

At Goodland, on the 4th, the Garfield pole was struck by lightning, scattering pieces in all directions. We believe no injury was sustained by any one.

Col. Graham N. Fitch, of Logansport, delivered the oration at Monticello, on the Fourth. The Herald refers to it as follows:

"Col. Graham N. Fitch was on hand and gave the people what is very difficult to give, a good occasion. He spoke with no more than a 'spread eagle.' He spoke without manuscript notes, but while his speech seemed impromptu, it was full of statesmanlike thoughts, the product of a well filled and a well cultured mind. He pointed out as the chief dangers to our republic, corruption in official circles and corruption of the ballot. We are a strong nation, able to whip any foreign power, but let pur votes be bought and sold, and we will soon whip ourselves."

What a stinging rebuke, of the means resorted to by the radical party to secure success, and applauded and endorsed by its members from his candidacy at the White House, who considered Dorsey's use of 'soap,' importation of votes, and instructions in the art of voting double tickets, as a mighty and commendable trick, down to the veriest duds in Jasper county who, without brains to comprehend the danger that may result, can only chuckle over the success of the methods.
