In Memoriam.

DIED:—On Sunday, June 17th, 1883, at Pleasant Grove, Indiana, Mrs. Ida P. Moody, wife of Charles P. Moody, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Parkinson, aged twenty-four years and six months. She was possessed of a peculiarly sweet and gentle disposition, and was endeared to all who knew her.

"Gazing the roses and lilies white, Calling them gladly, one by one, Treasuring with footstep light and light The path from womanhood, leading on, Thou wast not weary with toil or care; Why to thee came that summer heat? Thy pure brow, 'neath the sunny hair, No cruel thorn-wreath readily pressed.

Gladness, not patience, wreathed thy smile, Dimpling thy features with winning grace, Sadly we'll miss it, thinking the while, We'll see thee no more in thy wonted place. Pleasant the grass and the daisies white, Ever will spring over thy grave so low, While purple morn and dewy night Shall watch thee, while ages come and go."

THE ELZEVIR LIBRARY.

Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Arctique," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by G. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. Those are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Dorsey, the Star Route angel, filled "high positions" in the Senate and on the national committee of his party, yet the Republican can see that is no argument in his favor. The Republican must be free to admit by this time that there are many methods by which "high positions" may be secured. Fraud Hayes was counted in to the presidency by a method peculiarly original with the "sight." Yet these methods may not offend one way or the other the personal character or standing of an individual.

STRONG FACTS!

A great many people are asking what particular troubles Brown's Iron Bitters is good for.

It will cure Heart Disease, Paralysis, Dropsy, Kidney Disease, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all similar diseases.

Its wonderful curative power is simply because it purifies and enriches the blood, thus beginning at the foundation, and by building up the system, drives out all disease.

A Lady Cured of Rheumatism.

Baltimore, Md., May 7, 1883. My health was much shattered by Rheumatism when I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters. I was scarcely able to get up and to attend to my daily household duties. I am now using the third bottle and I am regaining strength daily, and I cheerfully recommend it to all.

I cannot say too much in praise of this medicine. I gave him Iron Bitters with the happiest results. J. K. MORRIS.

Kidney Disease Cured.

Christiansburg, Va., 1883. Suffering from kidney disease, from which I could get no relief, I was advised to take Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used two bottles and never found anything that gave me so much relief.

For the peculiar troubles to which ladies are subject, BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is invaluable. Try it.

Be sure and get the Genuine.
