OFFICIAL PAPER OF JASPER COUNTY.

FRIDAY DECEMBER 28 1883.

The wife of Gen. Rosecrans died in Washington City on the 26th.

Eighty eight per cent. of the wealth probabilities made this year have proved correct.

Such is the location of Eagle city, N. V., in the Coeur d'Alene mountain that the sun does not shine upon it until 11 a. m., and then only for an hour, disappearing behind the mountain at noon.

Lafayette boasts of the smallest and largest girls of their age in the world. Annie Toole, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, aged twenty-one, is less than thirty inches tall. Lettie Weygold, twelve years of age, weighs 211 lbs.

Ex-Governor Long, of Massachusetts, has been forced to explain to the Boston Civil Service Association why he voted for Keifer for Speaker. The only reason he gives is that the other Republican Congressmen did the same thing.

Hon. Thomas R. Cobb, of this State, Chairman on Public Lands, has already shown his hand this session by bills to repeal the land grants to railroads and a joint resolution to prevent the Secretary of the Interior from issuing patents to lands granted to railroads where these have not been constructed within the specified time.

On Thursday of last week seventy mechanics who had been discharged from the Paterson Locomotive Works on account of slackness of work sailed on the steamer Alaska for Europe, to go to work at iron steamship building on the Clyde. Does protection protect when such things happen? Or are these discharged American mechanics the "pauper" laborers of Europe we hear so much about?

The Fort Wayne Gazette (Rep.) propounds the following conundrum: Why should Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri be denominated "rebel States"? Each of them furnished as many soldiers to Union as Confederate Armies. If these soldiers and the 10,000 that went out of Texas with the late Governor Davis had served Jefferson Davis with half the fidelity they illustrated in adhesion to Lincoln, we would to-day have two instead of one consolidated Empire.

The answer is easily stated. The reason that the three States named are called "rebel States" is because they detest Republicanism and will not vote that ticket.

And the reason why Longstreet, Mahone, Guerilla Mosby, and other old rebs are called patriots and Union men, by the Republican party, is because they vote the Republican ticket.

The Washington Republican seems to be "on to" Bob Ingersoll's little scheme. It says:

"Some people," said the ex-Governor of Maryland, thought that Bob Ingersoll was crazy or a fool because he made such a fuss over the Supreme Court decision in the civil rights case. That's where some people were mistaken. Ingersoll knows that it is a good thing for him to be a delegate to National Republican Convention. When he gave up his residence in Illinois he tried to be a delegate from his District. Everything was properly arranged to that end, when a black man got up in the District Convention of black men and asked: "Does Bob Ingersoll love Jesus?" It was unanimously decided that he didn't, and they said: "away with him." They didn't send him to the National convention. By and by the Supreme Court makes a little decision, and Ingersoll says that the parlor is none too good for the black man. Do you think any black man will inquire whether Ingersoll loves Jesus next time? Not much. Ingersoll will be a delegate to the next Convention and will nominate Blaine or somebody, and the whole American people will center in Ingersoll again for the time being.

Judge Downey, Judge Holman and Colonel Gray are mentioned by their friends in connection with the next canvass for Governor of the State. It is more than likely there will be a lack of good material for the nomination. It must not be forgotten that Judge Turpie has many friends north of Indianapolis who would be gratified to see him head the State ticket for 1884. If we are to have an aggressive campaign next year, then we want Turpie more than ever. Turpie's friends will be heard from in the State Convention.—Winamac Democrat.

The first thing that the Democracy did the opening of the present session of Congress was to pass a resolution in securing retaining all the crippled soldiers on the roll of the doorknobs. That is pretty well for a "rebel Congress," eh?—Richmond Enquirer.

"A Literary Republic."

"Fifty million of people, mostly fools," was Carlyle's pointed way of putting it. The now brilliantly successful Literary Revolution—which a few months ago was supposed to be permanently doomed—assumes the opposite, that people are not mostly fools, but that they want Good books rather than trash, and the "Literary Republic" is the result. Every reader is a voter. Ballots in the first election are to be cast (by postal card), before January 1, 1884. The following are the first "candidates" for honors:

GEORGE RAWLINSON.—"History of the Seven Great Monarchies of the Ancient Eastern World." In three large 12mo. volumes, about 2,400 pages, with profuse and fine illustrations. Price reduced from $18 to $3.

JOHN RUSKIN.—"Modern Painters" and "Stones of Venice." In five handsome 12mo. volumes, about 3,250 pages, with many illustrations. Price reduced from $30 to $4.

GUIZOT and DE WITT.—"History of France, from the earliest time to 1848." Translated from the French. Profusely illustrated. In five large 12mo. volumes, about 4,000 pages. Price reduced from $36 to $5.

HENRI VAN LAUN.—"Complete History of French Literature." In two large 12mo. volumes, about 1,000 pages. Price reduced from $7.50 to $1.50.

The candidates stand separately. Vote for those you want, one or all. It will take 10,000 votes for each to elect. The 10,000 being received, the books described will be published during the present winter on the terms stated. No money is asked in advance. You can receive and examine the books before paying for them. A specimen number of the IRVING LIBRARY, giving samples of type, paper, and other particulars, will be sent free to any applicant. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, publisher, 18 Versey St. New York.

WHAT FOR?

A boy and girl a-sleighing went, And neither of them cared a cent How fast they slid, While on they slid— What for, and where!

The air was very cold and raw— The little boy, he froze his paw. Still on they sped In their little sled— What for, and where?

The little girl, so young and fair, Lost nearly all her golden hair. They went so fast, Their friends they passed— What for, and where!

The horse, of course, got badly scared, And run, and pitched, and kicked, and reared, On went the pair— Now almost there— What for, and where?

The boy and girl were tumbled out— She sprained her ear he broke his snout— Then off they got, And off they got— What for, and where?

For Levine's little candy store— To get some candy—Nothing more— They got it, too, And so may you— What for?

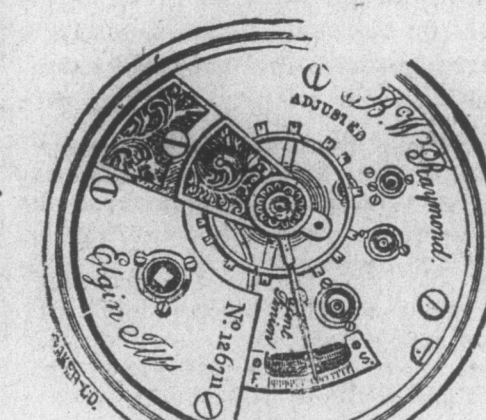

Why from 11 to 40 cents a pound; and our nice, sweet magnolias and delicious cream candies and chocolate goods, owing to a heterogeneous conglomeration of unforeseen difficulties, at prices to suit all.
