

THE DEMOCRATIC SENTINEL.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JASPER COUNTY.

FRIDAY AUGUST 24, 1883.

A daughter at Will Eger's.

A meeting of the "Old Settlers" of White county, at Monticello, next Thursday.

The old war-horse, Gen. Manson, will deliver an address at the reunion at Fowler.

L. M. Bergman, of Ohio, visited his brothers, Will and Emmet, at this place, the present week.

The Kentucky House of Representatives stands twelve Republicans and eighty-eight Democrats. The Senate seven Republicans and thirty-one Democrats.

The tariff should be taken off of all the necessities of life. Keep the tax on tobacco, whisky, diamonds, etc., and take it off of coffee, sugar, clothing and other necessities.

Many counties cannot boast of an Agricultural Association. Jasper county can with pride boast of two in successful operation for a number of years and increasing in usefulness and vigor.

Mr. S. P. Sheerin, clerk of the supreme court of this State, was married at Louisville, Ky., Tuesday morning, August 14th, at 5 o'clock, to Miss Dougherty, an estimable young lady from one of the best and wealthiest Louisville families.

Quite a sensation was created at the Institute yesterday by the announcement that at the close of the day's exercises a game of base ball would be played between the famous "Comets" and a picked nine from among the lady members of the Institute. On adjournment the ladies selected their officers, proceeded to the ball ground and reported ready. Charles Warner was elected umpire. At the end of the fourth inning, it being time to adjourn for supper, the tally-man announced a tie, and the umpire so declared amid the cheers of the assemblage for the ladies. Professors Black and Ragan looked on with interest and seemed to enjoy with keen relish the success of their pupils.

Extensive preparations are making by the management of the Remington Fair to make it a grander success than ever before. Remember, the Fair commences next Tuesday and closes the following Friday.

The Jasper County Fair will commence at this place, on the 11th of September next, and continue four days. The officers are doing all in their power to insure satisfaction to everybody.

We trust our people will make it a point to attend both Fairs, and place on exhibition articles of interest and merit. These institutions are Jasper county enterprises, and they are entitled to the hearty support and encouragement of our citizens.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Lafayette Courier, Tuesday: Miss Mary Pritchard, of Chauncey, and Mr. Samuel Rodgers, of Rensselaer, will be united in bonds matrimonial this evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Bates, in Chauncey. Rev. Mr. Reed, of the Chauncey Baptist church will officiate. The Chauncey boys are preparing to give the bridal party a rousing reception. Our informant run against a corps of mechanics in the rear end of a certain carpenter shop busy in the construction of mammoth horse fiddle. It was a four-horse concern which will do duty at the "reception" and there will be numerous other instruments of corresponding richness of discordance. The groom is a member of the Rensselaer brass band and connected with one of the hotels at that place.

MATRIMONIAL.

Lafayette Journal, Wednesday: Miss Mary Pritchard, of Chauncey and Mr. Samuel Rodgers, of Rensselaer, were united in marriage last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Bates, in Chauncey. Rev. Mr. Reed, of the Chauncey Baptist church, officiated. A large party of friends and acquaintances gathered to witness the ceremony and congratulate the happy couple upon their good prospects for a happy journey through life. The presents were numerous and appropriate. The newly married pair will leave for Rensselaer to-day.

Remington Fair next Tuesday.

Jasper County Fair 11th next September.

The steam mill is now getting in its work.

Miss Frankie McEwen is visiting friends in Monticello.

Miss Anna McEwen is visiting Mrs. Myra Cotton, in Remington, and will visit friends in Monticello, Saturday.

Parties in the interest of the Ft. Wayne, Peoria & Galesburg R.R. re-registered at the Makeover House this week.

Harbott & Carr have the contract for the construction of McCoy's bank building. It is to be completed by November 20th, next.

Miss Nora Moriarity, of Chicago, visited Rensselaer Thursday of last week on her way to attend the Rogers-Pritchard nuptials at Lafayette.

Bert. Small, having finished his canvass as book agent, returned home to Idaville on Tuesday, and will come back to deliver the books on the first week in September.

The time for holding service, by the Christian denomination at the Randle School House, in Barkley township, has been changed from the first Sunday of each month to the third.

Samuel Rogers and Miss Mollie Pritchard, of this place, were married at Lafayette, Tuesday last, August 21, 1883. The best wishes of many friends are tendered "Sam" and his bride.

Early Sunday evening the barn on the premises of A. M. Traugh, in Carpenter township, was destroyed by fire. Nine horses and a large quantity of hay was in the barn. The horses were saved. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

OUR HISTORY.—We have been shown some excellent lithographic portraits of prominent men who have appeared in historical works of Northern Indiana, and while Jasper county is being written we would like to see some of her leading men represented in this department. In Rensselaer alone there are several whose faces would grace the pages of any work, whose lives, interwoven with the history of the county, its progress and prosperity, makes it fitting they should be so handed down to future generations; and we would like, too, for the same reasons, to see every township in the county equally represented in its pages. Mr. C. L. Goodspeed is here closing up the work preparatory to going to press, and it is to be hoped our citizens will lend their influence to this enterprise.

The County Institute is in successful operation, with the following list of instructors and members at commencement:

"YOUNG AMERICA."

Wheatfield, Aug. 24, 1883.

PIERCETON LETTER.

PIERCETON, IND., 17th Aug., 1883.

DEAR MR. C.: The time for your railroad election I believe is past, and your citizens who voted against the proposed railroad tax, in my judgment, voted against their best interests. To say nothing of the advantages of the proposed road, and the increased value it would impart to real estate, the money such a road would pay into your county treasury in the shape of taxes, would in a few years reimburse your present outlay and then be a perpetual help in the reduction of taxes.

The harvest is past, and farmers are happily disappointed in both the quantity and quality of wheat, oats and grass, but the present outlook of the corn crop is not flattering. We had a good rain last Sabbath, which will be of incalculable advantage to vegetation.

G. W. Shoemaker, whose factory was destroyed by fire last spring, is again at work, with a larger and better building, and more machinery, is now ready to supply your citizens with rustic chairs, rustic flower vases and baskets of any size or pattern desired, and all the wheelbarrows you will need in building your new railroads.

Piercetown is now in telephonic communication with Ft. Wayne, Plymouth, Peru, and all surrounding towns. It is a much cheaper, and a more satisfactory mode of communication with absent friends than by telegraph.

While the outlook for fruit and corn is not promising, the general health of the country is good, and the poorest who are willing to work, will have bread enough to eat and to spare.

Very sincerely and truly yours,

A. TAYLOR.
