WOOD! WOOD! WOOD!!!

Mr. Will A. Lamson and wife are visiting friends in Rensselaer.

Ladies and Misses Cloaks, Circulars, Dolmans, etc., a nice lot, cheaper than ever before at FENDIE'S

The new M. E. Church at Mt. Airy will be dedicated next Sunday, Feb-22, 1885, Rev. J. H. Claypool, of Lafayette, is expected to officiate.

I have come to stay, and don't you forget, with cash enough to buy all the Poultry in the County.

J. SHARP.

C. G. Sears and wife were compelled to remain five days in New Orleans for a steamer on which to proceed to their destination, Braidentown, Florida.

"Some of the wags around town" seem to take delight in "coddling" the "Kid" of the Republican. Last week they "stuffed" him with an item to the effect that "twins" had put in their appearance at the home of our clever friend, Joe Sharp, but this week they have impressed him with the idea that they had circulated a petition requesting us "to issue a daily during the snow blockade." The "Kid" is mightily easy gulled—so easy that he very frequently makes a "dampfool" of himself.

Last Saturday morning, about 3:30
a. m. the train which should have passed Rensselaer Friday 11:28 p. m. struck a broken rail near the residence of M. W. S. Coen about one and half miles north of this place, and a number of the passengers more or less injured. They were taken to the residence of Mr. Coen, Drs.
Loughridge & Bitters and Hartsell were sent for who afforded needed relief. Mrs. M. J. Foster, of San Francisco, on her way to Va., was brought to the Makeover House.
She will resume her journey in a few days.

The passengers appreciating the kindness and attention of Mr. Coen and family, presented the following CARD OF THANKS:

We the undersigned, passengers on the train wrecked near Rensselaer, Saturday morning, Feb. 14th, 1885, do hereby return our most sincere and heartfelt thanks to Mr. Wm.
Coen and his family, for their great kindness and hospitality, during our stay in their home.

Signed:—O. C. Rife, Indianapolis;
J. H. Reamer wife and son, South Bend; E. C. Fuller, and wife Chicago; Mrs. Fanny LePetrie Chicago; Mrs.
J. H. Hibbard, South Bend; Mrs. S.
A. Hillier, South Bend; Col. and Mrs.
L. M. Dayton Cincinnati; Mrs. M. J.
Foster San Francisco, Cal.; Mrs.
John Fern Kasson, Minn.; Edward Hussey, and Miss Mary Hussey, Indianapolis.

Rensselaer, Ind., Feb. 16 1885

Brookston Reporter: A dog wolf was killed Monday about five miles northeast of Brookston in the day time. It was routed by Ed Colwell and Ed Haff near the Widow Haff's who gave it chase and fired at it a few times at a distance. It took up the road in the lane and dodged by the travelers whom it met one of whom hit it with a club and another shot at it after it had passed by without serious effect. Will Haff finally succeeded in getting in an effective shot which took effect. Those who have seen it state that it is half wolf and half dog and has a white ring around its neck. This no doubt is one of the beasts that have been slaying so many sheep in that neighborhood or a year past.
