Old Uncle James Rivers, aged 74, and his wife, Aunt Mary Ann, aged 70, have recently left Port Hudson for Bryan, Texas. They were slaves of owned by General Felix Houston and have been supported by the genera's sons for many years past. They desired to end their days with their young masters, and accordingly they were sent for by them, by whom all their expenses were paid.

The phrase that nine tailors make a man is said to have originated in the following incident: In 1742 an orphan boy applied at a fashionable tailor's shop in London, in which nine journeymen were employed. His interesting appearance opened the hearts of the benevolent tailors, who immediately contributed nine shillings for the relief of the little stranger.
 With this capital he purchased fruit, which he retailed at a profit. Time passed on, and wealth and honorable position came to the young tradesman so that when he set up his carriage, instead of troubling the College of Heraldry for a crest, he painted the following motto on the panel of his carriage door: "Nine tailors made me a man."
