The Widow's Reply in good taste exposes the falsity of Wm. H. Calkins' statements in the Inter-Ocean. Evidently our gentle neighbor is not nearly so well acquainted with his pump, rosy-cheeked, bright eyed, frolicsome candidate for Governor as he would have his readers believe. In fact we don't believe he has ever seen his man.

The Premium lists of the Jasper County Agricultural Society are now ready for distribution. Call on, or address, Ezra C. Nowels, Secretary, Rensselaer, Indiana.

While approaching town, near the Monnett place, on Saturday last, the team of Mr. D. S. Makeever, took fright at the engine connected with a steam thresher, turned suddenly, upset the wagon, and Mrs. Makeever was severely injured. Saturday afternoon last, James Sutton engaged in feeding a thresher at the farm of Enoch Clark, six miles south-east of Rensselaer, undertook to climb to the top of the machine to clean the "elevator," when one of his legs was drawn under the cylinder and dreadfully mangled. He was taken to his home in Milroy township, two and one-half miles distant, and Drs. Loughridge and Bitters immediately sent for. Amputation was necessary with a bare possibility of saving his life. He lingered till 3 o'clock, Sunday morning, when he died, aged about 26 years.
