club, bought forty acres, which will be devoted to races.

At Fremont, Neb., a Deputy Sheriff was shot in the month by one of two desperadoes, whom he and the Sheriff attempted to arrest. The Sheriff in turn shot the men dead, and after a long chase his companion was captured.

A free fight between whites and blacks at Archer, Alabama county, Ala., resulted in the killing of one on each side.

Mrs. Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, Ky., has published a long statement denouncing the court and jury that she claims was organized to acquit Paul Thompson, and making a strong defense of her husband, claiming his entire innocence of criminal intimacy with Mrs. Thompson, throwing all the blame on Judge Thompson, and claiming that the reason her husband took Mrs. Thompson to his room at the St. Clair Hotel last November was because Miss Barker's room was closed against her at the time for the reasons which are all hinted at.

The most important fact in the statement that a letter was found written by Davis to Thompson, and dated April 28, referring to the scandal connecting him with Mrs. Thompson, solemnly declaring his innocence and his ability to prove it if he (Thompson) could give him the opportunity. This is supplemented by statements from other parties detailing conversations to the same effect, but which they were not permitted to give in evidence at Thompson's trial. The publication has made a great sensation in the New York press, and the affair is not yet over.

Lynchburg, Va., was visited by a conflagration in which a large amount of property in the business part of the city was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $400,000. The fire broke out in the rear of the building, and spread rapidly out of the walls of one of the burning buildings.

James T. Rapier, Revenue Collector of the Montgomery (Ala.) district, and formerly member of Congress, is dead.

Mormon missionaries in Western North Carolina have made many proselytes, who were baptized into the new faith with shocking orgies. Public indignation has been aroused, and some lynchings are not improbable.

The condition of Hon. William D. Kelley, who is suffering from a cancer of the liver, says a Washington dispatch is believed to be more serious than at first supposed. Dr. Agnew, of the quartette of physicians who attended Garfield, has the case in charge.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriation for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The Interior Department is investigating the charges against the management of the Freedmen's Hospital.

There are indications that President Arthur intends to stop the distribution of official patronage in Virginia in the interest of Senator Mahone.

Silas W. Burr, who last year refused a similar position on the National Civil Service Commission, has accepted the Chief Examiner of the New York State Commission, of which John Jay is President.

Senator Warner F. Miller, of New York, in an interview with a Chicago paper, said that the Republican party has made for itself a distinctive record as a protection party, and that any attempt to evade a square avowal of the principle in the next National Convention's platform will result disastrously to the organization.

The market buildings and a large section of the business portion of Uxbridge, Canada, were burned to the ground. Loss, $40,000.

The ship Northampton, from New Orleans for Liverpool, with 1,380 bales of cotton and 9,500 staves, has been wrecked on the coast of Ireland.

Jay Gould and Gen. Grant and the Mexican Government have signed a contract consolidating the Mexican Southern and Mexican Oriental railroads. The former line, which was not subsidized, will now receive $4,000 per kilometre completed.

The receipts of the American Baptist Publication Society last year $73,000, in excess of the receipts of any previous year.

The United Presbyterian Synod, at Pittsburgh, adopted the report of the majority on the music question, which indorses musical instruments in churches. A rather bitter feud has been going on between the delegates prepared a protest which was presented to the synod, against the decision of the majority.

Wherever the weather was propitious, Decoration day was observed at the North by the beautifying of the graves of the white soldiers and sailors who fell in the war. There were exercises of a particularly noteworthy character at Washington and Annapolis, the ex-Confederates uniting at the latter place with those who were blue. In many localities the outdoor observances were of the most interesting character.

There will be no strike of iron-workers at Pittsburgh. A dispatch from that city says: "The conference of the iron manufacturers and Amalgamated Association committees resulted in the manufacturers signing last year's scale of $3.00 per ton for pig iron, and the iron-workers agreeing to a strike. The manufacturers who have all along persisted that they would not pay more than $5, and who were supposed to have a solid front, give as a reason for their unexpected action that they had received information that a number of Western mills had made arrangements to continue at the old scale, with the condition that if the manufacturers here were successful the workmen would accept the same wages; and, rather than risk to see their trade go to other places, decided to pay the wages demanded by the Amalgamated Association. President Jarrett, of the latter scale was signed unconditionally, and characterizes it as a victory without a battle. In the same statement expressed on all sides over the settlement." This settlement applies to all the iron mills in West Virginia, Youngstown and Cleveland.

The National Board of Health has suspended all quarantines against small-pox.

The Government has accepted an additional section of twenty-five miles of the Northern Pacific Railroad in Washington Territory.

Vice President Blanchard, of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad, has been giving a thorough English course to the white and colored men of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, which is the suggestion that it might check the growing disposition of American buyers to go to the continent, rather than deal, as formerly, through English houses.

A considerable delegation of the numerous non-combatant relatives of the Apache Chief Loco have surrendered to the military authorities near San Carlos, Arizona, having recently returned from New Mexico. They report that the hostilities are anxious to submit themselves once more to the authority of the Great Father.

Ex-Vice President Davis and his bride arrived at their home in Bloomington, Ill., last week.

The Northern Ohio Fair Association has ceased to exist, and its grounds near Cleveland were sold at auction the other day. The Cleveland Park Company, which succeeds the Cleveland Club, bought forty acres, which will be devoted to races.

At Fremont, Neb., a Deputy Sheriff was shot in the month by one of two desperadoes, whom he and the Sheriff attempted to arrest. The Sheriff in turn shot the men dead, and after a long chase his companion was captured.

A free fight between whites and blacks at Archer, Alabama county, Ala., resulted in the killing of one on each side.

Mrs. Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, Ky., has published a long statement denouncing the court and jury that she claims was organized to acquit Paul Thompson, and making a strong defense of her husband, claiming his entire innocence of criminal intimacy with Mrs. Thompson, throwing all the blame on Judge Thompson, and claiming that the reason her husband took Mrs. Thompson to his room at the St. Clair Hotel last November was because Miss Barker's room was closed against her at the time for the reasons which are all hinted at.

The most important fact in the statement that a letter was found written by Davis to Thompson, and dated April 28, referring to the scandal connecting him with Mrs. Thompson, solemnly declaring his innocence and his ability to prove it if he (Thompson) could give him the opportunity. This is supplemented by statements from other parties detailing conversations to the same effect, but which they were not permitted to give in evidence at Thompson's trial. The publication has made a great sensation in the New York press, and the affair is not yet over.

Lynchburg, Va., was visited by a conflagration in which a large amount of property in the business part of the city was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $400,000. The fire broke out in the rear of the building, and spread rapidly out of the walls of one of the burning buildings.

James T. Rapier, Revenue Collector of the Montgomery (Ala.) district, and formerly member of Congress, is dead.

Mormon missionaries in Western North Carolina have made many proselytes, who were baptized into the new faith with shocking orgies. Public indignation has been aroused, and some lynchings are not improbable.

The condition of Hon. William D. Kelley, who is suffering from a cancer of the liver, says a Washington dispatch is believed to be more serious than at first supposed. Dr. Agnew, of the quartette of physicians who attended Garfield, has the case in charge.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriation for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The Interior Department is investigating the charges against the management of the Freedmen's Hospital.

There are indications that President Arthur intends to stop the distribution of official patronage in Virginia in the interest of Senator Mahone.

Silas W. Burr, who last year refused a similar position on the National Civil Service Commission, has accepted the Chief Examiner of the New York State Commission, of which John Jay is President.

Senator Warner F. Miller, of New York, in an interview with a Chicago paper, said that the Republican party has made for itself a distinctive record as a protection party, and that any attempt to evade a square avowal of the principle in the next National Convention's platform will result disastrously to the organization.

The market buildings and a large section of the business portion of Uxbridge, Canada, were burned to the ground. Loss, $40,000.

The ship Northampton, from New Orleans for Liverpool, with 1,380 bales of cotton and 9,500 staves, has been wrecked on the coast of Ireland.

Jay Gould and Gen. Grant and the Mexican Government have signed a contract consolidating the Mexican Southern and Mexican Oriental railroads. The former line, which was not subsidized, will now receive $4,000 per kilometre completed.

The receipts of the American Baptist Publication Society last year $73,000, in excess of the receipts of any previous year.

The United Presbyterian Synod, at Pittsburgh, adopted the report of the majority on the music question, which indorses musical instruments in churches. A rather bitter feud has been going on between the delegates prepared a protest which was presented to the synod, against the decision of the majority.

Wherever the weather was propitious, Decoration day was observed at the North by the beautifying of the graves of the white soldiers and sailors who fell in the war. There were exercises of a particularly noteworthy character at Washington and Annapolis, the ex-Confederates uniting at the latter place with those who were blue. In many localities the outdoor observances were of the most interesting character.

There will be no strike of iron-workers at Pittsburgh. A dispatch from that city says: "The conference of the iron manufacturers and Amalgamated Association committees resulted in the manufacturers signing last year's scale of $3.00 per ton for pig iron, and the iron-workers agreeing to a strike. The manufacturers who have all along persisted that they would not pay more than $5, and who were supposed to have a solid front, give as a reason for their unexpected action that they had received information that a number of Western mills had made arrangements to continue at the old scale, with the condition that if the manufacturers here were successful the workmen would accept the same wages; and, rather than risk to see their trade go to other places, decided to pay the wages demanded by the Amalgamated Association. President Jarrett, of the latter scale was signed unconditionally, and characterizes it as a victory without a battle. In the same statement expressed on all sides over the settlement." This settlement applies to all the iron mills in West Virginia, Youngstown and Cleveland.

The National Board of Health has suspended all quarantines against small-pox.

The Government has accepted an additional section of twenty-five miles of the Northern Pacific Railroad in Washington Territory.

Vice President Blanchard, of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad, has been giving a thorough English course to the white and colored men of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, which is the suggestion that it might check the growing disposition of American buyers to go to the continent, rather than deal, as formerly, through English houses.

A considerable delegation of the numerous non-combatant relatives of the Apache Chief Loco have surrendered to the military authorities near San Carlos, Arizona, having recently returned from New Mexico. They report that the hostilities are anxious to submit themselves once more to the authority of the Great Father.

Ex-Vice President Davis and his bride arrived at their home in Bloomington, Ill., last week.

The Northern Ohio Fair Association has ceased to exist, and its grounds near Cleveland were sold at auction the other day. The Cleveland Park Company, which succeeds the Cleveland Club, bought forty acres, which will be devoted to races.

At Fremont, Neb., a Deputy Sheriff was shot in the month by one of two desperadoes, whom he and the Sheriff attempted to arrest. The Sheriff in turn shot the men dead, and after a long chase his companion was captured.

A free fight between whites and blacks at Archer, Alabama county, Ala., resulted in the killing of one on each side.

Mrs. Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, Ky., has published a long statement denouncing the court and jury that she claims was organized to acquit Paul Thompson, and making a strong defense of her husband, claiming his entire innocence of criminal intimacy with Mrs. Thompson, throwing all the blame on Judge Thompson, and claiming that the reason her husband took Mrs. Thompson to his room at the St. Clair Hotel last November was because Miss Barker's room was closed against her at the time for the reasons which are all hinted at.

The most important fact in the statement that a letter was found written by Davis to Thompson, and dated April 28, referring to the scandal connecting him with Mrs. Thompson, solemnly declaring his innocence and his ability to prove it if he (Thompson) could give him the opportunity. This is supplemented by statements from other parties detailing conversations to the same effect, but which they were not permitted to give in evidence at Thompson's trial. The publication has made a great sensation in the New York press, and the affair is not yet over.

Lynchburg, Va., was visited by a conflagration in which a large amount of property in the business part of the city was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $400,000. The fire broke out in the rear of the building, and spread rapidly out of the walls of one of the burning buildings.

James T. Rapier, Revenue Collector of the Montgomery (Ala.) district, and formerly member of Congress, is dead.

Mormon missionaries in Western North Carolina have made many proselytes, who were baptized into the new faith with shocking orgies. Public indignation has been aroused, and some lynchings are not improbable.

The condition of Hon. William D. Kelley, who is suffering from a cancer of the liver, says a Washington dispatch is believed to be more serious than at first supposed. Dr. Agnew, of the quartette of physicians who attended Garfield, has the case in charge.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriation for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The Interior Department is investigating the charges against the management of the Freedmen's Hospital.

There are indications that President Arthur intends to stop the distribution of official patronage in Virginia in the interest of Senator Mahone.

Silas W. Burr, who last year refused a similar position on the National Civil Service Commission, has accepted the Chief Examiner of the New York State Commission, of which John Jay is President.

Senator Warner F. Miller, of New York, in an interview with a Chicago paper, said that the Republican party has made for itself a distinctive record as a protection party, and that any attempt to evade a square avowal of the principle in the next National Convention's platform will result disastrously to the organization.

The market buildings and a large section of the business portion of Uxbridge, Canada, were burned to the ground. Loss, $40,000.

The ship Northampton, from New Orleans for Liverpool, with 1,380 bales of cotton and 9,500 staves, has been wrecked on the coast of Ireland.

Jay Gould and Gen. Grant and the Mexican Government have signed a contract consolidating the Mexican Southern and Mexican Oriental railroads. The former line, which was not subsidized, will now receive $4,000 per kilometre completed.

The receipts of the American Baptist Publication Society last year $73,000, in excess of the receipts of any previous year.

The United Presbyterian Synod, at Pittsburgh, adopted the report of the majority on the music question, which indorses musical instruments in churches. A rather bitter feud has been going on between the delegates prepared a protest which was presented to the synod, against the decision of the majority.

Wherever the weather was propitious, Decoration day was observed at the North by the beautifying of the graves of the white soldiers and sailors who fell in the war. There were exercises of a particularly noteworthy character at Washington and Annapolis, the ex-Confederates uniting at the latter place with those who were blue. In many localities the outdoor observances were of the most interesting character.

There will be no strike of iron-workers at Pittsburgh. A dispatch from that city says: "The conference of the iron manufacturers and Amalgamated Association committees resulted in the manufacturers signing last year's scale of $3.00 per ton for pig iron, and the iron-workers agreeing to a strike. The manufacturers who have all along persisted that they would not pay more than $5, and who were supposed to have a solid front, give as a reason for their unexpected action that they had received information that a number of Western mills had made arrangements to continue at the old scale, with the condition that if the manufacturers here were successful the workmen would accept the same wages; and, rather than risk to see their trade go to other places, decided to pay the wages demanded by the Amalgamated Association. President Jarrett, of the latter scale was signed unconditionally, and characterizes it as a victory without a battle. In the same statement expressed on all sides over the settlement." This settlement applies to all the iron mills in West Virginia, Youngstown and Cleveland.

The National Board of Health has suspended all quarantines against small-pox.

The Government has accepted an additional section of twenty-five miles of the Northern Pacific Railroad in Washington Territory.

Vice President Blanchard, of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad, has been giving a thorough English course to the white and colored men of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, which is the suggestion that it might check the growing disposition of American buyers to go to the continent, rather than deal, as formerly, through English houses.

A considerable delegation of the numerous non-combatant relatives of the Apache Chief Loco have surrendered to the military authorities near San Carlos, Arizona, having recently returned from New Mexico. They report that the hostilities are anxious to submit themselves once more to the authority of the Great Father.

Ex-Vice President Davis and his bride arrived at their home in Bloomington, Ill., last week.

The Northern Ohio Fair Association has ceased to exist, and its grounds near Cleveland were sold at auction the other day. The Cleveland Park Company, which succeeds the Cleveland Club, bought forty acres, which will be devoted to races.

At Fremont, Neb., a Deputy Sheriff was shot in the month by one of two desperadoes, whom he and the Sheriff attempted to arrest. The Sheriff in turn shot the men dead, and after a long chase his companion was captured.

A free fight between whites and blacks at Archer, Alabama county, Ala., resulted in the killing of one on each side.

Mrs. Walter Davis, of Harrodsburg, Ky., has published a long statement denouncing the court and jury that she claims was organized to acquit Paul Thompson, and making a strong defense of her husband, claiming his entire innocence of criminal intimacy with Mrs. Thompson, throwing all the blame on Judge Thompson, and claiming that the reason her husband took Mrs. Thompson to his room at the St. Clair Hotel last November was because Miss Barker's room was closed against her at the time for the reasons which are all hinted at.

The most important fact in the statement that a letter was found written by Davis to Thompson, and dated April 28, referring to the scandal connecting him with Mrs. Thompson, solemnly declaring his innocence and his ability to prove it if he (Thompson) could give him the opportunity. This is supplemented by statements from other parties detailing conversations to the same effect, but which they were not permitted to give in evidence at Thompson's trial. The publication has made a great sensation in the New York press, and the affair is not yet over.

Lynchburg, Va., was visited by a conflagration in which a large amount of property in the business part of the city was destroyed. The loss is estimated at $400,000. The fire broke out in the rear of the building, and spread rapidly out of the walls of one of the burning buildings.

James T. Rapier, Revenue Collector of the Montgomery (Ala.) district, and formerly member of Congress, is dead.

Mormon missionaries in Western North Carolina have made many proselytes, who were baptized into the new faith with shocking orgies. Public indignation has been aroused, and some lynchings are not improbable.

The condition of Hon. William D. Kelley, who is suffering from a cancer of the liver, says a Washington dispatch is believed to be more serious than at first supposed. Dr. Agnew, of the quartette of physicians who attended Garfield, has the case in charge.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that the $100,000 appropriation for the prevention of the spread of epidemic diseases shall be disbursed by the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

The Interior Department is investigating the charges against the management of the Freedmen's Hospital.

There are indications that President Arthur intends to stop the distribution of official patronage in Virginia in the interest of Senator Mahone.

Silas W. Burr, who last year refused a similar position on the National Civil Service Commission, has accepted the Chief Examiner of the New York State Commission, of which John Jay is President.

Senator Warner F. Miller, of New York, in an interview with a Chicago paper, said that the Republican party has made for itself a distinctive record as a protection party, and that any attempt to evade a square avowal of the principle in the next National Convention's platform will result disastrously to the organization.

The market buildings and a large section of the business portion of Uxbridge, Canada, were burned to the ground. Loss, $40,000.

The ship Northampton, from New Orleans for Liverpool, with 1,380 bales of cotton and 9,500 staves, has been wrecked on the coast of Ireland.

Jay Gould and Gen. Grant