Tuesday evening, April 29th. He announces the good health and pros-lighted with the country, and says the prospects for abundant crops are splendid.

To believe the Republican editors of this district one would suppose they are enjoying a huge laugh over what they are pleased to designate Tom Wood's presumption. But Tom can well afford to let them laugh.
He got there, Eli, and has made a far better record, and become more prominent than did either Packard or DeMotte. After all, the laugh of these gentlemen appears on the wrong side of the mouth.

REV. A. L. HOBBS writes—After a thorough trial of the in stating that I have been greatly benefited by its use. It restores and builds up the system, and gives the greatest value where a tonic is required. I recommend it as a valuable remedial agent, possessing unequalled nutritive and restorative properties.

"it" remains. If you take off another it is not "it" totally used up. of which goes to show that if you wish to get rid of a "habit," you must throw it off altogether.—Olive Plan-
