Beware of Eleven Hour Reports.
The enemy is desperate and will circulate all kinds of falsehoods with a view to sow discord and create disaffection. Democrats, beware! Heed them not! Do your whole duty, and all will be well.

Vote for Cleveland, Hendricks and Cormier!

Vote for Col. I. P. Gray for Governor and the old war horse, Gen.
Manson for Lieut. Governor. They are worthy of your support.

Vote for the entire Democratic State ticket. The nominees are competent and worthy.

For Congress, vote for Thomas J.
Wood. He has made a good representative. Set down on the self-conceit of such "sweet and tony" populars as Billee Owen.

For Circuit Judge, vote for James T. Saunders. There is no opposition by the bar.

Dawson Smith would make a successful and conscientious Prosecutor—vote for him.

David H. Yeoman, a native Jasper ite, should receive your vote for Representative.

Adam Hess, for sheriff, is entitled to your support. He is not a chronic office seeker.

Third terms should be nipped in the bud. Therefore vote for William M. Hoover for Treasurer.

For Coroner, Billy Beck would fill the bill satisfactorily.

John P. Dunlap is a practical Surveyor. His election would subserve the interests of the people.

Do not overlook the interests of the people in the election of commissioner. Harrington and Austin would make honest capable, and practical members of the Board.

The "doomed knight" has well earned the distinction of being the "Continental Mar."

"Billee Owen," in his speech at this place insisted that Col. Gray was a member of the Know Nothing Order.
According to Col. Gray, "Billee" is a "cowardly, infamous liar, and dirty sneak."

A female member of the Blaine Glee Club, in her insidious innocence, says Billee Owen "is so sweet and tony."
That about the size of it. Billee lacks brains but then he is "so sweet and tony."

"Billee Owen," in tragic attitude wanted to know, you know,—"Where was Tom Hendricks during the war?" Now the people want to know if it is true that "Billee," during the war was engaged in discounting County orders issued to the families of soldiers, his uncle being County treasurer.

In the evening Billee Owen, a promising young aspirant for Congressional honors—very promising; he promised everything, like Rol in Roughhead in the play—he would have no widows, he would marry them all—Lo orphan children becau he would father them all.

The Republican party, in 1856 swallowed up the Know-Nothing party. That year James Guano Blaine claims he was a member of the Republican Convention that nominated Fremont, and supported the nominee of the Convention. With that plea he proposes to satisfy the people that he was not a know-nothing previous to that period,—for instance when editor of the Kenebec Journal, flying at its mast head the motto, "Place none but Americans on Guard!"

The Democratic meeting, Tuesday was a grand success. But short notice was given, and yet in numbers it exceeded the Republican RALLY, of the day previous. Gen. Durbin Ward of Ohio, who served his country nobly in the union army addressed the people in the day time, at the Opera House. His remarks were well timed and well received, and in striking contrast with the ideas expressed by that "sweet and tony" stay-at-home, Billee Owen.

At night the Court House was a literal jam—many being unable to enter.
The remarks of Attorney-General Hord were patriotic, eloquent and scathing to the fullest extent. He was frequently and loudly applauded.
Nothing occurred to mar the enthusiasm except the hissing of a few green goosings which came near resulting in a lesson to them that might be productive of good in the future.

EDITOR SENTINEL: At the risk of being thought even unworthy of past courtesies, extended through your columns, I yet ask a little space to vindicate the action of your cotem-porary of the Republican organ in refusing to publish that little proposition for investigation. He doubtless was not at liberty to do so. My Republican brother, if you do not, you should know, that he can publish such as our leading brethren think would be best for our party, and of course they know that such investigation would let the blinded ones know.

"This short way to Prohibition" by a new constitution was simply a humbug to catch temperance votes, because they knew first by the provisions of the constitution itself the Legislature was powerless to do more at first than to recommend to the people to call a convention; second, that they would be powerless to carry a vote for such a recommendation even if they wanted to, for they knew they could not elect 19 out of 25 senators, which they would have to control the senate (18 Democrats and 7 Republicans holding over). Of the Democrats holding over some were pledged to submission of amendment, but none for the new constitution. Then of course all they would have to say would be "The Democrats defeat it; just wait." (I wonder why not one Republican orator even makes allusion to that great necessity for a new constitution?) And then if these things were not known it would hurt "our party." You may not realize that it requires a great deal of discretion to successfully carry out a pretended special friendship for two antagonistic parties or principles. And you know our great leader thinks the best way is to play mum, as he did on the vote for or against prohibition in his own state. Now you should remember that the position of such an editor is a very trying and delicate one. Therefore we should all exercise due charity.

D. T. Halstead.

Billee Owen is a clergyman, true, without a charge, but then he should stick to the truth. He went over the same rigmarole as those who preceded him. He asserted, as others before him had done, the stale old lie about Mr. Buchanan's administration paying 12 per cent. interest on loans; spoke of the prosperity existing all over the land, in the face of strikes, failures, and idle men everywhere.
The fact is, Billee is only "so sweet and tony," as a prospective Congressman.

Hundreds of old neighbors and citizens of his former and present place of residence, irrespective of party affiliations have signed a statement and furnished affidavits that Col. I. P. Gray was not at any time a member of what was known as the know-nothing order. Col.
Gray backs this with a positive denial of the charge, and designates any man that circulates the story as a "Cowardly, infamous liar, and dirty sneak!" That hits Gentle George slap in the face, and sticks there.

Government Interest.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis News:

Will you please state if during Buchanan's administration that 12 per cent. interest was paid by the U. S. government? Also, define the issue of the seven per cent. bonds as to the interest, J. C. F.

[A long search shows no such rate, the highest during the period covering Buchanan's administration being six per cent. stock loan. It is possible that at the outbreak of the war, or during the panic of 1857, some temporary deficit required a temporary loan at a higher rate. If any one can give the facts, we should like to have them. The 7 30 bonds bore 7.30 per cent. interest, which on a $50 bond, which was the lowest denomination, amounted to just one cent a day.
This loan was for three years, being fundable in 5-20s. all of which have been paid.—(Ed News.)

We commend the above to the careful consideration of Billee Owen, and other Republican orators.

Editor Messenger: I see that Hor.
W. D. Owen still dodges the soldier question. In his speech in Valparaiso the other day he said "I am in favor of pensioning honorably discharged Union soldiers." This is nothing new. The law has been in effect for over twenty years. He left out the little word "all." The question put to him and the other nominees for Congress, Wood and Bozarth, was: Are you in favor of pensioning all Union soldiers honorably discharged." This question Mr.
Owen has not yet answered either through the papers or in any of his speeches.
