A. J. Kittering, for taking Treat Durant's cow, was on Wednesday last given two years in the prison North.

A remarkable fact connected with the death of Mrs. N. E. Spitzer, and one well calculated to strike the imagination of the superstitious, is given us by a member of the family. At the instant she breathed her last, an attendant stepped into an adjoining room, to note the exact time of the death, and upon looking at the clock, found it just coming to a stop. It was not run down, nor was it at all in the habit of stopping without cause in that manner.—Republican.

Fendig has just received a superb lot of Boots and Shoes which he offers at prices to suit the times.

Consumptives and all, who suffer from any affection of the Throat and Lungs, can find a certain cure in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Thousands of permanent cures verify the truth of the statement. No medicine can show such a record of wonderful cures. Thousands of once hopeless sufferers now gratefully proclaim they owe their lives to this New Discovery. It will cost you nothing to give it a trial. Free Trial Bottles at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store. Large size $1.00 Aug. 29-2

NOTICE.—All persons indebted to me by note or book account: will accommodate me and themselves also by calling and arranging the same by 1st of January, 1886, as my business will not admit of further extension. Thanking you for your trade, I ask you kindly to pay your account now.

J. H. L. Eager, Special Examiner, U. S. Pension Bureau, whom we well knew in the days of Auld Lang Syne, in our native home, and whom we had not met for 29 years, made us a very welcome call, Tuesday. He was on his way to Morocco, looking after a fraudulent pension claimant.

Mrs. Nannie E. Spitzer, widow of Thomas J. Spitzer, and one of the best known ladies of Rensselaer, died at her residence, on Culen street, in this place, last Saturday night. The cause of death was bronchial catarrh. She had been sick for about three weeks, but it was not generally known that her condition was dangerous until a very short time before the end. Her age was 48 years, 6 months and 24 days. She leaves four children, the youngest a daughter aged 15. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the residence, and was largely attended. The Rev. B. F. Ferguson conducted the religious services.

The store and restaurant of Abe Sparling has been moved into Malloy's new brick, near the depot.
