

A WHITE MAN'S PARTY.

White Republicans in Georgia
Grow weary of Subordination to the Blacks.

Atlanta, Ga., April 1.—The new White Man's party, organized by Republicans who have grown weary of subordination to the negro element, is developing into a move of considerable political importance. The adhesion to this move of United States Marshal Longstreet, Jonathan Norcross, ex-congressman Freeman and men of such character, stamps it as a movement bound to make itself felt.

An address issued to-day says:

"We have tried negroes for fifteen years as party leaders and find them totally inefficient. They are not reliable voters, they are incompetent leaders, and have no capacity for organization. We can never succeed as a party until we have thrown off the incubus of negro leadership. There are numbers of counties in the State in which the negroes outnumber the whites, and yet they count for nothing at the ballot-box. The whisky bottle money has more influence with them than political principle. The first thing resorted to is to control the negro vote is the whisky bottle. If that does not succeed, threats which the makers have no idea of executing will scare him away. These facts show that the negro is utterly unreliable as a voter."

The address then goes on to tell how the Democratic press of the State, taking the colored majority in the Republican party as a test, insidiously aught them to demand their numerical rights in conventions. Prompted by this idea they thrust themselves forward as a matter of right to the leadership of the party, and, being incompetent, destroyed its power for good.

This action of ignorant negroes placed them in a ridiculous light. Assuming control of the Republican party under Governor Butler, it had gone to the dogs year by year, and the Democratic press should be held accountable for the evil effects of educating the negro up to the point of claiming the leadership. Here the address makes the astounding declaration, coming from undoubtedly radical Republican sources, that this is a white man's country, and white men will control any negro who pushes himself to the front and any white man who urges him to it is an enemy to the country.

The address then announces the purpose of the signers to reorganize the old Whig party as an adjunct to the Republican party, which will be the white man's party, with Republican ideas.

"If," says the address, "a sufficient number comes to the convention we will put in nomination a ticket for the State officers and Electors, and otherwise organize throughout the State, which generally has adhered to the party, and special rates have been given by railroads to the convention."

The committee is flooded with letters from Republicans in Alabama, Tennessee, South and North Carolina and other Southern States, showing that the movement will spread to them.—Courier-Journal Special.

Radicals placed the ballot in the hands of Sambo to make him the balance of power, and to use him to perpetuate their lease. They now complain that he is too easily used—that others can use him as readily as they—that a bottle of whisky or a little money inspires him with more gratitude than all their efforts to impress him with the idea that to the Republican party they owe their freedom and citizenship. They all want office, from Lize Pinkston and Agnes Jenks down. In this element the radical party has a wild elephant on its hands.

Secretary Myers does not "droop" very much in Henry county. The Democratic convention which met in New Castle recently instructed its delegates to the State convention "to cast the solid vote of Henry county for his nomination." How is that for "drooping"?

TOKEN OF REGARD & ESTEEM.

At a meeting of the Rensselaer Bar, and Officers of Jasper County, in open Court, on April 5th, 1884, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, and by request spread upon the records of the Jasper Circuit Court:

WHEREAS, Charles H. Price, after a long and meritorious service of nearly eight years, as Clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court, is about to leave our County for other fields of labor; and

WHEREAS, It is meet that we, the members of the Bar of Rensselaer, and the Officers of Jasper County, reposing confidence as we do in his ability, integrity, and worth, should in a becoming and formal manner express the same; Therefore be it resolved,

First. That in the removal of Charles H. Price from our midst the County loses a good citizen, we a kind neighbor, and the Circuit Court, and the public an efficient and faithful Officer.

Second. That in performing the arduous and onerous duties devolved upon him, by virtue of his position as Clerk of the Circuit Court, he has discharged them with great credit to himself, and with eminent satisfaction to the Court, the Bar, and the public generally.

Third. That as our intercourse with him has always been pleasant and agreeable, we commend him to the confidence of our fellow citizens wherever he may go, knowing that his inherent worth will fully justify that confidence, and our strongest commendation.

(Signed,) PETER H. WARD, Judge.

I heartily concur in the foregoing resolutions. I speak with confidence when I say that no county in the State of Indiana has ever had a more faithful and competent Clerk than CHARLES H. PRICE. He goes to his new home in the West carrying with him the good will and friendship of all his many acquaintances, and all who have had official relations with him. Presiding for seven years as Judge in the Court of which he was Clerk gives me an opportunity to speak knowingly, and with pleasure, of his sterling qualities as an official and a gentleman.

WHAT FOR?
A boy and girl a sledding west,
And neither of them cared a cent
How fast they rid.
While on they slid—
What for, and where?

The air was very cold and raw—
The little boy, he froze his paw.
Still on they sped—
In their little sled—
What for, and where?

The horse, of course, got badly scared,
And ran, and pitched, and kicked and reared.
On went the pair—
Now almost there—
What for, and where?

The boy and girl were tumbled out—
She sprained her ear, he broke his front—
Then up they got,
And off they set—
What for, and where?

For Levino's little candy store—
To get some candy—Nothing more—
They got it, too.
And so may you—
What for?

Why from 11 to 40 cents a pound;
and our nice, sweet magnolias and delicious cream candies and chocolate goods, owing to a heterogeneous
conglomeration of unforeseen difficulties, at prices to suit all.
