Ralph Fendig has just returned from Chicago after purchasing an extensive stock of Fall and Winter Goods. None know the wants in this section better than Mr. F. and his purchases have been made with a view to meet the demands of his patrons. Give him a call.

A Leather Renovating Machine has been put up in the building west of Bedford & Warner's. The Renovator does its work well, takes out of the quills of the feathers all animal matter and impurities, thus removing all offensive and deleterious substances. The proprietors, Messrs. Burk & Row, guarantee entire satisfaction and low charges. Give them a trial.

We understand that the two-year-old daughter of Jay Lamson was very seriously burned in the face on Wednesday of last week.

The festivities at the Presbyterian and M. E. Churches Christmas Eve, were well attended and many made happy. Gurgential and beaming faced friend M. F. Chilcote Esq. sold himself by throwing away a box which he supposed to be filled with cotton, but which actually contained a valuable pair of gold-rimmed spectacles. He afterwards recovered the treasure. Evidently, Frank dreads a "sell."

The dedication of the new F. W. Baptist church house is announced for the 2nd Sunday in January. Rev. S. D. Bates, A. M. President of Ridgeville college, is expected to preach the sermon. Notice of arrangements will be made in due time.
