

CHRONOLOGY.

A Record of the Notable Occurrences of 1883.

Brought Down to the Close of the Year.

1. Ferry-boat sinks near Frankfort, Germany: thirty-five people drowned. Several white men killed by blacks in a riot at Ocoee, Ga.
2. Ferry-boat in Jackson county, N. C., upsets, drowning nineteen negro convicts.
3. Destructive floods along the rivers Rhine and Danube; nearly 100 lives lost. Bark Star of the West lost in the Atlantic ocean, fifteen people perished.
4. Four men killed at Muskegon, Mich., and three at Black Horse Landing, W. Va., by boiler explosions. United States Senate passes the Civil Service Reform bill.
5. Discovery of a heavy defalcation by State Treasurer, John Howard Payne, at Nashville, Tenn.
6. Remains of John Howard Payne shipped from Tunis to the United States.
7. Steamer City of Brussels sinks in the English channel; ten persons drowned.
8. Ten men killed by a powder explosion at Coulterville, Ill. Fifteen killed by a bursting boiler at Bethlehem, Pa. Ship Empire sinks at sea; sixteen lives lost.
9. Burning of the Newhall house, Milwaukee; nearly 100 lives lost. Terrible floods in Hungary; over fifty people drowned.
10. Over 300 people burned to death in a circus building at Berdicheff, Russia.
11. Twenty people killed by a railway accident at Canterbury, Italy. Four persons lost their lives by a fire in the Planters' house, St. Louis.
12. Attempted assassination of the Sultan of Turkey.
13. Prince Jerome Napoleon arrested in Paris for issuing a manifesto claiming the throne. Five persons burned to death in a London tenement house.
14. Eight people killed by a boiler explosion on the steamer in Port Susan Bay, Pacific coast. Meeting of the National Republican committee at Washington.
15. Iowa Supreme Court pronounces the State Liquor law unconstitutional. Four men killed by a boiler explosion at Mansfield, La. Phenomenal cold weather in the far West.
16. Steamer Cimbric sinks in the German ocean; nearly 400 people drowned. Forty people killed by a falling wall at Sacramento, Cal. Holland. Robberies in Southwest Nevada, involving the killing of five citizens and two highwaymen.
17. Six men drowned off a Gloucester fishing schooner. Five people killed by a railway accident near Los Angeles, Cal. In ten days cold weather throughout the North-west, lasting five days.
18. Nine people drowned by the sinking of the ship Forward, off Cape Cod. Several persons killed by a boiler explosion at Elkton, Md. Thirty Chinamen blown to atoms by an explosion of giant powder near San Francisco.
19. Several lives lost by the sinking of the German bark Meta, off the Mexican coast.
20. The French cabinet resigns in a body. Twelve persons killed by a railroad smash-up near Keyser, W. Va. A mother in Milwaukee murders and carries in pieces her three little children. Eight persons drowned by the sinking of the brig Mariposa in Long Island sound. Political excitement in France; ex-Empress Eugenie ordered to quit the republic.
21. News of the butchery of forty shipwrecked sailors by savages in New Guinea. Daylit, Healy and Quinn found guilty at Dublin of using sedition language.
22. Burial at Milwaukee of the forty-three unidentified victims of the Newhall house horror.
23. Four men accidentally drowned at Shreveport, La., and four killed at Reading, Pa., by the falling of a wall.
24. Wreck of a steamer near Swansea, Wales; nineteen lives lost.
25. A caving mine at Bucksville, Pa., kills five laborers. A new cabinet formed in France.
26. Family of nine persons in Laurens county, S. C., eat a goose that had been bitten by a mad dog, and all of them die of hydrophobia. Five negroes drowned while trying to cross Georgia by a hurricane at Denver, Col. destroys $200,000 worth of property. The steamer Black Watch lost on the Welsh coast; twenty-six persons drowned.
27. Eight men killed by snow-falls in Colorado. Seventy men killed by a fire-work explosion at Aracameca, Mexico.
28. Four children burned to death at Dassel, Minn. Discovery of a defalcation of $250,000 by the Alabama State Treasurer. Steamer Ansonia lost on the coast of Tripoli; twenty people drowned.
29. A panic in a woolen factory at Bombay results in the death of thirty people.
30. The steamer Tacoma lost on the Oregon coast; twelve people killed. The steamship James Gray founders on the English coast; twenty-four lives lost.
31. Disastrous floods throughout the Middle States. News of the lynching of ten men in Montana Territory. Failure of the Union Iron and Steel company at Chicago.
32. Thirty-two lives lost by the sinking of the steamer Kenmore Castle, in the Bay of Biscay.
33. Capt. "Oklahoma" Payne and his followers arrested in the Indian Territory.
34. A steamer wrecked off Harwich, Eng., and all on board, twenty-six in number, lost.
35. Five men killed by a boiler explosion at Taylorville, Ill.
36. Brig Zion lost in the Atlantic; ten people drowned. Five lives lost by the burning of the steamer Geff, on the Oregon coast. The authors of the Phoenix Park (Dublin) murders brought to light.
37. Fourteen fishermen drowned at Yarmouth, Eng.
38. Floods cause great destruction of property along the Ohio river.
39. A mine flooded by a cave-in at Bradwood, Ill., causing the drowning of eighty colliers. Four children burned to death at Brackett, Texas.
40. Dr. Hugh Glenn, the largest farmer in the world, murdered in California.
41. A panic in a Catholic school in New York, results in the death of 19 children.
42. Fourteen sailors drowned by a collision on the Scotch coast. Herman B. Eaton, John M. Gregory and L. D. Thoman appointed Civil Service Commissioners.
43. Jules Ferry organizes a new ministry in France. U. S. steamer Ashuelot sunk off Hongkong and eleven of the crew drowned. Germany prohibits the importation of American pork. Perry H. Smith, a Chicago millionaire, adjudged insane.
44. The freight steamer Glamorgan lost in the Atlantic; eight persons drowned.
45. Three children burned to death at Montague, Mich.
46. Jim Elliott, the prize-fighter, killed at Chicago by Jerry Mann. The long Senatorial career ended in Michigan by the election of Thos. W. Palmer. Marriage at Washington of Senator Tabor, of Colorado.
47. Steamer Yazoo sinks in the Lower Mississippi; 10 lives lost.
48. The Riddler law declared unconstitutional by the Virginia Legislature. United States Treasurer Gilliland resigns.
49. Train robbery near Fort Smith, Ark. Marriage of ex-Gov. William Sprague, of Rhode Island. Imprisonment for debt abolished in Nova Scotia.
50. Three persons cremated at Frederick, Md., by the burning of a house.
51. Seven men drowned opposite Jersey City by the sinking of a ferry-boat.
52. Eleven men cremated by the burning of a boarding-house at Brownville, Dakota.
53. The day set apart by Prof. Wiggins for his great storm, which failed to materialize.
54. Patrick Egan, Treasurer of the Land League, arrives at New York.
55. The Missouri Legislature enacts a stringent high-licence liquor law.
56. Judge David Davis married to Miss Burr, of North Carolina.
57. Starting explosion in London, attributed to Fenian agents. A. N. Wyman appointed United States Treasurer.
58. Excitement in England over the alleged assault on Lord Florence Dufferin.
59. Tennessee enacts a law abolishing public executions.
60. Six lives lost by the sinking of an oyster boat at Baltimore.
61. Mount Vesuvius in a state of eruption.

23. Six men killed in a fight between cattle herders in Arizona. Indian outbreak in Arizona. Several people slaughtered. The remains of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," arrive at New York from Tunis, Africa, where he died in 1852. Six men killed by a gas explosion at Lost Creek, Pa.
24. Recovery of the bodies of a large number of the victims of the mine disaster on Feb. 16, near Bradwood, Ill.
25. The Massachusetts Legislature passes a law providing for biennial elections in that State.
26. Count Von Seckhly, President of the Hungarian Court of Cassation, murdered.
27. News of fresh Indian massacres in Arizona. Several persons killed by a collision of the Cincinnati Southern railroad.
28. Twenty-three people drowned by a shipwreck at Holyhead, England.
29. Count Von Seckhly, President of the Hungarian Court of Cassation, murdered.
30. News of fresh Indian massacres in Arizona. Several persons killed by a collision of the Cincinnati Southern railroad.
31. Twenty-three people drowned by a shipwreck at Holyhead, England.
32. Six persons killed by a boiler explosion on the steamer Polar Star, Mississippi river.
33. Fifty people killed by the explosion of a powder factory near Paris, France. Excitement in England over the discovery of dynamite plots in the Braidwood mine disaster.
34. Walter G. Gresham, of Indiana, appointed Postmaster General. The President starts on a Southern tour for the benefit of his health.
35. Four persons burned to death at Hartwood, N. Y., and three at Elsbury, N. Y. News of a great fire at Iquique, Peru. News of a war of races on the line of the Panama Canal. Michael Davitt writes a letter denouncing dynamite policy of the I. A. S. D.
36. The coroner's jury in the Braidwood mine disaster exonerates the mine owners from blame.
37. Disastrous floods in Austria and Poland.
38. A hotel burned at Greenville, Texas, and eleven persons cremated.
39. Judge Gresham, the new Postmaster General, enters upon his duties. The bill for local self-government in Ireland defeated in the British House of Commons.
40. Prohibition defeated in the Connecticut Legislature. Earthquake shocks in Southern Illinois. Wisconsin's first cotton factory, opened at Sheboygan Falls.
41. Six negro children poisoned to death at Meriden, Ark., and three burned to death in Grant county, Ark. Discovery of rich silver mines in East Tennessee. The first iron sailing vessel ever built in America launched at Philadelphia. Charles Smith, of Delaware, kills his wife and two children and commits suicide. Brady, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, sentenced to death at Dublin.
42. First tornadoes of the season felt in Arizona, Iowa and Nebraska.
43. Burning of the Atlantic House and three guests at Albion, Iowa.
44. Twenty-six nihilists sentenced at Odessa, Russia. Three children burned to death at Potomac, Md.
45. Prohibition killed in the Delaware Legislature. The Scott liquor license law passed by the Ohio Legislature.
46. Eighteen nihilists sentenced at St. Petersburg.
47. Four men drowned at Seattle, W. T., and four at Williamsport, Pa., by the upsetting of boats. Prohibition voted down by the Pennsylvania Legislature. Eight people killed by a falling wall at Sacramento, Cal.
48. Bloody fight between citizens and circus men at Dover, Del. Five persons drowned at New Bedford, Mass., and seven at San Francisco, by the upsetting of boats.
49. Michael Fagin sentenced to death at Dublin. Congressman Phil Thompson kills Walter Davis at Harrodsburg, Ky.
50. Four men killed in a riot at Marshall, Texas.
51. Acquittal of Fitz Harris, the fifth man tried at Dublin for the murder of Lord Cavendish.
52. Four people run over and killed by a train at Glasgow, Scotland. Seven men killed by a mine accident at New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. Seventy Chinamen drowned by the wrecking of the steamer Grappler on the Pacific coast.
53. Moody and Sankey return from Europe. Battle between Mexican troops and Apache Indians in Mexico.
54. Arthur Sullivan, author of "Pinafore," made a knight.
55. Suicide of Amasa Stone, the wealthiest man in Cleveland, Ohio.
56. Destructive tornado in Missouri. Bonanza Fair, the Nevada Senator, divorced from his wife.
57. Joe Brady, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, hanged at Dublin.
58. Fitz Harris, the cab-driver, convicted at Dublin. Meeting at Washington of the Society of the Army of the Potomac. Congressman Philip Thompson acquitted at Harrodsburg. A series of cyclones in Illinois and Wisconsin kills upward of seventy people and destroys much property. Daniel Curley, one of the Phoenix Park assassins, hanged at Dublin. Steamer Granite State turned on the Connecticut river; five lives lost.
59. Carey, the informer, turned loose at Dublin.
60. Heavy gale on the Northern lakes; many vessels wrecked, with considerable loss of life. The czar enters Moscow with pomp.
61. The ceremony of blessing the Russian imperial flag performed at Moscow.
62. Opening of the great East River bridge.
63. Destructive cyclone at Greenville, Texas. Thomas Caffrey, the fourth of the Phoenix park conspirators, hanged in Dublin. Healy and Davitt released from imprisonment in Ireland.
64. Democratic State convention of Iowa. Republican State convention of Ohio.
65. Lynching bee at Waverly, Iowa.
66. One hundred and fifty people killed by a powder explosion at Sautter, Alabama.
67. Fifteen men hanged at Dublin for the murder of Lord Cavendish. Suleiman Daoud executed at Alexandria.
68. Five men killed by a boiler explosion at College Point, L. I.
69. Twenty persons drowned at Benjamin, Utah, by the capsizing of a boat. Violent storms in Iowa and Wisconsin. Gen. Crook returns to Arizona from a successful Indian hunt in Mexico.
70. The dynamite conspirators, Gallagher and others, convicted and sentenced at London.
71. The high license liquor law passes the Illinois Legislature.
72. Meeting of the Ohio Prohibition convention. Great excitement on the Chicago Board of Trade, caused by the failure of Peter McGeeoch.
73. Destructive rain and wind storms in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. Over 200 children killed at Sunderland, England, by a panic and rush in a public hall. Fourteen people drowned by floods near Seneca, Kas.
74. Ohio Democratic convention. Destructive tornadoes in Missouri and Kansas.
75. Four train-robbers executed in Arkansas. Two men lynched in Tennessee.
76. Twenty-five lives lost by the sinking of the steamer ship Waiter, off Portland, England.
77. Great damage in the region of St. Louis by an overflow of the Mississippi river.
78. The Ohio Supreme court decides the Scott liquor law constitutional. The Cabinet at London declines to aid in preventing the landing of "assisted" emigrants at New York.
79. A family of five persons drowned near Madison, Ind., by the upsetting of a boat.
80. News of the drowning by floods of seventeen persons in Nemaha county, Neb.
81. Duel between two Richmond (Va.) editors, Beirne and Elam. Terrible ravages of the cholera at Damietta, Egypt. Six persons killed by a railroad accident at Roselia, Pa.
82. Opening of the celebration, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, of the 333d anniversary of the settlement of the town. Tornadoes in Wisconsin, Connecticut and Massachusetts. War on the trade dollar.
83. About 150 people drowned by an accident while launching a new steamer at Glasgow, Scotland. Six persons run down and killed by a train near Cincinnati.
84. Female suffrage rejected by the British House of Commons. Alarm in Europe over the spread of cholera in Egypt.
85. A British Parliament committee reports against building the channel tunnel. De Lesseps arranges with the English Government for a second Suez canal. Destructive storms in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Kansas.
86. Thirty people drowned at London,

- Ontario, by a sudden overflow, in the night, of the river Thames.
23. Several people slaughtered. The remains of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," arrive at New York from Tunis, Africa, where he died in 1852. Six men killed by a gas explosion at Lost Creek, Pa.
24. Recovery of the bodies of a large number of the victims of the mine disaster on Feb. 16, near Bradwood, Ill.
25. The Massachusetts Legislature passes a law providing for biennial elections in that State.
26. Count Von Seckhly, President of the Hungarian Court of Cassation, murdered.
27. News of fresh Indian massacres in Arizona. Several persons killed by a collision of the Cincinnati Southern railroad.
28. Twenty-three people drowned by a shipwreck at Holyhead, England.
29. Count Von Seckhly, President of the Hungarian Court of Cassation, murdered.
30. News of fresh Indian massacres in Arizona. Several persons killed by a collision of the Cincinnati Southern railroad.
31. Twenty-three people drowned by a shipwreck at Holyhead, England.
32. Six persons killed by a boiler explosion on the steamer Polar Star, Mississippi river.
33. Fifty people killed by the explosion of a powder factory near Paris, France. Excitement in England over the discovery of dynamite plots in the Braidwood mine disaster.
34. Walter G. Gresham, of Indiana, appointed Postmaster General. The President starts on a Southern tour for the benefit of his health.
35. Four persons burned to death at Hartwood, N. Y., and three at Elsbury, N. Y. News of a great fire at Iquique, Peru. News of a war of races on the line of the Panama Canal. Michael Davitt writes a letter denouncing dynamite policy of the I. A. S. D.
36. The coroner's jury in the Braidwood mine disaster exonerates the mine owners from blame.
37. Disastrous floods in Austria and Poland.
38. A hotel burned at Greenville, Texas, and eleven persons cremated.
39. Judge Gresham, the new Postmaster General, enters upon his duties. The bill for local self-government in Ireland defeated in the British House of Commons.
40. Prohibition defeated in the Connecticut Legislature. Earthquake shocks in Southern Illinois. Wisconsin's first cotton factory, opened at Sheboygan Falls.
41. Six negro children poisoned to death at Meriden, Ark., and three burned to death in Grant county, Ark. Discovery of rich silver mines in East Tennessee. The first iron sailing vessel ever built in America launched at Philadelphia. Charles Smith, of Delaware, kills his wife and two children and commits suicide. Brady, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, sentenced to death at Dublin.
42. First tornadoes of the season felt in Arizona, Iowa and Nebraska.
43. Burning of the Atlantic House and three guests at Albion, Iowa.
44. Twenty-six nihilists sentenced at Odessa, Russia. Three children burned to death at Potomac, Md.
45. Prohibition killed in the Delaware Legislature. The Scott liquor license law passed by the Ohio Legislature.
46. Eighteen nihilists sentenced at St. Petersburg.
47. Four men drowned at Seattle, W. T., and four at Williamsport, Pa., by the upsetting of boats. Prohibition voted down by the Pennsylvania Legislature. Eight people killed by a falling wall at Sacramento, Cal.
48. Bloody fight between citizens and circus men at Dover, Del. Five persons drowned at New Bedford, Mass., and seven at San Francisco, by the upsetting of boats.
49. Michael Fagin sentenced to death at Dublin. Congressman Phil Thompson kills Walter Davis at Harrodsburg, Ky.
50. Four men killed in a riot at Marshall, Texas.
51. Acquittal of Fitz Harris, the fifth man tried at Dublin for the murder of Lord Cavendish.
52. Four people run over and killed by a train at Glasgow, Scotland. Seven men killed by a mine accident at New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. Seventy Chinamen drowned by the wrecking of the steamer Grappler on the Pacific coast.
53. Moody and Sankey return from Europe. Battle between Mexican troops and Apache Indians in Mexico.
54. Arthur Sullivan, author of "Pinafore," made a knight.
55. Suicide of Amasa Stone, the wealthiest man in Cleveland, Ohio.
56. Destructive tornado in Missouri. Bonanza Fair, the Nevada Senator, divorced from his wife.
57. Joe Brady, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, hanged at Dublin.
58. Fitz Harris, the cab-driver, convicted at Dublin. Meeting at Washington of the Society of the Army of the Potomac. Congressman Philip Thompson acquitted at Harrodsburg. A series of cyclones in Illinois and Wisconsin kills upward of seventy people and destroys much property. Daniel Curley, one of the Phoenix Park assassins, hanged at Dublin. Steamer Granite State turned on the Connecticut river; five lives lost.
59. Carey, the informer, turned loose at Dublin.
60. Heavy gale on the Northern lakes; many vessels wrecked, with considerable loss of life. The czar enters Moscow with pomp.
61. The ceremony of blessing the Russian imperial flag performed at Moscow.
62. Opening of the great East River bridge.
63. Destructive cyclone at Greenville, Texas. Thomas Caffrey, the fourth of the Phoenix park conspirators, hanged in Dublin. Healy and Davitt released from imprisonment in Ireland.
64. Democratic State convention of Iowa. Republican State convention of Ohio.
65. Lynching bee at Waverly, Iowa.
66. One hundred and fifty people killed by a powder explosion at Sautter, Alabama.
67. Fifteen men hanged at Dublin for the murder of Lord Cavendish. Suleiman Daoud executed at Alexandria.
68. Five men killed by a boiler explosion at College Point, L. I.
69. Twenty persons drowned at Benjamin, Utah, by the capsizing of a boat. Violent storms in Iowa and Wisconsin. Gen. Crook returns to Arizona from a successful Indian hunt in Mexico.
70. The dynamite conspirators, Gallagher and others, convicted and sentenced at London.
71. The high license liquor law passes the Illinois Legislature.
72. Meeting of the Ohio Prohibition convention. Great excitement on the Chicago Board of Trade, caused by the failure of Peter McGeeoch.
73. Destructive rain and wind storms in Illinois, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. Over 200 children killed at Sunderland, England, by a panic and rush in a public hall. Fourteen people drowned by floods near Seneca, Kas.
74. Ohio Democratic convention. Destructive tornadoes in Missouri and Kansas.
75. Four train-robbers executed in Arkansas. Two men lynched in Tennessee.
76. Twenty-five lives lost by the sinking of the steamer ship Waiter, off Portland, England.
77. Great damage in the region of St. Louis by an overflow of the Mississippi river.
78. The Ohio Supreme court decides the Scott liquor law constitutional. The Cabinet at London declines to aid in preventing the landing of "assisted" emigrants at New York.
79. A family of five persons drowned near Madison, Ind., by the upsetting of a boat.
80. News of the drowning by floods of seventeen persons in Nemaha county, Neb.
81. Duel between two Richmond (Va.) editors, Beirne and Elam. Terrible ravages of the cholera at Damietta, Egypt. Six persons killed by a railroad accident at Roselia, Pa.
82. Opening of the celebration, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, of the 333d anniversary of the settlement of the town. Tornadoes in Wisconsin, Connecticut and Massachusetts. War on the trade dollar.
83. About 150 people drowned by an accident while launching a new steamer at Glasgow, Scotland. Six persons run down and killed by a train near Cincinnati.
84. Female suffrage rejected by the British House of Commons. Alarm in Europe over the spread of cholera in Egypt.
85. A British Parliament committee reports against building the channel tunnel. De Lesseps arranges with the English Government for a second Suez canal. Destructive storms in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Kansas.
86. Thirty people drowned at London,

- error General of Canada, arrives at Quebec. Ten girls lose their lives by the explosion of a sulphur factory at Kingston, Pa.
23. News of the loss of five vessels on the New England coast, and the drowning of twenty-seven persons.
24. News of war preparations in Russia and Germany.
25. Intelligence of more earthquakes in Asia Minor. Chief Justice Coleridge sails for England.
26. Mysterious explosions in the underground railway tunnels in London, England.
27. Loss of the steamer Holyhead and fifteen lives in the Irish sea. Disastrous conflagration at Savannah, Ga.; ten lives lost.
28. News of the sacking of the American consulate at Monterey, Mexico.
29. Accident to Chief Justice Waite, in Montana. Frost on some sections of Iowa.
30. Inauguration of the great strike of telegraph operators throughout the country.
31. A cyclone kills a number of people and destroys much property in Dakota and Minnesota.
32. Eight men killed by falling bricks while repairing a blast-furnace at Syracuse, N. Y. Disastrous tornado in Ingham county, Mich.
33. About eighty people drowned by the giving way of a steamboat pier near Baltimore. Mr. Cap Webb, the famous swimmer, drowned at Niagara Falls. Hardy, one of the Polk county (Iowa) assassins, executed by a mob.
34. Eight colored people drowned at Claremont, Va.
35. Ex-Treasurer M. T. Polk sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary at Nashville, Tenn.
36. Thirty-six persons killed by a mine explosion in Sicily. Over 5,000 people killed by an earthquake on the Italian island of Ischia.
37. Twenty-five people killed by a railway accident near Albany, N. Y. Ten colored people drowned at Mayersville, Miss. The Spanish Minister to the United States commits suicide in New York.
38. President Arthur leaves Washington on an extended Western tour. James Carey, the Irish informer, killed in South Africa.
39. Eight people killed by a railroad collision near Pownall.
40. The New Hampshire Legislature elects Austin F. Pike, U. S. Senator, after balloting nearly two months.
41. Heavy failures in the leather trade in the New England cities.
42. Serious revolt in Spain. Formidable anti-Jewish riots in Russia and Hungary.
43. Thirteen sailors drowned by the sinking of a bark off Dover, England.
44. Four Irish dynamite conspirators sentenced for life at Liverpool.
45. Burning of the Kimball house, the largest hotel in the South, at Atlanta.
46. Twelve men accidentally killed in a rail road tunnel in Virginia.
47. Suicide of the wife of Senator Allison, of Iowa. The Mayor and other officials indicted at Baltimore for malfeasance.
48. Twenty men killed by a mine accident at Cornwell, England.
49. Seven persons killed by a railway collision at Lexington, Ky.
50. End of the long strike of the telegraph operators.
51. Forty people killed upward of forty people and destroys a vast amount of property in and about Rochester, Minn. Opening of the Knights Templar triennial convocation at San Francisco.
52. News of a fearful massacre of Indians by Chilians in Peru. Completion of track-laying on the Northern Pacific railroad.
53. Five men perish in a burning building at Boston. Eighteen sailors drowned by a collision in the English channel.
54. News of the death of the Queen of Madagascar.
55. Volcanic eruptions in the island of Java cause frightful destruction of life and property; upward of 100,000 people killed.
56. The czar of Russia visits the King of Denmark. The steamship Ludwig, from Antwerp for Montreal, with seventy people on board, given up as lost.
57. Six persons killed by a boiler explosion at Frankfort, Germany.
58. A single highwayman robs the passengers on a Utah railway train. A priest and six of his congregation killed by a thunder-bolt in a church at Lagos, Mexico. Eleven working girls burned to death in a factory at Cincinnati. Over forty people killed by a railway train near Berlin, Germany.
59. King Alfonso issues a proclamation restoring the constitutional guarantees in Spain.
60. President Arthur returns to Washington after an extended trip to the far West. Acquittal of Frank James, the Missouri outlaw.
61. Formal opening of the Northern Pacific railroad.
62. Sale of the Horace Greeley farm at Chappaqua, N. Y.
63. Serious riots at Canton, China.
64. Oklahoma Payne again arrested in the Indian Territory.
65. News of the disaster to the Greeley Arctic search expedition. Twelve people drowned by the sinking of a Norwegian ship in the English Channel. Celebration in Glasgow of Martin Luther's 400th birthday.
66. Prof. Swift, of Rochester, discovers the new comet.
67. The seventy-third anniversary of Mexican independence celebrated in the City of Mexico.
68. Yellow fever epidemic in Mexican cities. Bark Britannia lost near Halifax, N. S.; twelve people drowned.
69. King Koffee defeated in Ashante after a bloody battle.
70. Great weavers' strike at Ashton, England. National convention of postal railway clerks at St. Paul. Hurricane in Bahama islands; many vessels wrecked and sixty-five people drowned.
71. Fifteen men hanged at Dublin for the murder of Lord Cavendish. Statue of Zachary Taylor unveiled at Louisville, Ky. Seven persons killed by a boiler explosion at Pittsburgh.
72. Return to Sweden of Nordenskjold, the Arctic explorer. Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, of England, banqueting at Chicago.
73. France torn up over the Chinese question.
74. A boiler explosion at Shreveport, La., kills seven people. Extensive military preparations in Russia.
75. Return to England of the family of Carey, the Irish informer. Agitation by the Land Leaguers renewed in Ireland. Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, heard from.
76. Destructive gale on Lakes Ontario and Erie. The Emperor of Germany appoints King Alfonso, of Spain, Colonel of a German regiment, which causes much ill-feeling in France. Terrible railroad accident in Romania. New York morning newspapers reduce their prices.
77. Heavy express robbery on a train at Lakota, Kansas and Nebraska.
78. Attempted train robbery in Western Kansas. Snow-storm in Minnesota.
79. Forty Chinamen killed near San Francisco by the explosion of a powder-mill. The Spanish King rescued by a mob in Paris, which causes much excitement in Spain.
80. Snow-storm in Maine.
81. Evangelists Moody and Sankey sail for Ireland. Burning of the Pittsburgh Exposition buildings.
82. A woman at Lampasas, Mexico, murders her five children and kills herself. The entire Ministry of Norway impeached.
83. Nihilist proclamations issued in Russia sending the czar to death.
84. The pacing horse Johnson makes the fastest time at Chicago ever known, a mile in 2:10. News of the discovery in Alaska of an immense river.
85. Earthquake in California. Snow-storms in Nebraska and Colorado.
86. Seven persons drowned by the foundering of a schooner near Boston. War preparations in Prussia. Mysterious murder of Zora Burns, at Lincoln, Ill.
87. The United States Supreme Court decides the Civil Rights law unconstitutional. Forty women killed in a crush in a Jewish synagogue in Russia, caused by a false alarm of fire.
88. Epidemic of trichinosis in Saxony. Disastrous storms on the English coast.
89. Over 200 lives destroyed by an earthquake in Asiatic Turkey.
90. Reappearance of the cholera in Egypt.
91. Twenty-five lives lost by a mine explosion in England.
92. News of the signing of a treaty of peace between Chili and Peru.
93. The Irish Irving, the English actor, arrives at New York. Snow-storm in Minnesota. Discovery of gold deposits at Lisbon, Dakota.
94. Heavy snow-storm in Colorado.
95. The Marquis of Lansdowne, new Gov-

NECROLOGY.

A List of the Distinguished Dead of 1883.

1. Leon Gambetta, eminent statesman of France. Elisha Allen, Hawaiian Minister at Washington. Josephine Meeker, survivor of the Ute massacre. Eliza Hawthorne, only sister of Nathaniel Hawthorne.
2. Hon. C. Hooper, ex-Deputy in Congress from Utah. Edward J. Haie, publisher, New York.
3. Dr. Warren Stone, eminent physician of New Orleans. Rev. Titus Coan, noted missionary of the post.
4. Jean Clesinger, famous French sculptor.
5. Wm. A. Seaver, editor of Harper's "Drawer." Matthew F. Whittier, only brother of the poet.
6. Judge Josephus A. Guild, leading citizen of Tennessee.
7. Thatch Perkins, a noted inventor. Wm. B. Napton, ex-Supreme Judge of Missouri. Charles H. Baldwin, eminent citizen of France. M. C. Campbell, of the original Campbell minstrels.
8. Hon. Lot M. Morrill, ex-Senator and ex-Governor of Maine.
9. Dr. Samuel A. Mudd, of Lincoln assassination memory. Clark Mills, the sculptor.
10. Ex-Congressman G. L. Fort, of Illinois.
11. J. H. Connolly, a well-known inventor, of Pittsburgh.
12. Nelson Lundington, a millionaire banker of Chicago. Rev. J. C. Talbot, Episcopal Bishop of Indiana.
13. W. C. Pendleton, a prominent Virginian.
14. John W. Shackelford, Congressman from North Carolina.
15. R. S. Newbold, of Pennsylvania, ex-Minister to Mexico.
16. Henry Kirk, Vice-President United States Army.
17. Ex-Congressman Larrabee, of Wisconsin.
18. Prince Frederick Charles, of Germany. J. C. Fargo, of the American Express company.
19. Gustave Dore, celebrated French painter. Ex-Congressman Charles Delano, of Massachusetts. Joshua Hutchinson, of the celebrated "Hutchinson Family" of singers. Ann Eliza Bray, English novelist. Sir Richard England, noted British General. Dr. George M. Beard, famous New York physician.
20. George Judd, the oldest practicing lawyer in Wisconsin. Judge James Patrick, the oldest editor in Ohio.
21. Ex-Congressman Louis Selye, of New York. Col. O. H. Irish, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, at Washington.
22. Ex-Gov. Edmund J. Davis, of Texas.
23. Hon. C. B. Stoum, author of the Nebraska code law.
24. Wm. E. Dodge, millionaire merchant and philanthropist of New York.
25. Charles B. Thorne, a well-known actor.
26. Marshall Jewell, ex-Governor of Connecticut.
27. Ex-Gov. Edwin D. Morgan, of New York.
28. George W. Morrill, formerly a Major General in the army. Commander Francis Morris, of the U. S. Navy.
29. Ex-Gov. William E. Smith, of Wisconsin. Richard Wagner, the celebrated German composer. Meyer Magnus, German philanthropist.
30. Hugh Glenn, of California, the largest farmer in the world. Ex-Gov. Stephen Hempstead, of Iowa.
31. George Dawsey, veteran journalist, of Albany, N. Y.
32. Samuel J. Medill, managing editor of the Chicago Tribune.
33. Col. R. A. Packard, a very wealthy Pennsylvanian.
34. Fanny Driscoll White, the Wisconsin poetess.
35. Dr. John M. Duke, a prominent Louisville physician. The widow of the late Gov. Jewell, of Connecticut. Belle Cook, the champion equestrienne.
36. Hank Monk, the Nevada stage-driver, made famous by Horace Greeley.
37. Peter Cooper, millionaire philanthropist.
38. Ex-Congressman Dudley M. Dubose, of Georgia. Gen. James H. Simpson, a retired army officer, at St. Paul.
39. Gen. Alexander Hamilton Stephens, of Georgia.
40. Ex-Congressman John C. Brown, of Cleveland, Ohio.
41. Bishop Quinlan, of the Catholic diocese of Mobile.
42. Prince Gortschakoff, the famous Russian statesman.
43. Mrs. Mary Grove, aged 117, at Montreal, Canada.
44. Mrs. Ellen Birmingham, of Louisville, Ky., aged 107.
45. Karl Marx, founder of the International society, at London, aged 65.
46. Ex-Congressman Carlton B. Curtis, of Erie, Pa.
47. Hon. Sir George Jessel, British statesman.
48. Hon. Timothy O. Howe, Postmaster General.
49. Ex-Congressman Charles Stetson, of Bangor, Me.
50. Congressman Thomas Herndon, of Alabama. John Brown, for many years the personal attendant of Queen Victoria.
51. Rev. Derwent Coleridge, a son of the poet Coleridge. Ex-Atty. Gen. Charles F. Gill, of Wisconsin.
52. C. C. Trowbridge, a leading citizen of Detroit.
53. Surgeon General Barnes, of the United States army.
54. Judge C. B. Lawrence, distinguished Chicago lawyer. Dr. B. F. Crooker, of the Michigan university.
55. Dr. William Farr, the best-known statistician in England.
56. Dr. E. B. Turnipseed, a distinguished South Carolina physician.
57. Ex-Congressman Rowell Hart, of Rochester, N. Y. Edward Hook, of Youngstown, Ohio, the first man to paddle iron in the United States. Solomon S. Gray, of Natick, Mass., the original manufacturer of paper collars.
58. Suleiman Pasha, a famous Turkish General. Sister of the late President Johnson.
59. Col. Jack Hayes, of Mexican war fame.
60. Jules Sandeau, French novelist. Ex-Surgeon General Palmer, United States navy.
61. Elizabeth Pinkston, the notable witness in the Hayes-Tilden Presidential contest.
62. Dr. Henry Backus, the pioneer educator of idiots. John Bowen, of Wisconsin, a comrade of Davy Crockett. Hannah Burnside (colored), the oldest woman in Arkansas, aged 112.
63. Rev. Josiah Henson (colored), the original of Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle Tom." Louis Viardot, eminent French author.
64. Mrs. Hannah S. Grant, mother of ex-President Grant. Amasa Stone, the wealthiest man in Cleveland, Ohio.
65. James T. Rapier, ex-Congressman from Alabama. Gen. A. P. Buell, U. S. A.
66. James Fisk, Sr., father of the late Jim Fisk. Ex-Chief Justice Cushing, of New Hampshire.
67. Charles C. Fulton, publisher of the Baltimore American.
68. Ex-Senator Eugene Casserly, of California. Ex-Gov. Charles J. Jenkins, of Georgia. A. C. Jordan, aged 107, of Chattanooga, Tenn.
69. Israel Washburn, ex-Governor of Maine.
70. Gen. Geo. W. Warren, a prominent Bostonian.
71. Bishop Peck, of the M. E. church.
72. Lydia Pinkham, celebrated as a large patent medicine advertiser.
73. William Chambers, celebrated Scotch publisher.
74. William Mason, of Taunton, Mass., a noted inventor and locomotive builder.
75. Arbutuckle, the famous cornetist.
76. Jacob P. Kraus, a French priest, author and statesman. Philippe Heuschling, a noted Belgian author.
77. Ex-Chief Justice Sharswood, of Pennsylvania.
78. James W. Sheahan, one of the leading journalists of Chicago. Ex-Congressman Rooney, of Delaware.
79. Archbishop Wood, of Philadelphia.

- Gen. Charles Wrag, of Washington. Bishop Colenso, at Natal, South Africa.
21. Charles Backus, the well-known negro minstrel.
22. Dr. Frederick Knapp, a famous dentist, of New Orleans.
23. Stephen Anderson, L. B., of Princeton college, a noted educator.
24. Rev. Thomas N. Burke, famous as a priest and lecturer.
25. Catholic Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati. Episcopal Bishop Pinckney, of Baltimore. Catholic Bishop McMullen, of Davenport, Iowa. Lieut. Col. Francis M. Barquhar, of the Engineer Corps.
26. Ex-Congressman J. D. Baldwin, of Worcester, Mass. Marie Von Elanor (Mile-Litta), the prima donna.
27. Jesse H. Moore, Consul to Callao, South America.
28. Louis Walso, an Indian, aged 100, at Lake George, N. Y.
29. Charles H. Stratton (Gen. Tom Thumb), the famous dwarf, aged 47.
30. Ex-Congressman Archibald McWhorter, of Pittsburgh, Pa.
31. Ex-Congressman Gineas, of Massachusetts. Gov. F. O. O. Ord, of the United States army.
32. Ex-Gov. Thomas Swann, of Maryland.
33. Gen. Fenwick Williams, of the British army.
34. Montgomery Blair, of Maryland, Postmaster General under Lincoln.
35. Thomas Hoynes, a distinguished lawyer, of Chicago.
36. Edward Ridley, a leading dry-goods merchant, of New York.
37. Milton H. Sanford, the well-known turfman.
38. Augustus M. Herrington, a distinguished Illinois lawyer. E. B. Haven, a leading citizen of Indiana. George Marston, a prominent Massachusetts lawyer.
39. Robert Hewitt Brown, of Albion, N. Y., a prominent Mason and author.
40. Charles H. Black, of Pennsylvania, one of the most prominent public men in the country. William Wirt Sykes, a well-known author.
41. Count of Chambord, head of the royal house of France.
42. Walter E. Pool, member of Congress from North Carolina.
43. E. M. Pease, ex-Governor of Texas.
44. Jackson D. Brown, ex-Associate Justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court. M. E. Cuts, member of Congress from Iowa.
45. Ivan Tourgenieff, the famous Russian novelist.
46. Marwood, England's professional hangman.
47. Henri Conscience, noted Belgian novelist. Admiral Pierre, noted French naval officer.
48. Hugh J. Hastings, noted New York editor. Gen. T. S. Fauntleroy, former United States army officer. Thomas Green Davidson, ex-member of Congress from Louisiana. Pella Manny, of Moline, Ill., inventor of the Manny reaper. Charles J. Foster, a New York journalist.
49. Sir Richard Collinson, of the British navy. George H. Bangs, Superintendent of Pinkerton's Detective Agency.
50. Victor Le Franc, a Life Senator of France.
51. Julius Brutus Booth, the actor.
52. Dr. E. F. Hatfield, eminent Presbyterian divine.
53. Col. George Knapp, senior proprietor of the St. Louis Republic.
54. Diana Colpus, of London, Canada, aged 115 years.
55. Judge Kidder, of the Dakota Supreme Court.
56. Rear Admiral Sands, of the navy.
57. Mrs. J. M. Hanniff, last survivor of the Alamo massacre.
58. Surgeon General Charles H. Crane, of the United States army.
59. Col. Barnabas Burns, a prominent Ohioan.
60. Mrs. Boniface, a well-known actress.
61. Ex-Congressman Charles J. Albright, of Ohio.
62. Mrs. John Russell Young, wife of the American Minister to China.
63. Capt. Mayne Reid, the English novelist.
64. Jean Paul, distinguished French surgeon.
65. Rev. I. W. Pembroke, oldest Congregational minister in New Hampshire.
66. William Coffin, colored, at Plainfield, N. J., aged 119. Margaret Mallor, at Brooklyn, N. Y., aged 102.
67. G. N. Fox, of New York, formerly Assistant Secretary of the Navy.
68. Armistead Burt, ex-member of Congress from South Carolina.
69. Frank B. Pond, of Ohio, author of the Pond Ignor law.
70. William Swinburne, of Pat