THROUGH TICKETS.—C. F. Wren, the station agent at this place is now prepared to sell through tickets to almost any place a rational being would desire to go—North, South, East or West. If you think of traveling call on him and learn what he can do for you.

Ch. Am. Sentinel.

FRIDAY, APRIL 11, 1884.

ANNOUNCEMENT—Ed. Sentinel: You will please announce to the voters of Rensselaer that I will be a candidate for the office of Marshal, at the Corporation election in May next, and respectfully solicit their suffrages for that position.

Rensselaer, Ind., April 4, 1884.

Hemphill & Honan have received their Spring stock of Goods. They invite inspection.

Mrs. Sheriff Powell, we are pleased to announce, is improving.

Everybody call at Levino's candy factory.

The rock for the bridge piers are being brought to the river bank.

Dry Goods, Millinery, Novelties and Furnishing Goods, as cheap as the cheapest. Hemphill & Honan.

"Arbor Day" will be observed to day by the Rensselaer Schools.

Joe Sharp will pay you the cash for Poultry, Game, &c.

The G. A. R. Post, of this place, is making arrangements for a "Camp Fire" entertainment on the evening of May 2nd.

I have come to stay, and don't you forget, with cash enough to buy all the Poultry in the County.

J. SHARP.

To day Jas. F. Irwin enters upon the duties of Clerk, by appointment to fill vacancy caused by resignation of C. H. Price.

Hoopskirt bustles, corsets, and a fine line of what goods generally, at the lowest price ever offered in this market. Call and be convinced.

Respectfully, Hemphill & Honan.

At a regular meeting of the I. O. O. F., Rensselaer, Wednesday, Chas. H. Price was the worthy recipient of a handsome collar, insignia of worthy Past Grand.

Leopold has removed the McCracken & Kirk stock of Boots & Shoes to his Bazaar, and will sell them at less than wholesale prices.

Wes. Karsner, Lillie Clark and Harry Zimmerman returned home last Monday morning.

Hemphill & Honan always ahead! The first to show the Spring styles, and give our people an immense selection to choose from. Call early.

Benj. Kessler, of Ladoga, aged 82 years, is visiting his brother George, in Barkley township, this county.

CHURCH NOTICE.—There will be religious services by Elder Joseph Witham, of Newton county, held at the Baptist Church, in Rensselaer, April 20th 1884, at 7 o'clock, p. m. Mr. Witham is of the Primitive Baptist faith and order. Everybody is invited to attend.

Mr. J. B. Berry, of Chicago, General Agent of "The Northern Pacific" Railroad made us a call yesterday. He left upon our table a copy of "The Wonderland of the World" a book published by the Passenger Department of the N. P. R. R. It is one of the finest publications of the kind that has reached us this season; well written neatly printed and handsomely illustrated. It is designed for a guide book for health and pleasure seekers and all parties contemplating a trip through the country reached by the New Transcontinental line. Our readers can obtain copies on application to Mr. Berry 52 Clark St., Chicago.

CHEAP MONEY!

We have finally secured our six per cent. money and are now prepared to make farm loans at six per cent interest. These loans run for five years but the borrower has option to pay part or all of his loans before maturity.

R. S. & Z. DWIGGINS.

DENTISTRY.

FARMERS AND EVERYBODY—A TEST OF PLOWS.—There will be a Plowing test on the farm of Thomas Bradford, one-half mile east of Rensselaer, on Saturday, the 12th, day of April, between 14 inch walking Plew and the Hopgood Sulky with a 16 inch Plew. The test will be made by a Committee of Farmers of Jasper county. Let there be a nice day and a big crowd.

N. V. CLEAVER.

D. T. Halstead, of Rensselaer, Indiana, called in this week to get a copy of our paper to show the folks in "yar-dor." He says this country is far ahead of Indiana in every thing but mud and stump. He paid a handsome compliment to our people and the progress made by enterprise. He says the day is coming when this section will compare favorably with any portion of Kansas, and is destined to occupy a conspicuous place in the great constellation of municipalities that make Kansas.—Kingman (Kansas) Citizen.

THE remarks of Mr. Alfred Thompson at the Gospel Temperance meeting last Sunday evening are reported correctly, we would simply advise him to read up the votes and speeches of Mr. Voorhees and inform himself. Mr. Voorhees is beyond his reach.

The fate of the Blue Ribbon organization should lead the W. C. T. U. to shut down on every attempt to drag politics into its proceedings.
