WESTERN.

The firm of Rhodes, Hubbs & Co., of Kansas City, Mo., have failed. Liabilities, $82,000.

The mob which lynched the Barber hands at Waverly, Iowa, was considering the mission performed, as mildly riotous as any assembly that ever officiated under the auspices of Judge Lynch. Not a shot was fired, and the crowds used to force the bars and bolts were unaccompanied by profanity. The leaders were men whose relatives had been killed by the outlaws, and their determination was shared by about 1,000 sympathizers. The Mayor of Waverly, it appears, did what he could to prevent mob violence, and the Sheriff in charge of the prisoners refused to give up the keys.

A locomotive and several freight-cars on the Toledo, Cincinnati and St. Louis railroad went down a twenty-foot embankment near Dayton, in consequence of the springing of a bolt while out with a train of coal. WASHINGTON.

The Secretary of the Interior has addressed the following letter to the Secretary of War:

The Hon. T. Lincoln, Secretary of War.

Sir: I understand that Gen. Crook will soon return to the vicinity of San Carlos Agency with a large number of renegades Indians who are of no account and are criminals. I do not think these Indians ought to be allowed to return to the agency. Such, I know, has been the practice. There are no permanent seats if these Indians are allowed to the other two. The court sentenced the convicted to imprisonment for life. Dr. Gallagher protested his innocence and said time would put him right before the world.

May 14, Michael Fagan May 26, and Thomas Cooke June 2, were among the conspirators whose sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life, James Muller, Edward O'Brien, Edward McNaughton, Daniel Delaney and William Mooney, to ten years' servitude and Thomas Doyle to five. The execution of Kelly closes the final chapter of the horrible Phoenix Park history.

Queen Victoria has recovered from the injury to her knee, but her spirits are still depressed.

The Czar has commuted the death sentences imposed upon four nihilists, and reduced the terms of imprisonment to which a number of others were condemned.

The trial of the dynamiters in London was "elabor, sharp and decisive." The witnesses for the defense were speedily examined. The arguments were brief and the Judge's charge was dammatory. The jury was out but a short time and returned a verdict of guilty as to Dr. Gallagher, Wilson, Whitehead and Curtin, and not guilty as to the other two. The court sentenced the convicted to imprisonment for life. Dr. Gallagher protested his innocence and said time would put him right before the world.

LATER NEWS ITEMS.

The colored Republican Club of Washington serenaded S. W. Dorsey the other evening. Acknowledging the compliment, Mr. Dorsey thanked the members of the club for their courage in paying such an honor to one whom the Government had been bending all its power to ruin, and compared the trial just closed to the impeachment of Warren Hastings. Mr. Dorsey has written an extremely caustic letter to the Secretary of the Republican National Committee, in which his past services to the party and the reward he has received are alluded to with bitterness.

The Illinois Democratic State Convention, at Springfield, in session at the Springfield Hotel, on May 18, Hon. John H. G. Smith, its Chairman, appointed a committee of four to act in conjunction with himself and Mr. Goudy, the member for Illinois of the National Committee, to secure the selection of Chicago as the place to hold the next National Democratic Convention.

The business failures during the seven days ending June 16, as reported to R. G. Dun & Co., numbered 183, as against 173 the preceding week. Of these the New England States contributed 24; Middle States, 26; Western, 53; Southern, 35; Pacific States, 18; New York city, 11; and Canada, 19.

A negro named Till Warner, who had brutally outraged a little girl named Bettie Lyons, was hanged by a mob of 500 infuriated people at Cheboygan, Mich. "Everything was conducted so quietly," says an account of the affair, "that very little was known about it until the next morning, but there was no surprise on learning the result, as the town had been greatly excited, however, which it is estimated will amount to nearly $10,000 by the end of the present fiscal year.

When the Criminal Court of the District of Columbia, at Washington, opened on the 14th inst., the jury in the star-route conspiracy case reported that they had agreed upon a verdict of not guilty as to all the defendants, Brady, Dyer and Peck.

The verdict was rendered, the friends of the appellants awaiting the trial of the two late taken were taken by the jury before an agreement was reached, the first showing three for conviction and nine for acquittal.

Counsel for the Government stated that the other indictments against Brady will be pressed.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Henry Watterson recounts a visit to ex-Gov. Samuel J. Tilden at Greystone. The latter is described as being in excellent health, active and enduring, with an intellect unclouded and a wit as keen as it was years ago, while he is as much interested in the events of the day as ever he was. Let all this should cause anxiety among aspiring politicians. Mr. Watterson gives it as his opinion, based upon conversation with his host, that there is no power upon earth that could induce Mr. Tilden again to become a candidate for the Presidency.

The bill increasing the salaries of Legislatives 50 per cent was killed in the Massachusetts Senate—35 to 1.

The Greenback party of Ohio held a State convention on the 13th inst., at Columbus, adopting a platform and nominating candidates for State offices, to be voted on in October. Charles Jenkins, of Mahoning County, heads the ticket as the candidate for Governor.

Modest Dispatch from the General Announcing His Success.

The March to the Stronghold of the Chiricahuas in the Sierra Madres.

Excellent Work Done by the Apache Scouts Under Capt. Crawford.

Under date of Silver Creek, Arizona, Gen. Crook furnishes the following brief and modest account of his successful campaign against the Apache hostiles:

I left here May 1 with 180 Apache scouts under Crawford and Wood Mackay, with Chiricahua's command of forty-two men of the 8th Cavalry and 100 pack mules. We followed the hostile Chiricahuas to a country of inexpressible roughness. A number of muleteers, packers, riding men, and pack animals were lost, and many were killed. The strength of the Chiricahuas was in the very heart of the Sierra Madres. The position is finely situated, with a large stream on the right, and a small one on the left, with a high, rocky, broken, and broken, and a deep, narrow defile. The Apache scouts had to wade through the water, and many of them were lost.

The Apache scouts were sent out to reconnoiter, and a number of them were lost.
