

MAILED.—By Rev. J. L. Claypool, at the residence of Mrs. L. A. Moss, in Rensselaer, on the evening of July 4th, 1883, Dr. J. Horton, of this place, and Miss Mary V. Smith of Union City, Michigan.

Don, has made a host of friends during his residence in Rensselaer who unite in fervent good wishes for himself and his wife.

The Republican of this place and the Oxford Tribune are having a tilt over the blunders they make in their papers.

There are 23,000 acres of water-lands in Burk county, Georgia.

On the morning of November 11, 1811, the battle of Tippecanoe was fought.

In Tennessee an English sparrow went through a threshing machine, and coming out with the chaff, looked a little dazed, but apparently well pleased with its exciting experience.

A century plant at the Soldiers' Home, Dayton, O., is preparing to bloom. The stalk has run up more than twenty feet in the last few weeks.

Montana is so infested by bears that the authorities pay $24 for each scalp taken.

In Newport the fashionable people burn candles entirely, and the gas company "kicks."

Monticello Herald: Dr. Spencer received a dispatch Tuesday from W. H. Dague announcing the destruction of his bank at Fowler by fire. He took the 8 o'clock train for that place Tuesday evening. No particulars have been received, but as the bank was provided with a good safe and vault, it is hoped the loss is not serious.

Mr. F. R. Barnham, Logansport, writes: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a very valuable remedy, and does away with Indigestion."

Roberts Bros. keep on hand buggies of their own as well as of other manufacturers.

ADVERTISED LETTERS
Letters addressed as below remain uncalled for in the Post Office at Rensselaer, Jasper County, Indiana, on the 7th day of July, 1883.

Those not claimed within four weeks from the date below given will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, Washington, D. C.

J. G. Grathner, A. Kalaker, George Kennedy, 2 Mrs. Mary Kerner, James P. Overton, W. S. Snow, W. E. Scott, Mrs. Kate Thomas, C. M. Tribby, Joseph Whitely.

Persons calling for any of the letters in this list please say they are advertised.

HORACE E. JAMES, P. M.
Rensselaer, Ind., July 9, 1883

LAWN SUITINGS!—Some beautiful designs in those goods, at HEMPHILL & HONAN'S.

THE HEIGHT OF FOLLY.
To wait until you are in bed with disease you may not wait for months, is the height of folly, when you might be easily cured during the early symptoms by Parker's Ginger Tonic. We have known sickly families made the healthiest, by a timely use of this pure medicine. Observer.

DRAPER'S CLOTH SUITINGS!—At HEMPHILL & HONAN'S. Call and see them.

IMPORTANT!—When you want Bargains in BOOTS & SHOES go to Priest & Bro.

A BIG SUCCESS.
"My wife was in bed two years with a complication of disorders her physicians could not cure, when I was led to try Parker's Ginger Tonic. It was a big success. Three bottles cured her, at a cost of a dollar and fifty cents, and she is now as strong as any woman."—R. D. Buffalo.

Parker's Hair Balsam
Get The Best

PARKER'S GINGER TONIC
Ginger, Buchu, Haudrake, Stillingia and many of the best medicines known are blended into a medicinal tonic of such potent powers, as to make the Great Blood Purifier and the Best Health and Strength Restorer Ever Used.

It cures Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Sleeplessness, all diseases of the Stomach, Bowels, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, and all Female Complaints.

If you are weary, weary with Consumption or any disease, use the Tonic. It will surely help you. Remember! It is far superior to Bitters, Kernels of Ginger and other Tonics, as it builds up the system without intoxicating. See and feel for yourselves, at all dealers in drugs. None genuine without the name of PARKER & CO., N. Y. Send for circular. LARGE SAYING IN BUYING THE DOLLAR SIZE.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bloating, a fullness in the back, biliousness after eating, a distention of the bowels, a feeling of fullness, a feeling of having eaten too much, a feeling of heaviness in the head, a feeling of dizziness, a feeling of weakness, a feeling of general uneasiness, a feeling of general discomfort, a feeling of general distress, a feeling of general suffering, a feeling of general misery, a feeling of general despair, a feeling of general hopelessness, a feeling of general death.

TUTT'S PILLS
SYMPTOMS OF TORPID LIVER.

MONON ROUTE.
Louisville, N. A. & Chicago Railway.

Solid Trains Between Louisville and Chicago

NORTH TRAINS SOUTH TRAINS

12:00 pm 12:00 pm

1:00 pm 1:00 pm

2:00 pm 2:00 pm

3:00 pm 3:00 pm

4:00 pm 4:00 pm

5:00 pm 5:00 pm

6:00 pm 6:00 pm

7:00 pm 7:00 pm

8:00 pm 8:00 pm

9:00 pm 9:00 pm

10:00 pm 10:00 pm

11:00 pm 11:00 pm

12:00 am 12:00 am

1:00 am 1:00 am

2:00 am 2:00 am

3:00 am 3:00 am

4:00 am 4:00 am

5:00 am 5:00 am

6:00 am 6:00 am

7:00 am 7:00 am

8:00 am 8:00 am

9:00 am 9:00 am

10:00 am 10:00 am

11:00 am 11:00 am

12:00 pm 12:00 pm

1:00 pm 1:00 pm

2:00 pm 2:00 pm

3:00 pm 3:00 pm

4:00 pm 4:00 pm

5:00 pm 5:00 pm

6:00 pm 6:00 pm

7:00 pm 7:00 pm

8:00 pm 8:00 pm

9:00 pm 9:00 pm

10:00 pm 10:00 pm

11:00 pm 11:00 pm

12:00 am 12:00 am

1:00 am 1:00 am

2:00 am 2:00 am

3:00 am 3:00 am

4:00 am 4:00 am

SUDDEN DEATH.
The venerable Mrs. Mary Tharp died suddenly at her residence on Front Street, last Monday evening, at about half past ten o'clock. She resided for the night in her usual state of health at about 9 o'clock, but rose again about an hour later to listen to a loud disturbance at some place across the river. She returned to her bed in a few minutes, still feeling well, but about 15 minutes later called her daughter, Mrs. Lillie Housman, with the information that she was very sick. Mrs. Housman at once aroused the neighbors, and one of them was sent to summon Dr. Loughridge. The latter happened to be making a visit to some of his friends, and something like 30 minutes passed before he reached Mrs. Tharp's bedside, by which time she had been dead for several minutes. The cause of her death was apoplexy. She had previously suffered from several attacks of the same disease, and her death, though sudden, was not unexpected to her friends. The call to her daughter was the last time she ever spoke.

Mrs. Tharp whose maiden name was Mary Simmons Hobbs, was born in Barboursdon England, Jan. 1814, thus lacking but a few months of attaining to the allotted age of three score and ten. She came to America in 1835, and in 1837, at Gallatin, Ohio, was married to Amariah S. Tharp. With her husband she came to Rensselaer in 1845, in or near which place she has ever since resided. She has a family of eight daughters and three sons, all grown, and many grandchildren.

She united with the M. E. church at the age of 12 years, and her whole life has been that of a consistent Christian, and of late years the Bible has been her constant companion. She often spoke to her children about her future life and said she was only waiting for The Master to call her home.

The funeral was held Wednesday at 2 p. m., the services being conducted by the Rev. J. L. Claypool. It took place from her residence, in a very quiet and unostentatious manner, in accordance with the oft-time expressed wishes of the deceased.

To the mourning friends of the departed one, we say but this:

Mary Tharp has served her time. At a ripe old age, full of a firm belief in a blissful immortality, she dies a peaceful death, and leaves behind her the memory of one whose life was without blemish, and whom to know was to respect and love. Such a departure is not death but a happy release from the pains of existence. Excessive grief in such circumstances, is uncalled for, and unnatural. Dry your tears, sorrowing friends, even as she would have them dried.

The Monomes Base Ball Club which played our boys about a year ago, are expected to take a hand with the "Comets" at this place.

The A. O. U. W. Lodge, No. 100, of this place occupies a room up stairs in Leopold's stone building.

Attorney-General Brewster is said to have nineteen kinds of nomenclature on his dresser. How do-ude!

An extra passenger train has been put on between Monon and Indianapolis. Leaves Monon at 5:55 a. m., arrives at Indianapolis at 10:45 a. m. Leaves Indianapolis at 4:30 p. m., arrives at Monon 9:20 p. m. Daily except Sunday.

THE SAFEST WAY.
The safest and surest way to restore the youthful color of the hair is furnished by Parker's Hair Balsam, which is deservedly popular from its superior cleanliness.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, JOHN B. ALDEN, 18 Vesey St., New York.

Several commodious and comfortable houses to rent. Enquire at citizens' Bank.

THE ELZEVIER LIBRARY.
Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published at