

FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1885.

Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, of Ohio, goes to Berlin.

Hon. Joseph E. McDonald has been tendered the Russian mission but declines.

Gov. McLane, of Maryland, will represent the United States at the French Court.

Mr. Phelps, of Vermont has been appointed to the Court of St. James.

Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, has been appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Turkey.

Senator Voorhees is to defend T. E. Johnson at Greenville, Tenn., for killing Major Henry.

At Chicago, on the 24th, the Democracy re-nominated Carter Harrison for Mayor of that city. He will be re-elected.

At Maryland, Pulaski county, Monday night, Zach Lettermann, while intoxicated, was killed by his brother-in-law, William Dolaver.

Hon. Jacob Thompson, Secretary of the Interior under President Buchanan died on the afternoon of the 24th, at his residence in Memphis, Tennessee, in his 75th year.

At Mount Carmel, Ill., a domestic, left in charge of a child, yielded up her own life to save the little one from being burned to death. Certainly a rare case of heroism.

The President and Cabinet have concluded that the Government can be run with 1000 less men than were employed by the administration recently retired, at a saving of not less than $1,500,000. Save it!

Mrs. Chas. Harley of Delphi, while temporarily deranged, mysteriously disappeared from her home on the 28th inst., and no clue of her has been obtained. A reward has been offered for her recovery.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Holcomb and his assistant, Mr. Skinner, have compiled a complete encyclopedia of the educational affairs of Indiana. The work contains a complete history of all the schools and colleges in the State.

A Republican lady in Indianapolis, who, during the late campaign, could not conceal her bitterness toward Mr. Cleveland, the other day remarked: "If Cleveland will only keep on the way he is doing, he will reform the whole country. I like him better every day." This indicates the change of mind that may be found all over the country to-day.

In effectually, William M. Evarts is a long stride ahead of E. G. Lapham, whom he succeeds as the representative of the Empire State in the U. S. Senate. The title by which he is recognized—"Corporation Bill"—by those who know him best, however, is not very reassuring. The title suggests the reason for it. We recall him as one of that vile brood who contributed to the term of the Presidency to which Samuel J. Tilden was elected to Fraud Hayes.

Neal Dow, the Maine Temperance fanatic, a nuisance his withdrawal from the Republican party. (We stop here to say that we hope he will in no way be allowed to edge or worm himself into the Democratic organization.) Some one will ask why he left the Republican fold? He pledged Blaine to vote for the Prohibition Constitutional Amendment. Blaine deceived him by dodging the issue and voting a blank. Neal still clung to his fortunes and supported his contest for President. The iron that has punctured Neal's soul, and led him to repudiate the party is the Maine Legislature. Maine had no end of prohibitory legislation on its statute books, but none of it prohibited. At last Neal determined to try the efficacy of a prohibition amendment to the constitution. In November last that measure secured a popular majority, and was duly incorporated into the organic law of the State. The amendment, as in all such cases, imposed upon the legislature the duty of passing laws to make it effective. The legislature chosen, nineteen-twentieths of its members being republicans, have absolutely refused to enact any such measures. Like men everywhere they were in favor of the amendment, but are desperately opposed to enforcing it. "Fur the law, but again carryin' it out." And Neal Dow is mad at that republican legislature, and therefore he washes his further connection with a party.

MR. NOWELS' STATEMENT OF HIS CASE.

We publish below the response of Mr. Nowels to the strictures of the Republican.

RENSSELAER, IND. MARCH 20, 1885.
Editor Rensselaer Republican.
SIR: In your issue of March 12th, appeared an article which reflected upon my honesty as an Ex-official of the county, and that the people of the county may understand the matter, I desire you to give this article a place in the columns of your paper. I quote the article which refers to the current report:

"It is currently reported on the streets, and the report has, in fact, gone all over the county, that a heavy shortage has lately been discovered in the accounts of Ex-Auditor Nowels, and that one day last week Mr. David Nowels, father of the Ex-Auditor, paid over to the proper officers the sum of $2,500 principle, and $570 accrued interest, to straighten the account."

This report, which we give in its very mildest and least damaging form, is a subject of constant discussion everywhere, and places Mr. Nowels' official conduct in a very unfavorable light. It is closely related to a large circle of most estimable people. In this vicinity, and has heretofore held a high place in the estimation of the community. More than this during the late political campaign he was first, foremost and loudest in demanding that the books must be opened, and the rascals turned out. Under such circumstances he owes it to himself, to his friends, to his political opponents and to the public to make a full and impartial statement of this matter. If he has been maligned he should spare no pains to make the truth known. Let there be a full explanation."

Now, believing in the principle that the truth in this matter will wrong no one, I will give the facts as they exist. I am free to say that on or about July 23rd, 1881, I drew orders on the Treasurer of Jasper county, for school money in his hands, amounting to about $1400, which was charged to my account, on the register of land, in the Auditor's office, and the several funds were credited with the amounts drawn by me, the applications to pay interest, and all matters connected therewith, were duly issued and charged as in other cases. And on or about December 22nd, 1882, I issued orders on the Treasurer of Jasper county, for school money in his hands, amounting to about $1400, in the name of D. H. Yeoman and George M. Wilcox, which amounts were charged to their accounts on the register of land. I signed their names, as per instruction: D. H. Yeoman per Ezra C. Nowels, and George M. Wilcox per Ezra C. Nowels, as shown by order stub book in the Auditor's office, and being Nos. 3195 to 3199, inclusive. The applications were duly issued, and charged to their accounts, same as in other cases, and the several funds credited with the amounts. Then on or about the 23rd of December, 1884, Mr. George M. Robinson, Auditor, was, by his deputy John F. Warren, issuing notices to delinquent interest payers, and I told Mr. Robinson to not send notices to Mr. Yeoman and Mr. Wilcox, as I was to pay said interest; then in Mr. Robinson's and Mr. John F. Warren's presence, I took my eraser and erased their names and wrote my name instead. I then told Mr. Robinson, who had to look after the safety of the fund that I would guarantee full payment by the first day of June, 1885, which was satisfactory, but when the matter leaked out that there was a great shortage in my account, my wife notified me at Grand Hotel, Indianapolis, of the report which was going the rounds, and not being able at that time to get a leave of absence, I wrote to my father concerning the matter, when he promptly came to my assistance, and paid the whole amount of interest and principal; but I have to make full payment to him, with interest when I am able to realize on securities which I hold. This is a full and complete statement of all the facts in the matter, there being nothing in the transaction that would warrant the rumor that a great and glaring shortage existed in my account. I have in all my business with and for the people of the county, carefully watched their interest; and have never wronged any one out of a penny; nor any fund out of the fractional part of a penny, to my knowledge; and the rumor in relation to Mr. Robinson and Mr. Alter, the Auditor and Treasurer, being in partnership with me to cover up and keep this matter of mine from the public, is a grand and outrageous insult to these gentlemen. They are honorable and faithful public servants, and would not in my opinion, be parties to any thing which is not strictly honest and upright, and in keeping with the obligations of their oaths of office. With these statements, which are made from the records, I leave the matter with the people to judge whether there was a shortage or not.

EZRA C. NOWELS.

RENSSELAER, IND. MARCH 18, 1885.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
This is to certify that I did on or about the 22nd day of December 1882, authorize Ezra C. Nowels, then Auditor of said county, to sign my name per his signature for certain orders on the Treasurer of Jasper county, Ind., for school money then in the hands of said Treasurer, which orders were issued to me. But afterwards I directed said Nowels to sign my name which he did as will be shown by orders No. 3195, 3196, 3197 in the stub orders in the Auditor's office.

DAVID H. YEOMAN.

RENSSELAER, IND. MARCH 18, 1885.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:
This is to certify that I did on or about the 22nd day of December 1882, authorize Ezra C. Nowels, then Auditor of said county, to sign my name per his signature for certain orders on the Treasurer of Jasper county, Ind., for school money then in the hands of said Treasurer, which orders were issued to me. But afterwards I directed said Nowels to sign my name which he did as will be shown by orders No. 3195, 3196, 3197 in the stub orders in the Auditor's office.

G. M. WILCOX.

An applicant for a Postoffice the other day held the following conversation with President Cleveland:

"How soon does the incumbent's term expire?" Inquired the President.

"Oh, in about three years, unless it is cut short."

Are there any charges against him?

"Well, yes. We Democrats don't like him."

"But on what ground do you ask for his removal?"

"On the ground, Mr. President, that 11,000,000 of people decided last November that they wanted a change."

The following is a list of the carriages, horses, etc., kept by the Interior Department of the last Republican administration, which the new Cleveland Democratic administration proposes to sell next Friday for the benefit of the United States Treasury.

Six fine coupe rockways.
One Berlin rockway.
One four-seater summer carriage.
Eight fine coupe and carriage horses.
One mail wagon.
Ten sets of double and single harness.

Ten horse blankets, eight horse covers, six three-quarter blankets, six buffalo robes, seven lap robes, three carriage covers.

Two pairs, eight storm covers, whips, reins, brooms, chamolins, skins, ear nets, fly nets, feather dusters, collars, halters, shafts, surcingle, etc.

What on earth did the managers of the Interior Department do with eight vehicles of the kind mentioned in the foregoing? As the clerks were only employed about six hours per day, they perhaps aired themselves in these "fine coupes" and "Berlin rockways." And then we note a "four-seater summer carriage." This was probably used by the radical rural roosters who flocked to Washington during the pleasant seasons of the year and were entertained with the sights of the capital at the expense of Uncle Sam. The sale of all these superfluous trappings of a Republicanism will be called "cheese-paring" by the organs, but it will find favor with the people who have been taxed to fatten a favored few on public paper and ride them about in "fine coupes" and "Berlin rockways."

A "NEW DEAL" BY DEERE & COMPANY, MOLINE, ILLINOIS.

Two Horses can do the work of Three.

A SAVING OF ONE-THIRD IN THE COST OF PLOWING.

24 inches Turned with same power as 16 inches

The greatest plow improvement of the times.

THE "NEW DEAL" WHEELED WALKING PLOWS, SINGLE AND DOUBLE FURROW.

THE "NEW DEAL" is lighter in draft and more easily handled than a hand plow, and cuts a more uniform furrow.
THE "NEW DEAL" is lighter in draft, lighter in weight, and lighter in price than a sulky plow, and will do all its work.
THE "NEW DEAL" Gang cuts 24 inches with the draft of a 16 inch hand plow—a saving of 30 per cent. in labor. Does all the work of a four horse riding gang with one less horse and little more than half the cost.
THE "NEW DEAL" Plows are ALL STEEL, insuring greatest strength with lightest weight.

This is an untried and risky experiment, and these claims are not made recklessly to attract attention. This system is the outgrowth of careful observation and experiment reaching over a period of years, with a rational view of the requirements of the times.

They are superior to any plows ever offered, and the most economical plows ever placed in the market. Send for circular.

The LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE issued the following circular to connecting lines last evening:

"To comply with a desire expressed by a multitude of correspondents that they be given permission to see the 'New South' en route to the New Orleans Exposition and to induce increased numbers to visit said Exposition, we have this day arranged to grant stop-overs on the going portion of the present exposition ticket, such stop-over in no case to exceed ten days. There is no necessity for altering the tickets now in sale; the passengers who desire to stop over should notify the first conductor out of Cincinnati, Lexington, Louisville, Evansville, St. Louis, Montgomery or River Junction of this fact, and he will take up their going coupon and furnish them with a ticket which will admit of the above stop-over. The return portion of the ticket, when properly signed and stamped in New Orleans Exposition, must be used for a con inous passage, and no stop-over on the return portion of an exposition ticket will be granted."

Referring to the above, I wish to call your attention to this fact: The MONON ROUTE is the only line running Pullman Palace Sleepers from Chicago to Louisville and Cincinnati, making direct connection with the L. & N. R. for New Orleans, via Mammoth Cave and Mobile. For those holding tickets reading via Monon Route to Louisville or Cincinnati Southern R's from either of those cities to the South, we will take pleasure in securing Sleep Car berths thorough.
