RHODY SHIEL

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR STATE TREASURER.

In a Pickle—The Workingmen Promise to See Him Later.

Roger R. Shiel, Republican candidate for Treasurer of State, having been charged with offences and actions of the blackest on record against the laboring element, for which a vigorous boycott has been waged against him. Upon his own appeal to the Central Trades and Labor Assembly, he was allowed an investigation with the following result:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.,
October 12 1884.
To the Officers and Members of the Central Trades and Labor Assembly:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee appointed to take evidence and report upon certain charges preferred against Roger R. Shiel, Republican candidate for Treasurer of State, beg leave to say:

That, as requested by Mr. Roger R. Shiel, we received and carefully read and considered the various statements which appeared in the daily Journal, Times and News of October 6, 1884, which statements he caused to be made public before your Committee had finished its labors in said investigation.

The charges, in substance, are that Mr. Roger R. Shiel opposed, by every means in his power, the Telegraph Operators in their strike with the Western Union Telegraph Company in July and August, 1883.

Mr. Roger R. Shiel was invited by your committee to produce before it any evidence in his possession that he might obtain to refute said charges. It was the endeavor of your Committee to afford Mr. Shiel any opportunity to meet said charges; to explain them or disprove them, and your Committee postponed its meeting for a period of four days (allowing him twelve days from the date of filing his petition) to accommodate Mr. Shiel and to give him ample time to bring before your Committee such matters as he desired.

Your Committee also extended to the Telegraph Operators an opportunity to furnish evidence sustaining the charges made against Mr. Shiel.

After a very careful and full consideration of all the evidence produced we find:

First—That Roger R. Shiel did oppose, by word and action, the Telegraph Operators in their strike against the Western Union Telegraph Company in 1883.

Second—That Roger R. Shiel used every means in his power to defeat the Telegraph Operators in their efforts to obtain justice from the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Third—That, whether known to the officers of said company or not, he brought and was instrumental in bringing operators from abroad to take the place of strikers.

Fourth—That said Shiel personally interfered with the strikers at Indianapolis in this, that he persuaded operators who had been brought from abroad to remain with said company and fill the places of the strikers.

Fifth—That he, not only by word and action, induced operators, who had been brought from abroad, to remain with the company, filling the places of the strikers, but threatened personal violence against the strikers who were seeking to induce said operators to leave the company.

Sixth—That in public utterances he seemed to be favorable to the strikers, yet, by un-reasonable and cunning amendments, defeated every motion or measure that tended to the solution of said troubles, and in private talk, and upon the streets, abused, maligned and vilified the strikers, and upon one occasion said: "That the Governor ought to order out the militia and drive them from the streets."

Seventh—We find that all of the charges made against Roger R. Shiel are true.

Respectfully submitted,
L. H. Mc'lellan,
Henry C. Deck,
William B. Lewis,
S. Schmalholz,
Committee.

THE MOLDERS SAY GUILTY.

At a regular meeting of the Iron Molders' Union, No. 56, held Wednesday evening, October 8, the following report was handed in by the investigating committee appointed by that body, and was unanimously adopted.

Indianapolis, Oct. 8, 1884.
We, the members of the Iron Molders' Union, No. 56, after carefully investigating the report of the committee from the Knights of Labor, in regard to their action toward Rhody Shiel, find that he did all he could to injure the cause of labor during the late telegraphers' strike, and pledge ourselves to use all honorable means to accomplish his defeat on the 4th of November.

B. Sheridan,
Gus Lipp,
John Gird,
Committee.

By Request.

Mr. M. E. Shiel, editor of the Monitor Journal, the temperance organ, requests us to correct our assertion to the effect that Roger R. Shiel attempted to bribe that Journal with $500, and states that the amt was $3,000. The following affidavit explains itself:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.,
Oct. 15 1884.

For some two or three weeks previous to the Prohibition State Convention of July 24, 1884, Roger R. Shiel, Republican nominee for Treasurer of State of Indiana, tried to hire me, and finally offered me three thousand dollars ($3,000) to oppose the prohibition ticket, if nominated, and favor a constitutional convention.

MICHAEL E. SHIEL,
State of Indiana, Marion County, ss:

On this 15th day of October, 1884, said Michael E. Shiel, personally appeared before me and subscribed and made oath to the truth of the foregoing statement in due form of law.

Witness my hand and notarial seal. Robert Denny, Notary Public, in and for Marion county, Indiana.

The Labor Signal is Non-Partisan.

The Indianapolis Times has spoken of the Labor Signal as an "inferior sheet." The Labor Signal makes no pretense of being a great newspaper. It is not published by the organized labor assemblies of this city for the purpose of making money out of the enterprise, but to voice the sentiments and wishes of labor. It is published by an editor selected by the Trades Assembly. The Trades Assembly is composed of sixty delegates, selected by thirteen organized labor bodies in this city, including the Knights of Labor, Typographical, Carpenters, Uplholsters, Molders, Upholsters, and Varnishers' Unions and various other crafts. This paper is non-partisan, but will strike down the hand of any man raised against the rights of working men, as that of Roger R. Shiel against the telegraph operators, be that man Republican or Democrat.

The dead and wounded in Cincinnati as the result of the Ohio election numbered twenty-four.

These are Solid Facts.

The best blood purifier and system regulator ever placed within the reach of suffering humanity, truly is Electric Bitters. Inactivity of the Liver, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Weak Kidneys, or any disease of the urinary organs, or whoever requires an aperient, tonic or mild stimulant, will always find Electric Bitters the best and only certain cure known. They act surely, and quickly, every bottle guaranteed to give entire satisfaction or money refunded. Sold at Fifty cents a bottle by F. B. Meyer.

It is estimated at Washington that the republican campaign thus far has cost $2,200,000. Where did this enormous amount of money come from? Was it subscribed by men anxious for good and economical government, by men who are alarmed at the charge that Grover Cleveland is a monopolist? Not much. It was subscribed by the class of men for whom Blaine has always been a tool—the jobbers, speculators, railroad-wreckers, subsidy grabbers, who expect to profit by his election. A large share of it came from the profits which the high tariff has enabled the protection barons to wring from helpless consumers, subscribed with the belief that the election of Blaine will thwart all efforts at tariff reform, and further perpetuate the infamous system under which they are plundering the public every year of hundreds of millions of dollars. The Cleveland party has no such sum of money. Their "monopoly" candidate is not assisted in his campaign by subscriptions from every wealthy monopolist, corporation speculators and railroad jobbers in the country, for there is nothing in his character to command the support of such men.

OHIO.

[From the N. Y. Herald.]

In a total poll of 750,000 the Republicans secured, in a State which has gone Republican every Presidential year since 1852, a plurality of less than ten thousand.

That is to say, a change of five thousand votes would have lost them the State in 1880; they carried it by nineteen thousand.

But it is not at all certain that the Blaine people can hold these five thousand votes in November. At least seven or eight thousand prohibitionists voted for the State ticket because a leading candidate was a prohibitionist. They may prefer to vote for Mr. St. John, their own candidate in November.

Several thousand anti-Blaine Republicans voted for the State ticket, but will vote against Mr. Blaine and for Governor Cleveland in November.

It will be difficult for the Blaine men to repeat the scandalous deputy marshal business in Cincinnati, and it is not probable that they can afford to swamp the State with money again, because they have too many other doubtful States to deal with.

On the whole, Ohio must be regarded as a doubtful State, Ohio democrats should not be discouraged.
