Let's see! "A cowardly, infamous liar, and dirty sneak." Yes, that is the size of it. It means our neighbor of the Republican.

Republican orators with great gusto to remark that the losses during the administration of Fraud Hayes was the infinitesimal part of a cent or a thousand dollars. In round numbers, several millions of dollars were stolen.

At the town elections in Connecticut last Tuesday, the Republicans received a foretaste of what they may expect in that State next month—Democratic all along the line! Democratic majority in Hartford last year 450; this year it is 1000.

While the Republican candidate for Secretary of State received about 10,000 majority over the Democratic nominee, he did not receive a majority of all the votes cast. He is in a minority, and Ohio is a doubtful State for the November contest.

Democrats, and all opposed to the corruptionists in power, before you cast your ballot compare it with that at the head of our columns. See that no republican electors have been inserted in place of Democratic, and the ticket otherwise tampered with. See that every name is on it, and in its proper place. Be not deceived. The enemy is desperate! Read your ticket carefully.

Hon. D. P. Baldwin, of Logansport, addressed a small crowd of Republicans at the Court House Wednesday afternoon. His remarks were identical with those of his party speakers who preceded him. He endeavored to show from tables constructed for the purpose, that Republicans didn't steal as great amount as the Democrats—the difference in the total of collections considered. During its 23 years control Republican thieves have stolen more than twice as much as was stolen in the entire seventy two years previous. The people are interested in the round numbers—the grand total—not the per cent. on a thousand collected.

The Republican candidate for Circuit Prosecutor should be better employed than in circulating a report that his competitor was under the influence of liquor, at Goodland, on the day Col. Gray addressed the people at that place. We parted with Mr. Smith at 4:15 o'clock p. m. and know that he had not been indulging up to that hour. Mr. Hardy, who presided over the night meeting addressed by Mr. S., and who was in Rensselaer the present week, assures us that the gentleman made a telling speech before a large audience, and certainly was not in the condition stated. So the charge fails.

With a statement signed by over a hundred old and intimate neighbors residing in Ohio and Indiana, backed with that of himself and the affidavits of others, our next Governor, Col. I. P. Gray gives a quietus to the falsehoods of his enemies with reference to his connection with the Know-Nothing party, or any bogus insurance company. We heard him declare with emphasis that the person who would persist in circulating the falsehood, was "a cowardly, infamous liar, and a dirty sneak." That means Gentle George. It fits him to a T.

Calkins has never replied to the Widow Duncan's second letter. Come to time, William. Let us see. We believe you secured her removal from the P. O. at Westville because she refused to pay a $12 assessment to defray your campaign expenses! The idea of a man receiving the salary of a member of Congress, demanding his campaign expenses from a poor widowed postmistress is revolting enough, but to cause her removal on refusal to comply is certainly repulsive.

The Same Old Game.

We have reliable information that a set of men calling themselves Greenbackers in Indianapolis have organized in the interest of the Republican party to repeat the sell out game that was attempted in 1876. They claim to be acting under the instructions of General Butler and Colonel Plympton, his manager. They have been sending secret agents throughout the State instructing Greenbackers to vote the Republican ticket, and will this week send out a paper called the "Globe," the same paper that had a short existence and was finally merged into the "Dawn" which was denounced by the Greenback leaders all over the State until it ceased to exist. The "Globe" will be edited by the Paymaster General of the Plumel Knights of Columbia, Blaine and Logan Club of Indianapolis, pretending to advocate General Butler's election, but privately instructing Greenbackers to knife the Butler electors and vote the Republican electoral ticket. These men are operating with Solon Chase, of Maine, and are in the pay of the Republican Committee. The scheme has been denounced by such Greenbackers as General James B. Weaver, of Iowa; Governor Begole and General W. P. Innes, of Michigan; Hon. E. H. Gillette, of Iowa, Chairman of the National Greenback Committee, and Major Milroy, Col. A. T. Blais, Hon. Richard Greg, Hon. John S. Bender, Hon. B. F. Shively, candidate for Congress in the Thirteenth District; William B. Mobley of Shelby county, and William Sears, Esq., of Hancock county and James R. Highshaw and Peter A. Canary, of Miami county, all prominent Indiana Greenbackers. The infamous move in the interest of the Republican party must be exposed, so that the honest Greenbackers may be informed of the contemplated treachery.

Keep it before the people that the Democratic House at its last session passed bills to forfeit some 90,000,000 acres of unearned land grants and reserve them for the use of actual settlers, but the bills were struck off by the Republican Senate.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Isaac Parker, in Hanging Grove Tp., on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 15th, 1884. Mr. Frank Kenton to Miss Ida Parker. Rev. B. F. Ferguson officiating.

STRAYED OR STOLEN

From John McKeever's pasture Wednesday afternoon of last week, a Bay Horse, Star in forehead, black mane and tail, brand on left hip and left shoulder, about seven or eight years old. Any information leading to his recovery will be suitably rewarded. Address.

GEO. W. CALL, Rensselaer, Ind.

Attorney General Hord at Rensselaer next Tuesday.

Government Interest.
To the Editor of the Indianopolis News:

Will you please state if during Buchanan's administration that 12 per cent, interest was paid by the U. S. government? Also, define the issue of the seven per cent, bonds as to the interest?

J. C. F.

[A long search shows no such rate, the highest during the period covering Buchanan's administration being six per cent. stock loan. It is possible that at the outbreak of the war, or during the panic of 1857, some temporary deficit required a temporary loan at a higher rate. If any one can give the facts, we would like to have them. The 7.30 bonds bore 7.30 per cent. interest, which on a $50 bond, which was the lowest denomination, amounted to just one cent a day. This loan was for three years, being fundable in 5.20s. all of which have been paid.—[ED NEWS.]

Baldwin, and all the rest of the Republican orators, try to impose upon their hearers that the Democracy are in favor of pensioning rebel soldiers. They well know that the constitutional amendments forever provide against that, and they simply reflect upon the intelligence of their hearers every time they resort to that kind of talk.

The Hon. Dawson Smith was in town last Tuesday and Wednesday. He left for Rensselaer on the Wednesday morning train. Mr. Smith reports his prospects for election to the office of Prosecuting Attorney, as being very bright.—Kentland Democrat.

Baldwin referred to John B. Floyd as Buchanan's Secretary of the Treasury. Baldwin is off. Floyd was Secretary of war.

Why Edmunds Is Too Busy to be an Electioneer.

New York Times.

Senator Edmunds has not been making speeches for Blaine, in Ohio or elsewhere. He is in Washington looking into the affairs of the Union Pacific railroad company, and striving to devise plans for legislation that will compel that company to fulfill its contracts with the government and pay a part of the immense debt which it owes to the people. The act of 1878, framed by Senator Thurman and himself, which was so strenuously opposed by Blaine, Stephen W. Dorsey, William Pitt Kellogg, and others of their kind, must be supplemented by new legislation. And so it happens that, while Blaine the jobber and king of the lobby, is posing as the friend of the people and defender of their rights, the honest Senator from Vermont, the people's real friend, is trying to regain for them a part of that which has been taken away by the influence and acts of Blaine and his fellow-jobbers in and out of congress.

Blaine and the Pacific Railroads.

Brooklyn Eagle.

The Pacific railroads hold about 140,000,000 acres of public land; they have received in subsidies some $63,000,000, and they owe the government $43,000,000 interest money. In return for all the favor and indulgence shown them they have shirked their honorable and lawful obligations and endeavored by every device a form of trickery to defraud their benefactors, the people of the U. S. A man who has countenanced and aided them in this shameful course is now running for president on the republican ticket. Mr. Blaine's election would be tantamount to an endorsement of their dishonesty. It would be a challenge to every government debtor to cheat the treasury of its dues, and an invitation to every thief in the federal service to persevere in his plundering.
