It will contain well considered editorials on every subject, political or social, which may arise. The Commercial and Market Reports of the WEEKLY SENTINEL will be complete. Its "Agricultural and Home Departments are in the best of hands, and will be a distinguishing feature. In a word, in its news, its editorials, literary, miscellany, and in its general reading, it shall not be surpassed by any paper circulated in the State. It will be particularly adapted to the family circle. No thinking man in the State can afford to do without the Weekly Sentinel, at the small cost at which it is furnished.

THE SENTINEL, in addition to its superiority, is moreover an Indiana Paper, devoted to and especially represents Indiana's interests, political and otherwise, as no foreign paper will or can do, and ought, therefore, to have preference over the papers of other States, and we ask Democrats to bear this in mind, and

THE IMPENDING CONFLICT.

The recent elections have revealed political conditions which will, without doubt, make the Presidential election next fall the greatest political conflict of our history. It is due to truth to say that the conditions shown are such that each party may reasonably believe that it can succeed by a mighty effort.

Here in Indiana, as in '76 and '80, will be enacted a mighty struggle.

The corrupt party which has been ferrency a generation fattening upon spoils and plunder, will go from its long possession of a Canaan flowing with the milk and honey of spoils, only when it has exhausted its utmost endeavors to lay. The Country is no stranger to the character and variety of means brought into requisition where a Republican monopolists, bosses and plunderers united to make an effort.

Fellow Democrats, there are conditions upon which we may reasonably reckon a probable success. These are conditions, and they are the only ones, are limited and great effort. EVERY SHOULD DO TO THE WHEEL.

Even now the conflict is in the air.—
The Sentinel will contribute its best effort to the end of a grand Democratic victory.

Its work can be best done when a weekly visitor to every Democratic home, hence we ask to become such a visitor, and add that now is the time for every Democrat in the State to subscribe for the Sentinel.

F. J. SEARS & SON, Opposite Court House.

In reported, an Irishman is thoroughly equal to the occasion, the joy of retaliation being a marked feature so characteristic of their race.
On one occasion Judge Porter, a popular Irish magistrate, in pronouncing the sentence of the Court, said to a notorious drunkard: "You will be confined in Jail for the long est period the law will allow, and I sincerely hope you will have a some portion of the time to enjoy whisky " by the powers, I will!" was the answer, "and Porter too."

THESE ARE SOLID FACTS.

The best blood purifier and system regulator ever placed within the reach of humanity, truly is Elett's Bitters.
Inactivity of the Liver, Biliousness, Jaundice, constipation, Weak Kidneys, or any disorder of the urinary organs, or whoever requires an appetizer, tonic or mild stimulant, will always find Elett's Bitters the best and only certain cure known.— They act surely and quickly, every bottle guaranteed to give entire satisfaction or money refunded. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by F. R. Leaning.

Cropping the Hair.

Attentive it appears, says an exchange, that a radical change in the fashion of arranging woman's greatest glory, her hair, is really to take place. We hear rumors of impending innovation from headquarters—in other words, from Paris. It is probable, though, that they will here be simply voices in the air and nothing more for some time still. First, because a new fashion never gets fairly started with us until it is almost an old one on the other side (this statement may sound both unfair and unparliamentary, but it is literally exact, nevertheless), and then because the close, prim, demure little coiffure of a l'Anglaise which is now worn, and has been for the past two years or more, is exceptionally suited to the small, delicate head and slim face of the average American woman. It is not so well suited to the pique, irregular-featured "minors" of the Parisiennes, however. Therefore they have begun to adopt a looser, softer less severe style of coiffure.

The hair will, during the winter, it seems, be worn lower on the neck, in coils, braids, or curls, and in the evening, when flowers are added, they will be mounted in trailing sprays and gar-lands, to fall gracefully on the said (old bride), or curls. The hair (or curls) are apparently destined again to be in especial favor. And there have been recently a number of young ladies seen abroad with their hair cropped short like a boy's, and curled in fluffy ring all over the head, after that same fashion so very much in vogue about ten years ago.

There are faces to which it is an undeniably becoming coiffure, this. But as to its being generally becoming, or even remotely so—that is not, surely, a blonde, rather small and delicate ana-stomias, with eyes soft, silky hair, or rather a child-like face, perhaps, look most charming with her sunny halo of clustering rings, quite a cherub, and probably ten years younger than she is.

We knew a Polish lady some few years ago, with a pretty, pale, spirituelle face, ash-blonde hair, dark-brown eyes, and a mole on her left cheek, who had adopted this coiffure, with a black velvet and blue ribbon passed across the front occasionally, and it suited her to absolute perfection. But then there are hosts of women who, after they have made the sacrifice of hair for a passing fashion, look anything but well with cropped and curly heads—in fact, look quite decidedly the opposite from well.
And it is no small sacrifice for a woman with a fine suit of hair to have it cut off either. The result should pay very well to make the performance at all satisfactory. It is one of those cases in which the immortal Shakespeare's counsel to look before we leap may be pondered with good effect.

SIXTY-THIRD YEAR.

Announcement extraordinary.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

$2.00 A YEAR FOR ONE COPY —OR—
$1.00 A YEAR IN CLUBS OF 10.

Now is the time to raise clubs for the coming year.

We have obtained to get a very large list of new subscribers, and in order to do so we will receive subscribers at ONE DOLLAR A YEAR, IN CLUBS OF TEN!

Inducement to each of our subscribers to join a club we will give a gratuity for every club of 10 at $1.00 each. If fewer, we will not send a gratuity of less than $2.00; and in order to get the reduced rate, a club must send at least ten subscribers. We cannot send a less number for less than $2.00 each.

Think of it! 10 copies of THE POST one year, with one extra for sending the Club, making 11 copies for $10.

As to the Post, there are few in this country or any other country, who are not familiar with it. Established in 1821, it is the best paper of its kind in America, and for more than half a century it has been recognized as the leading literary and family Journal in the United States. For the coming year we have secured the best writers of this country and Europe, in Prose and Verse, Fiction and Non-Fiction.

A record of over sixty years of continuous publication proves its worth and popularity. The Post has never missed an issue. Its fiction is of the highest order—the best original Stories, Sketches and Narratives of the day. It is perfectly free from the degrading and polluting trash which characterizes many other so-called literary and family papers. It gives more for the money, and of a better class, than any other publication in the world. Each volume contains, in addition to its well-edited departments, twenty-five first-class Serials, by the best living authors, and upwards of five hundred long stories. Every number is replete with useful information and amusement, comprising Tales, Adventures, Sketches, Biography, Statistics, acts, Recipes, Hints, Cautions, Poetry, Science, Art, Philosophy, Manners, Cusoms, Proverbs, Problems, Experiments, Personals, News, Wit and Humor, Historical Essays, Remarkable Events, New Discoveries, and a complete report of all the latest fashions, as well as all the newest in needlework, and fullest and freest information relating to personal and home adornment, and domestic matters. To the people everywhere it will prove one of the best, most instructive, reliable and moral papers that have ever entered their homes.

We trust those who design making up clubs will be in the field as early as possible. Our price to club subscribers by the reduced rate are so low that if the matter is properly explained, very few who desire a first-class literary paper will hesitate to subscribe at once, and thank the get up of the club for making the paper to their mind. Remember, the getting up of a club of 10 gets a free copy of the paper an entire year.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters:

Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881.
Gents:—The foolish wasting of vital forces in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuritis, consumption, fever complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

A OINOINATI paper intimates that it is a bigger thing in that city to have a hotel named after you than it is to be written about in a book.

THE LITERARY REVOLUTION.

Alden's "Literary Revolution," which has accomplished such wonders in the reduction of the cost of the world's choicest literature, while presenting it in excellent, often elegant, form, has been a great mystery to many. If there is any secret about it, Mr. Alden evidently means it shall be an open one. A recent publication summarizes with characteristic pith "The Old Way" and "The New Way."

THE OLD WAY:

Charge all the customer will stand and complaints permit.
Big discounts to dealers and agents, (when competition compels); but the private buyer take care of himself.
1,000 books, profit, $1 each—$1,000.
Publish the books that will sell.
Take care of "Number One."

THE NEW WAY:

Give the best book possible for the least money possible.
Sell to buyers direct giving them all possible discounts.
1,000,000 books, profit one cent each—$10,000.
Publish the books that deserve to sell—merit wins in the end.
To make $1, and a friend is better than $5 profit.
Publish things.—U. Grant.

MR. MCCARTHY'S REPLY.

Some time after the commencement of our paper, and within the first year, the Kansas-Nebraska Bill was introduced into Congress. We were urged by certain Republicans to come out in opposition to this bill, as it was, in their estimation, a great outrage. We declined, and assigned as a reason that we were publishing a neutral paper. We were urged to distance with our scruples, but did not see fit to comply. Other circumstances, of a similar character transpired which if revealed might be anything but palatable to the Republican party of Jasper county, but we scorn to betray the confidence of even a political opponent. We have never obligated ourself to secrecy in the matter alluded to, but it was confided to us in confidence and we shall not disclose it, although, by doing so, we might vindicate ourself and at the same time place one of the highest official dignitaries in the Republican party in a very ridiculous position.
The only attempt ever made to induce us to violate our neutrality was made by leaders of the Republican party. Having failed in this, and finding that we were democratic in principle, they suddenly became disaffected towards the banner; and under the plea that they understood that we were to buy in their stock, manifested their displeasure. Under these circumstances almost the entire stock owned by the Republicans was bought up, or it is a significant fact that they were the only ones that complained of a misunderstanding. This occurred, we believe, during the first year.
(Conclusion next week.)

sington, has a fine stock of Watches,

EVERYBODY'S DOCTOR.

BY ROBERT A. GUNN, M. D.

Everybody's Doctor contains 684 octavo pages, and is printed on fine paper and handsomely bound. It is sold at the low price of three ($3.00) dollars a copy, so as to bring it within the reach of all.

The work offers from all other books on Domestic Medicine in having the diseases systematically arranged, according to their classification. Everything is described in the simplest possible language, and the prescriptions are written out in plain English so that they can be employed by any intelligent reader.

Druggists will find this book of great advantage in aiding them to give advice when asked to do so.

Doctors will find much information in it that will prove valuable to themselves and their patients.

Teachers will be better prepared for the performance of their duties in the school room by studying it.

Parents will find it a reliable adviser in every thing relating to the rearing of their children.

Every family can save fifty times the price of the book every year, by consulting it.

It is complete in all its parts, and is the most recent book of the kind published.

The book will be sent free by mail on express on receipt of three dollars.
