EXTRACT FROM

THE TARIFF SPEECH

—OF—

HON. T. J. WOOD, OF IND.

SCHEDULE J.

In this schedule all cotton thread, yarn, or warp yarn, in skeins or bundles or other form if worth 25 cents per pound, the tariff is 10 cents per pound; if worth over 25 cents and less than 40 cents, the tariff is 15 cents per pound; and so on through the list. The goods described in this schedule pay a duty nearly one-half of their market value. If the farmer paid this rate of tax upon his property he would be driven into bankruptcy. Ten per cent. interest is a high rate for money loaned, yet the farmer and the workman pay 40 to 50 per cent. upon all this class of goods he buys. But the end is not here. From the cotton yarn, warp, and thread, which pay this enormous duty, is manufactured cotton cloth and other goods, which are loaded down also with duties ranging from 50, 80, to 148 per cent. ad valorem. So duty upon duty is added when one class of goods is used to manufacture another kind.

WOOLEN SCHEDULE.

I now go to the wool and woolen schedule of this famous reform law and I find wool, the raw material, paying a duty of 33 1/2 to 40 per cent. per pound, according to value. From wool is manufactured cloth, shawls, flannels, blankets, wool hats, knit goods, and many other articles, all loaded down with an additional duty of 85 to 88 1/2 cents per pound. Women's and children's dress goods made wholly or in part from the dutiable wool pay specific duties equal to an ad valorem duty of 65 to 75 per cent. per square yard! Count the yards necessary to dress the average family and you will have some idea of the shameful tribute paid by the consumer. You must not stop here in calculating tariff prices. Count the tariff rate upon the cotton warp and again upon the warp when woven into cloth.

SCHEDULE C.

I call attention to the House to Schedule C, metals, &c., and see what duties iron and steel pay. Begin with iron ore. Iron ore is charged with a duty of 75 cents per ton. From the ore is made pig-iron, which is charged with a duty of $6 per ton. Pig-iron is run into bar-iron, &c., and that pays a duty of $20 per ton. Bar-iron, round iron, and flat iron is made into spikes, nails, and other articles, which pay a duty of $25 per ton, while horseshoe-nails, hob-nails, wire nails, wrought iron and steel nails pay a duty of $80 per ton; chains pay $35 to $50 per ton, and fence-wire $12 per ton. These rates apply substantially to iron and steel blooms. The blooms are made into iron and steel goods of every description, such as saws, files, nuts, rods, screws, and edge tools of every kind, and all are charged with other high duties. I ask the Clerk to read a statement made in the discussion of steel duties.

Allow me to call attention to the profits of the iron and steel industries. In 1880 there were 1,005 establishments with a capital of over $280,971,874. The iron and steel products were valued at $296,557,685; value of material $191,261,150; wages paid, $55,476,785. The profit is $49,809,750, or 21.56 per cent. on the capital invested. The average wages paid was $1.31 per day. In 1880 there were 36 establishments engaged in the manufacture of steel, with $20,975,990 capital. Their manufactured product amounted to $55,805,210; value of materials, $36,826,928; wages paid $4,930,349. The profit was $14, 047,933, or 67 per cent. upon the capital. Average wages paid $1.50 per day. Here is astounding profits and low wages.— This is protection for you in full.

We beg to call your attention to the duties on steel as mentioned in Schedule C, in the act of March 3, 1883, wherein, after providing certain rates on all kinds and qualities of steel, an additional duty of 1 cent per pound is levied on steel circular saw plates. This discrimination makes the duty on these amount to 44 cents per pound. Previous to the enactment of this law the duty on circular saw plates up to 46 inches in diameter was only 8 cents per pound, and above 46 inches in diameter it was 34 cents per pound and 10 per cent. ad valorem. The present rate of duty is equal, on an average, to about 35 per cent. of the foreign value of the article. We use these plates largely in our business, and consider the present duty excessive and unjust, and respectfully hope that your bill will remove this discriminating paragraph and have steel circular saw plates taxed no more than other grades of steel of the same value.

THE STEEL DUTIES.

[Copy of a letter addressed to the Iron Age, and published by that paper in its issue of March 13, 1884.]

To the Editor of the Iron Age:

Sir: Your article entitled "Consolidation of manufactures," in your issue dated February 28, seems to be against the consumer of steel and his efforts and wish for a reduction of the tariff on that necessary commodity. Your sympathies are more strongly expressed in favor of the manufacturer of steel and his success in keeping up the high duties which some consumers have felt to be oppressive. You are right in saying "there is no reason why a steel works should not also make axes, saws, shovels, &c." and no sane consumer of steel will attempt to dispute the statement. Many consumers of steel, however, who have succeeded in establishing industries have reason to complain about a tariff that is giving the steel-makers such a profit that they are rich enough to invest capital in
