D. M. NELSON, Co. Supt.

Our venerable townsman, Rial Benjamin, was considerably 'shuck up,' one day last week, by a fall from a load of oats.

Mrs. James Maloy and Miss Lydia Diggins received first and second prizes at the W. C. T. U. spelling match, Wednesday evening last.

James W. Douthit, Esq., started for southern Indiana Wednesday night, called there by telegram to visit a sick friend. He will be absent about a week.

Lon. Pride and family, of Monon, recently started with teams for the west, but had only reached Riverside, a suburb of Chicago, when Mr. P., who was a convalescent, took a relapse and died Wednesday morning. His remains will be interred at the Osborne Cemetery next Sunday at 2 o'clock p. m.

During the illness of the late Alfred Hoover, which lasted a year, he was constantly waited upon by Mr. Jacob Shoe, who was employed by the sons Wm. M. and George, to devote his entire time to the care of his father. On Wednesday Mr. S. informed us of the fact, said he had been promptly and liberally paid, and added that the boys, not satisfied with what they had already done, had just bro't him to Rensselaer and surprised him with a complete outfit in clothing.

ning, Mr. William Curran and Miss Hannah Turbey.

If you want good clothing at low figures, call and examine the large stock just opened out at Fendig's.
In the matter of supply, variety in styles, quality of goods, and low prices, Fendig can not be surpassed. All are invited to call, examine stock and ascertain prices, before purchasing elsewhere.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Mopticello Woolen Factory on 8th page of this "Sentinel." Captains Ward and Snyder are honorable business men, fair and liberal in their dealings. Having refitted the establishment with new and improved machinery, and employed expert workmen, they are prepared to manufacture first-class goods. They solicit trade. Give them a call.

The new Floral Hall, at the Fair Ground, is under contract, and will be completed on time.

Regular County Institute Aug.
24 to 28 inclusive.

Next week will be held the annual County Teachers Institute. Superintendent Nelson's intelligent and untiring energy promises to make the week one of remarkable interest to both teachers and the public generally.
The regular and occasional instructors will include some of the most eminent educators in the state. The feature of the Institute which will be of the most interest to the public generally, and at the same time, of great value to the teachers in attendance, will be a course of public entertainments and lectures.
The programme for the week will be about as follows:

MONDAY NIGHT.—The Annual Teachers' Reunion, with an unusual variety of exercises.

TUESDAY NIGHT.—A lecture by Prof.
E. E. Smith, Professor of English Lit-

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Morrisburg, Ill. says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by F. B. Meyer's. 34-5

FRUIT - TREES!

THE HOME NURSERY

J. B. HARRIS & CO.

(Located at Champaign, Illinois.)

Will be represented here this summer, for the purpose of making a Fall delivery. Any one wanting trees to replace, or

SET NEW ORCHARDS,

will find it to their interest to wait until the local agent calls on them.

TREES OR SHRUBS

brought from Illinois Nurseries are better adapted for this SOIL, than those brought from Eastern Nurseries.

READ what some of the leading Farmers of Newton county say of the stock they purchased of the HOME NURSERY: Messrs. Z. Spitler, Bluford Leight, Joe Law, James Martin, George Bridgman, were among the well known farmers in Newton county who received fruit trees from the Champaign Nursery, through Mr. Bela C. Kent, their agent in this and adjoining counties. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the quality of the trees and the trees and the gne condition in which they received them from the agent.

Every lover of Fruit should secure a few of MALLORY'S RED WINTER, and the ROBINSON.

Any order left with Turkey Joe Sharp, Allen Catt, or M.
Jones, will receive careful attention.
