

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, of Indiana

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR Governor,
COL. ISAAC P. GRAY, of Randolph.

FOR Lieutenant Governor,
GEN. M. D. MANSON, of Montgomery.

FOR Secretary of State,
CAPT. WM. P. MYERS, of Madison.

FOR Auditor of State,
JAMES H. RICE, of Floyd.

FOR Treasurer of State,
JOHN J. COOPER, of Marion.

FOR Attorney General,
FRANCIS T. HORN, of Bartholomew.

FOR Superintendent of Public Instruction,
JOHN W. HOLCOMB, of Porter.

Reporter of Supreme Court,
JOHN W. KERN, of Howard.

Judge of Supreme Court,
J. A. S. MITCHELL, of Elkhart.

For Congress—Tenth District,
THOMAS J. WOOD, of Lake County.

For Judge, 30th Judicial Circuit,
AMES T. SAUNDERS, of Newton county.

For Pro. Attorney, 30th Judicial Circuit,
DAWSON SMITH, of Benton county.

For Representative,
DAVID H. YEOMAN, of Jasper county.

COUNTY TICKET.

For Treasurer,
WILLIAM M. HOOVER,
of Marion Township.

For Sheriff,
ADAM HESS,
of Gilham Township.

For Commissioner—First District,
BRONSON W. HARRINGTON, of Union Township.

For Commissioner—Second District,
C. G. AUSTIN,
of Carpenter Township.

For Surveyor,
JOHN P. DUNLAP,
of Marion Township.

For Coroner,
WILLIAM BECK,
of Marion Township.

CLEVELAND & HENDRICKS.

Regular meeting of the Cleveland & Hendricks Club, at the Club Room, to-morrow (Saturday) evening. Mr. John Roberts will deliver an address. Cordial invitation is extended to everybody.

Base Ball—Ball, of Buffalo. His ball was the basest heard from any political calf during the present generation.

Don Quixote's memorable attack upon the windmill is fully equaled by the valorous onslaught made by Republican editors of small caliber and huge bore upon the man of straw invented and set up by the alleged Rev. Ball of Buffalo. These editors by the way, are as badly rattled, in their intellects as was the famous Knight of LaMoucha.

Blaine hired a substitute to go to the front in the war and be shot at in his stead. Instead of dubbing him "the Plumed Knight," the Republican candidate should be known as the Knight of the White Feather. After the election he will be recognized as the Knight of Sorrowful Figure, while Logan will do very well for Sancho Panza on his ass.

Vermont has gone Republican, on the State ticket, by a greatly reduced majority, compared with the last election in that State. In the November election it will be considerably more reduced, if indeed it gives Republican "majority" at all. The people of that State are justly indignant over the defeat of Senator Edmunds by stock-jobber Blaine and there is a prospect that the action of the Republican Convention at Chicago will be resented by non-indenture.

Ben Butler is a beautiful illustration of the frauds of American politics. Probably the richest man in Massachusetts he claims to be, par excellence, the candidate for the workingmen. Representing the anti-monopolists, he is the legal adviser of some of the great railroad corporations, and the sole owner of one of the most complete monopolies in the country—of the manufacture of bunting, of which the American flag is made. Tossing as the champion of reform, he introduced the salary grab bill, one of the most bald headed official robberies ever practiced upon the people. Continually boasting of his own achievements and perfections, there is not in all the land a more unscrupulous and conscienceless rascal, morally and financially.

WAS HE SUNSTROKE OR KNOTT?

"The reports of the physicians who saw Blaine at the time (it made as they talked to intimate friends) would not convince old Sol of the charge Blaine made against him. Two of them declared Blaine's symptoms unlike those of any patient they had ever treated for sunstroke. Knott was estopped from pressing the investigation by Blaine's friends, declaring it cruel, mean, etc., to do so when Blaine was dangerously ill, and possibly might die. To a private circle of friends Knott insisted that at the great orb of day was not justly chargeable with the stroke which kept Blaine from appearing before the committee, and furthermore that he had no physical ailment from which he was likely to be immediately relieved from political life. Blaine was within a few days well enough to travel, and taking French leave of the committee, betook himself to Maine. Again his friends protested against further action by the committee in his absence. Knott was ready and anxious to adduce the evidence of Blaine's parentage of the Caldwell dispatch. But Blaine remained away, out of range of Knott's committee to the end of the session."

Indianapolis Sentinel: The Sentinel protests again, as it has done repeatedly, against the policy which has wrung personal scandals into the Presidential campaign. It first besought and then warned the Blaine organs to discontinue their unwarranted and dirty attacks on the Democratic candidate. It was in Mr. Blaine's power to have commanded desistance from that method of campaign war.

But the Sentinel especially protests again, being forced by James G. Blaine into the attitude which, for its own defense, will compel it to disclosures which must indirectly affect a woman. Only the most virile was on the private character of Grover Cleveland by Blaine's deputies on the press inspired the Sentinel to question Blaine concerning his own inner life.

But only a cowardly adventurer, devoid of all sense of shame, would thrust the reputation of a wife into such a breach solely for political ends. It is James G. Blaine, and not the Indianapolis Sentinel, who must be condemned for exposures for which his wife must also suffer.

patch and what superinduced Blaine's sunstroke, Knott received what purported to be a telegram from London, signed Josiah Caldwell, ex-operating Blaine from complicity in the Little Rock bond transactions. Knott suspected that the fine and of Blaine might have wrought in the construction of the message, and he held it for development. A development soon appeared in Blaine's charging Knott with suppressing a telegram addressed to him as chairman of the committee. Knott went to New York and procure positive evidence that Blaine had dictated or inspired a telegram to London requesting the sending of the message which Knott received. Knott was ready then to produce the telegram along with evidence that Blaine was practically the author of it. In a few hours more Knott would have confronted Blaine with the document, when lo! a friend rushed in to Knott's presence with the announcement: "Blaine has been prostrated with a sunstroke."

WAS HE SUNSTROKE OR KNOTT?

"The reports of the physicians who saw Blaine at the time (it made as they talked to intimate friends) would not convince old Sol of the charge Blaine made against him. Two of them declared Blaine's symptoms unlike those of any patient they had ever treated for sunstroke. Knott was estopped from pressing the investigation by Blaine's friends, declaring it cruel, mean, etc., to do so when Blaine was dangerously ill, and possibly might die. To a private circle of friends Knott insisted that at the great orb of day was not justly chargeable with the stroke which kept Blaine from appearing before the committee, and furthermore that he had no physical ailment from which he was likely to be immediately relieved from political life. Blaine was within a few days well enough to travel, and taking French leave of the committee, betook himself to Maine. Again his friends protested against further action by the committee in his absence. Knott was ready and anxious to adduce the evidence of Blaine's parentage of the Caldwell dispatch. But Blaine remained away, out of range of Knott's committee to the end of the session."

Indianapolis Sentinel: The Sentinel protests again, as it has done repeatedly, against the policy which has wrung personal scandals into the Presidential campaign. It first besought and then warned the Blaine organs to discontinue their unwarranted and dirty attacks on the Democratic candidate. It was in Mr. Blaine's power to have commanded desistance from that method of campaign war.

But the Sentinel especially protests again, being forced by James G. Blaine into the attitude which, for its own defense, will compel it to disclosures which must indirectly affect a woman. Only the most virile was on the private character of Grover Cleveland by Blaine's deputies on the press inspired the Sentinel to question Blaine concerning his own inner life.

But only a cowardly adventurer, devoid of all sense of shame, would thrust the reputation of a wife into such a breach solely for political ends. It is James G. Blaine, and not the Indianapolis Sentinel, who must be condemned for exposures for which his wife must also suffer.

There is no Free Trade There.

A carpenter in Central Mexico earns from sixty to seventy-five cents a day; a mason the same; a common day laborer from twenty-five to fifty cents a day; a farm laborer who works by the month, from two to five dollars a month and "found," They work from day-light to sunset, with half an hour at 9 o'clock and again at 3 for breakfast and supper. These hours are very long; but they take it easy, stopping every little while to smoke their cigars, and accomplishing less than an American laborer will in six or seven hours' work. Their earnings are barely sufficient to keep them in food and clothes of the coarsest kind, with an occasional "real" over for the bull fight at Falce, but they are the happiest people on the face of the earth.

The Democratic Wagon.

Air—"Wait for the Wagon."

"Our wagon is now ready,
It's made by honest workmen,
Of good old Hickory wood.
Our leaders hold the ribbons,
They are our country's pride;
Then jump into our wagon,
And we'll all take a ride."

CHORUS.

Wait for the wagon;
The Democratic wagon;
The plow-hogger's wagon;
And we'll all take a ride.

With Cleveland for the driver,
And Hendricks by his side;
The White House
Will be a pleasant ride.

Too long the Rads have been in power;
And they will think it strange;
On the Fourth of March in Eighty-five,
To hunt another range.

CHORUS.

Like muffled drums are beating,
Funeral marches to the grave."

We extract the following from an interview with an ex-member of Congress:

"Do you know anything of the reasons why investigation of the Mulligan letter affair was not pressed to a conclusion by the House committee?" I queried.

"For fullest information as to that you should call on Proctor Knott, of Kentucky. By the way the Indiana Democracy should import Knott to speak and ask him to make the Mulligan letter his theme. His would be the great speech of the campaign. Get him to tell of the Caldwell dis-

Hon. Wm. R. Myers, Secretary of State, and candidate for re-election, addressed a large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting in the Court House Monday last. As we announced he would do, he discussed the issues fairly and squarely, and the demonstrations of applause were vigorous and numerous. Capt. Myers is an able, impressive and convincing speaker, a genial gentleman, and made many friends among all parties here. He says the prospects of Democratic success, judging from the sections of the State he has visited, and from reports, are bright and glorious.

Pursuant to previous announcement, U. Z. Wiley, Esq., of Fowler addressed a small crowd of solemn-looking Republicans at the Court House, last Saturday night. He informed his hearers that the consumer didn't pay the tariff duty charged upon the articles they purchased, etc., and as this proposition is about in keeping with the rest of his argument it is not necessary to follow him through his dry, prosy effort. If he will continue to pursue the track he has mapped out above during the campaign, the Democracy and the people will be the gainers.

Rev. T. C. Webster has been re-appointed to us charge in Rensselaer, and Rev. James T. Abbott appointed to Morocco.

Jasper County Fair next week.

ADVERTISED LETTERS

Letters addressed as below remain uncalled for in the Post Office at Rensselaer, Jasper County, Indiana, on the 30th day of August, 1884. Those not claimed within four weeks from the date below given will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, Washington, D. C.

Oley Copper, Azuba Duvall, 2 Grant Farris, Isaac L. Goldman, Miss Anna Hoak, J. L. Riffle, Frank Seitzinger, C. W. Tyler, 2

Persons calling for any of the letters in this list will please say they are advertised.

HORACE E. JAMES, P. M.
Rensselaer, Ind. Sept. 1 1884.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of J. C. Norman & Co., in the saw milling business, was dissolved by mutual consent, 12th July, 1884, Charles F. Shroyer retiring.

The business will be continued by Joshua C. Norman and Solomon A. Norman, who assume all debts and responsibilities of the late firm.

JOSHUA C. NORMAN,
SOLOMON A. NORMAN,
CHARLES F. SHROYER, JR.
August 15, 1884.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE.

The State of Indiana, Jasper County.
Jasper Circuit Court, October Term, 1884
Nancy A. Raymond

vs.
Leonard W. Raymond, John E. Medworth, Richard Hudson and Lyman Raymond.

Complaint No. 3276.
IT appearing by affidavit this day filed in the office of the Clerk of the Jasper Circuit Court that the above named defendants are all in essential parties to the above entitled action, the object of which is to restrain the party of the defendant Leonard W. Raymond and his wife, credits and choses in action in the hands of his co-defendants, to the payment of any judgment which may be obtained for the support of plaintiff, and said defendant wife of said defendant, that said defendant wife of Raymond is not a resident of the State of Indiana.

Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 20th day of October, 1884, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. Notice of the pendency of said action is therefore given to said Leonard W. Raymond, and that the same will stand for hearing at the next term of the said Court to be held at the Court House, in the Town of Rens