FRIDAY APRIL 3 1885.

WOOD! WOOD!! WOOD!!!

Next Sunday is Easter.

Tuesday, at the Newells House, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Thompson.

Mr. Florence, of Barkley township, has moved to Rensselaer, and occupies the Mrs. Crockett property.

O. C. Dickey and wife started yesterday for Fort Scott, Kansas, where they will make their future home.

George Catt, formerly of Rensselaer, now a resident of Pittsburgh, Carroll county, visited friends here the present week.

The Township Assessors met at the Auditor's office Monday and adopted a basis for the assessment of property for 1885.

Paul Hanson was up before Justice Purcupile Monday, charged assault and battery on his wife.—Jury trial. Fined and costed $15. 50.

Mr. Dexter, late of the Newells House has rented the Terhune property of Mr. John Makeever, and will soon occupy it.

Tuesday evening Judge Huff rendered a decision against the Corporation in the action of the Town of Rensselaer vs Leopold.

Aunt Rose Sparling baked 650 pies for the quarter ending March 31, 1885. If you want a good pie or lunch go to Sparling's north east of depot.

Mrs. May Hawkins, nee Washburn, is visiting friends in Cass county. We understand she intends soon to return to her home in California.

Remember! that Nursery stock bought at the Rensselaer Nursery, being already acclimated, is best suited to this locality, and the kind for you to buy. See 'ad' in another column.

The jury in the cause of the State vs. Stitz, charged with arson, the jury on yesterday brought in a verdict of guilty, and imprisonment for one year. The case was ably contested. Prosecutor Walker and Judge Hammond for the State; S. P. Thompson and Col. DeHart for the defense.

Considerable dissatisfaction exists throughout the county over the appointment by the Commissioners of the Superintendent of the Poor Farm—not on account of the gentleman appointed, but from the fact that the fail to comprehend that the "lowest bid" played any very conspicuous part in the letting.]

Tom M. Jones, ex-Trustee of Kankakee township, was in Rensselaer last week, and was smiling all over at the proposition of the 'kid' to raise the wind by advertising for sale a 'delinquent subscription account' against the said ex-Trustee. The fun comes in when Tom laughingly declares that of the numerous family of Jones' he is the Jones that does not owe him a copper—never subscribed for the Republican, and never received it.

Presbyterian.

Services were held at the Presbyterian Church during the past two Sabbaths, and every evening of the intervening week, closing the second year of the services of Rev. Gilbert Small as supply for the church. During this time twenty-one were admitted to membership in the congregation; seven during the first year, and fourteen during the second, of whom four were by certificate and ten by profession, of whom seven were baptized. The names added for the second year are as follows:

By certificate—Mrs. Hattie Ferguson, Mrs. Lillie Hyland, Mrs. Eliza Chilcott and Miss Minnie Hatton; by profession: Mrs. Ruth Chipman, Miss Grace Varatta and Eunice Adamson; by profession and baptism: Misses May and Edith Miller, Nellie Kelley, Mamie Spitler, Sarah Chilcott, Ada Chilcott, and Mr. Henry Smith. While rejoicing in this accession, the congregation has been called to mourn the loss, by death, of Mrs. Chilcott and her aged mother, Mrs. Hammond. May this bereavement be sanctified to us. The present membership is forty-eight, and the prospects are brighter and more encouraging than for a long time past. Active work will be prosecuted by the Industrial Society, the Prayer Meeting and Sabbath School, and the pulpit supplied as soon as possible.

An official of the L. N. A. & C. RR. informs the New Albany Leader that at the recent meeting of the stockholders and directors of the road in New York, a policy was adopted that looks to the immediate improvement of the road and the payment of all floating indebtedness. The betterments are to include the ballasting of the track, and the addition of a number of locomotives and several hundred freight cars. The owners of the L. N. A. & C. are among the wealthiest men of New York, who are abundantly able of themselves to make the Monon a first-class property and who intend to do so. To this end the recent changes in officials of the road were made. Mr. Dowd, the new president, has had a good deal of experience in railroad management, while Mr. J. B. Carson, the vice-president and general manager, is noted as one of the energetic, and successful, and practical railroad men in the country. Both these gentlemen accepted their present position upon the distinct understanding that the owners of the road would put up one and a half to two millions of dollars to put the road in first-class condition in both track and equipment. Mr. W. S. Baldwin, the general passenger agent of the company, is also a railroad man of national reputation, and has been brought into the L. N. A. & C. on account of his ability, and in view of the new era in the company's affairs and management. Nearly the entire stock and nearly all the bonds of the road are held by its New York owners, and they absolutely control its affairs. There is no disagreement among them in regard to the new policy to be adopted, and therefore not the slightest probability they are going to give up their own management of the property to a receiver.

The company has employed competent attorneys to especially adjust all questions of a legal character pending between the company and claimants—such as damages from injuries received in accidents, claims for stock killed, and rebates claimed by shippers, it being the purpose of the management to adjust such matters as early as practicable. That the road has suffered in its business from the soreness, so to speak, of such claimants, is undoubtedly true. One of the officers said the aim of the present management is to make everybody who is directly or indirectly a patron of the road feel kindly toward the company and interested in its prosperity.
