

THE DEMOCRATIC SENTINEL

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JASPER COUNTY.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1883.

The Jasper County Fair, September 11th, 12th, 13th & 14th.

Maloy is putting in the foundation for McCoy's new block.

Radicalism is in a fair way of getting snowed under in the approaching elections.

Thanks to Murray Keller, Gen. Passenger Agent L. N. A. & C. for handsome favors.

Mrs. I. S. Wade, daughter of Rinal Benjamin, of this place, after a long and painful illness, died at her home, 11 Lafayette, last Monday morning.

Dorsey's "soap" was employed in the impetration of voters and "re-peaters" to outvote the rightful citizens of the State.

The L. N. A. & C. sell tickets to Louisville and return, every day during the Exposition, at ONE FARE for the round trip. Tickets good 15 days from date of sale.

NOTICE.—I lost, on the 3d day of September, 1883, a check, as follows:

RENSSELAER, IND., Sept. 3, 1883.

CITIZENS BANK,
Pay to Mr. Tapp, or bearer,
Twenty seven 60/100 Dollars in currency.

$27.60. B. F. F. & Co.

And all persons are warned not to receive the same as a duplicate has been issued by B. F. Ferguson, and paid.

EVAN M. TAPP.

Congressman Warner, of Ohio says that "there were so many things in Dorsey's story that he knew to be true that he had to accept it all." Jewell himself told him that Dorsey's Finance Committee had raised an immense sum, of which he (Jewell) knew nothing for three months, and that they had kept him in ignorance because it was proposed to spend the money in a manner which he would not tolerate. While he was busy raising money from manufacturers to make the fight on the tariff, this Committee of New York bankers were raising immense amounts and spending them improperly. Jewell condemned in the severest terms the manner in which the money was used.

John C. New said he did not know where the Indiana two dollar bills came from, but he knew "they did a heap of good."

There are other men prominent men, who possess information as to the truthfulness of Dorsey's charges, and possess that without the obligation of confidence. Some of them may ere long tell what they know.

Gen. Durbin Ward made a splendid Democratic speech the other night at Galion Ohio. The Republicans of the Buckeye State, thought to profit by the temporary disappointment occasioned the General by the nomination of Judge Hoadly. The old war horse concluded his speech as follows: "On the other hand, my Democratic friends, our party is perennial. Its principles are suited to every phase of National progress, every need of social development. It discards centralization and paternal Government. It teaches that when hundreds of millions gather under our flag from every clime and nation no repose can be had except under that dual system of government which gives indestructible autonomy both to the Union and the States, and leaves the largest liberty of individual action. Break down or enfeeble the States, and rule from the Federal Capitol by saps or Pro-Consuls from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and the corruptions and licentiousness of Persia or Rome will extinguish public liberty or drown the struggling Nation in a sea of blood; or clothe Government with paternal power over the social movements of the people and our civilization would be stereotype into a lifeless conservatism. The past of the Democratic party guarantees the country against these evils from its rule in the future. My comrades, to us and those who come after us, the preservation and enforcement of our principles are committed. Banish from you counsels and your methods all time-serving, policy or ambition, all chicanery or corruption if any exists, all vacillation and timidity, and press forward to victory in October, and next year and all future years. Rally and uphold the standard of constitutional liberty and personal rights, not only as the guide of the hour, but that they may be transmitted in full vigor and with progressive power to our children's children as a legacy on during forever."

PRESBYTERIAN.—Rev. Gilbert Small, at his next regular appointment, besides preaching in the Presbyterian church morning and evening, on the Third Sabbath of September, will also preach in the Egypt school house at 3 o'clock p.m. on that day, 16th.

The Female Missionary Society held their regular monthly meeting at the Presbyterian church at 3 p.m. on Wednesday of this week.

The weekly prayer meeting was held in the evening of Tuesday this week on account of the pastor being present.

FREE WILL BAPTIST.—The next session of the Northern Indiana Yearly Meeting of the Free-Will Baptist denomination will be held in the Presbyterian church, in Rensselaer, commencing Thursday evening, September 20th, and to continue over the following Sabbath. All are cordially invited.

By appointment of Northwest Indiana Conference Elder Cissel goes to College Avenue church Green-castle; Rev. J. H. Claypool is Presiding Elder of this district; Rev. J. C. Webster takes charge of the Rensselaer church, and Rev. J. J. Claypool is assigned to the church at Morton, Putnam county, in the Green-castle district.

Rev. Jas. T. Abbott attended the late conference as a lay delegate.

A BASE-(BAWL) ATTACK.

Editor Democratic Sentinel: I notice an article in the Goodland Herald, of Saugatuck, St. Pt. 1st, in regard to the game of base ball, played on the Remington Fair Ground, which, in my opinion, should be noticed, from the fact that it is calculated to mislead. The Herald says "the game was virtually won by the Goodland club, but the ignorance or cussedness of the fair officers beat them out of the $20 purse." The above imputations are very unjust when urged against such men as Porter, Hensler, Hoover, Tabor, Bellows, Snyder, Durand and others who have built up the reputation of their association by straightforward honesty until it ranks to-day among the best district organizations in the State. The editor further says: "They [the 'Comets'] evidently knew that the Goodland club would clean them out if in good trim and they wanted to take advantage of their condition to gobble the $20." What superlative nonsense! What means had those clubs of knowing the merits of each other? They had never before contested the field. The fact is the whole matter was carried out in accordance with the programme.

The "Comets" extend to the Goodland club fellowship and good-will, regarding them as equals in honesty and good standing as citizens. They do not believe the Goodland club endorse the "caterwauling" exhibition in the Herald of Sept. 1st. They attribute it to Kit-anish zeal; and in this particular case it proves to be overzeal. They believe they owe nothing to the feline-named genius that presided over the columns of the Herald, and can well afford to a low him full enjoyment at purring or sputtering.

CHARGE.—The "Comets" have made up a purse of $150 00 which they will place against a like amount to be raised by the Goodland club, to be contested for by the same clubs and members thereof, as shown by tally sheets. The contest "come off on the same ground, and within the next twenty days—the winning club to take the pot."

Water.

Water is so common that few persons think of it as the most important factor in the building up and civilization of the world. The rocks were mud and sand made by water and laid down by it, one kind on top of another. Coal, made of plants, was covered up by water, so that the rotten plants were kept there and changed to coal. Veins of lead, copper, gold, silver and crystals, were cracks in the rocks, filled with water that had these precious things dissolved in it. And water, as ice (glaciers), ground up rocks into earth, in which plants can grow, the sea and streams helping to do the work. Water builds plants, and animals, too. Three-quarters of what they are made of is water. When you pay twenty cents for a peck of potatoes you are really paying fifteen of the cents for the water that is in the potato. A boy who weighs eighty pounds, if perfectly dried up, would only weigh twenty pounds. And there can be no potato or boy without water. It must dissolve things to make them into new things; and it carries them where they are wanted to build the new things. It softens food, and then as watery blood carries the food to every part of the body to make new flesh and bones, that we grow and have strength. It carries the plant's food up into the plant. Water carries man and goods in boats, and, as steam, drives the cars. It makes the wheels go in the factories. It is a great worker, and we could not get along without it. It makes much of the beauty in the world.
