

Democratic Sentinel

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 18, 1885.

Philadelphia Times: The new name for bloody-shirtism is the Delirium Shermans.

Read Governor Hoadley's exco-riation of the arch demagogue John Sherman, in to-day's SENTINEL.

Commander-in-chief Burdette of the G. A. R. has issued a circular urging all members to contribute 15 cents each for a monument to General Grant.

A tramp went into a house in Missouri and spit on the parlor carpet. The woman was sick in bed, but she got up and broke his collar-bone and ran him to the woods.

Jno. L. Makeever, Esq., formerly of Rensselaer, and Miss Jennie Jarmin, were married Sept. 3d, at Osceola, Nebraska. The Osceola paper give a brilliant description of the affair.

We are requested to announce that the Day Brothers will engage in the Coal trade the coming winter, and invite consumers to consult with them before procuring their supply.

Crown Point Register: Ex-Congressman Wood says he has succeeded in putting in several democratic postmasters in this district within the last week, and he expects to reward more of his friends in the near future."

EXPOSITION RATES.—The station agent at this place will sell round trip tickets to Chicago and return, for $2.95, on Tuesdays and Thursdays of every week until Oct. 14th. Good to return on any regular train until the Monday following the day when sold.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says: Colonel Mulligan, whose widow has just been made pension agent at Chicago, was the American Regulus. When a Confederate prisoner he was released in order that he might go to Washington and ask for an exchange of prisoners. He was unsuccessful, and was advised not to return; but he was a man of honor and went back to take his place in the Confederate prison.

WHICH?

The Democratic Sentinel says that "Miss Ada Sweet, of Chicago, has accepted Gen. Black's request to resign." The statement does injustice to Miss Sweet. She has resigned the office, but not in response to Gen. Black's invitation, but because the firm of A. H. Andrews & Co., the furniture and school supply dealers, have offered her a better salary to take charge of a branch of their business in the East than she draws as pension agent.—Rensselaer Republican.

The Delphi Journal, a republican paper, on the same subject says:

"Miss Sweet has finally been retired from the United States Pension office, located in Chicago, through the aid of Gen. Black, Commissioner of Pensions, backed up by the power of the present Reform Democratic Administration."

Of course the additional comments of the Journal prove that it is not pleased at the alternative left Miss Sweet—resignation or removal—but the extract goes to show up the inventive talent of our neighbor in the line of Sweet falsification. If the Delphi Journal is correct, then the Rensselaer Republican is wrong. We leave these organs to the enjoyment of all the Sweet comfort they may derive from the power exercised by "the present Reform Democratic Administration."

Monticello Herald: J. S. Casad's vineyard has produced a ton of grapes this season—the product of young vines. About a thousand bunches were grown in paper sacks, which it is claimed make the grapes more delicious and improves their condition for preserving.

While the keeper of Jumbo, the thirty thousand dollar elephant, was leading him along the railroad track, half a mile east of St. Thomas, Ont., Tuesday night, a freight train came up behind unnoticed and ran him down, injuring him so badly that he died in thirty minutes. The trick elephant, Tom Thumb, was also injured, his leg being broken. Jumbo was supposed to be about thirty years old and is believed to have been the largest elephant ever held in captivity.

A Correction.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7, 1885. To the Editor of the (Lewistown, Pa.) Democrat and Sentinel. Through the medium of a letter from an interested friend in Lewistown, I am apprised that I consigned two of my early friends to the tomb prematurely in my letter to the DEMOCRAT AND SENTINEL last week. He informs me that James W. McEwen and William McKinney are still in the land and among the living—a fact that I am pleased to learn. I beg their pardon and that of their friends and relatives for having thus attempted to dispose of them so summarily and without warrant, and offer as an apology that I had not heard of them for so long that I supposed they, too, had joined the innumerable throng among other friends on the other side.

If this paragraph should meet their eye, I tender them the congratulations of an old-time friend, coupled with the hope that they may long survive my premature obituary notice.

Very Truly Yours,
J. M. B.

A former resident of Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, and now of Utah Penitentiary, says in a letter to a friend: "I am serving out a six months' sentence for loving, cherishing and caring for my dear families, consisting of three of the best, noblest and loveliest wives in the Union, and twenty-three just as good and pretty children as ever came from heaven to sojourn for a season on this mundane sphere."

An American actor now in Germany advertises that he has with great difficulty secured leave of absence from President Cleveland to play in Austria a month. An American tourist added to the bill a foot-note saying that while the President reluctantly granted the permission to go, he peremptorily refused to give permission for him to come back.

State Fair Items.

The business department of the Indiana State Fair to commence September 28, indicates success.—Seven States already represented on the books.

Five new exhibition buildings by individual enterprise going up, one of which is to cost $4,000.

A new fountain is erected near the center of the ground connection is made with the City Water Works, and the supply for all purposes unlimited.

More stalls, pens and space for exhibition will be a necessity. $1,800 offered in speed list.

A grand Dog Show has been arranged for at the State Fair, $100 in premiums offered on Mastiffs, St. Bernards, Setters, Pointers, Terriers, Collies, and miscellaneous. A show of one hundred dogs guaranteed. Fifteen special premiums offered on dogs by business men of Indianapolis. Usual rules will govern. Send for prize list.

The Woman's Department has so increased as to require all the upper floor of the Exposition Hall, a brick structure 300 feet long and 150 feet wide. $175 in three premiums is offered for the best drilled female companies not less than sixteen in each company, with Brooms, Fans or Spears.

A fine display of German Carp Fish will be on exhibition.

The prosperity of the country, and the evident wealth of the farming community is largely due to the improved Live Stock, and wonderful improvement in Agricultural Machinery, which will be illustrated at the State Fair. No enterprising farmer can afford to stay away from this Grand Educator.

A force of workmen are engaged in putting the grounds and buildings in complete order. The managers are contemplating an extension of the Fair Grounds in the near future, to provide for the best Agricultural Exhibitions in America.

The success of the State Fair is the true index of the prosperity of the country, and all indications point to an improvement on all former efforts. No limits for competition. If there is any better stock or machinery than we have we want to see it.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for October makes us marvel more than ever how so beautiful a monthly can be published for so low a price. The principal engraving on steel, "The Star of the Night," is a portrait of one of the loveliest of women, and looks as if painted from life. There are two colored patterns in embroidery; a mammoth colored fashion-plate; a story profusely illustrated; and some fifty wood-cuts of fashions, work-table patterns, etc., etc. The powerful novelet by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, which has awakened such interest all the year, grows more absorbing as it approaches the close. "Joseph Allen's Wife" has one of her unrivaled humorous sketches; Frank Lee Benedict begins a new novelet; and there is a little sketch, "That Horrid Dress," which every lady ought to insist on her husband reading. But enough; the rest thing to do is to write for a specimen of "Peterson," which will be sent gratis, and compare it with others, when you will be certain to subscribe, or get up a club, for 1886. Now is the time for this.—The price of this "lady's favorite" is but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs. Address CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A SURE CURE FOR A FELON.—Take a common sized lemon and divide it into two equal parts; insert the end of the finger in one of these pieces and let it remain there until the juice is nearly extracted. If it is no better renew the application until a cure is effected.—Two or three lemons will always be sufficient.
