 ter's sojourn in Florida, much improved in health.

We are informed that the papers are ready and that the Supreme Court will be asked to grant a new trial to Wartner.

D. S. Willey, after a winter's stay in Mississippi, returned to his home in Rensselaer, Friday, boasting of improved health.

Jesse Milliken, who will be remembered by many of our people as one of the trainmen in the days of the "Narrow Gauge," is visiting Rensselaer.

We understand an effort will be made by the Presbyterian congregation of Rensselaer to secure the services of Rev. Charles Evans for six months.

The enumeration of children in the Town of Rensselaer, for school purposes, has been completed by Capt. Chilcote, and shows a total of 241 males; 274 females. Total —515. An increase of 32 over the enumeration last year.

Our old friend, John G. Culp, is talking of selling his farm, on account of poor health of himself and wife. He has one of the best grain and stock farms in the county, and is offering to sell on very reasonable terms. He has everything on the farm very convenient.
 It is probably not surpassed by any in the county for conveniences.

Remember! that Nursery stock bought at the Rensselaer Nursery, being already acclimated, is best suited to this locality, and the kind for you to buy. See 'ad' in another column.

James Tull, of Lafayette, has completed several very handsome jobs of paper hanging and decorations for citizens of Rensselaer.—

 ices should leave their orders at the Makeever House at once.

At the Democratic meeting Tuesday evening, J. C. Chilcote, chairman, and Jas. W. McEwen, secretary, the following excellent ticket was placed in nomination:

Trustees—Third Ward, Michael Eger; Fourth Ward, G. H. Brown; Fifth Ward, John Chamberlain.

Clerk—John H. Jessen.
 Treasurer—Ludd Hopkins.

With reference to the office of Marshal the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That under existing circumstances this Convention will make no nomination for Town Marshal.

The ticket is a good one, and its success will insure the Corporation against the expensive mistakes and litigation of the present board.— Vote for it.

On last Saturday, James M., son of T. A. Crockett, while loading a double-bared shot-gun had the clothing torn from his left shoulder by a premature discharge of the loaded barrel of the piece. It was certainly a narrow escape for the boy.

At the prohibition meeting Monday evening a constitution and by-laws were adopted and a meeting appointed to be held this evening, at which a corporation ticket will be placed in nomination.

No trace of Mrs. Harley, the Delphi lady who mysteriously disappeared from her home sometime ago has yet been disclosed.
 The Times of last Friday says:
 "The river has been carefully searched and the search continues but no discovery has been made that throws any light upon the occurrence. When the high water in the Wabash subsides, that stream will be carefully dragged.
 Mr. Harley informs a Times man that since the disappearance of his wife he has received from 'detectives,' town officers, etc., a stack of letters and propositions two feet through, containing all manner of interrogatories, 'pointers' to her speedy recovery for which pay was wanted, etc., and that the 'detectives' were an absolute nuisance. He believes that Mrs. H. will be recovered and returned to her home and will stop at nothing that will assist in that happy termination of the sad occurrence."

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Wrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my

 I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by F. B. Meyer's. 34-5
