The Republican House of Representatives of Ohio, acting on the impulse which actuated that party in 1876, "counted in" 9 Republican representatives who had no more claim than Hayes had to the Presidency.

The list of the committees for the several townships in Jasper county, in the interest of the Hendricks Monument project, will be found in another column. Thro'out the State, and in other States, the people have engaged in the work vigorously. Let Jasper county not lag behind. Keep it steadily in view, that while the fame of Thomas A. Hendricks belongs to the whole country, and he was the people's Vice President, he was an Indianan. Go to work.

The New York World of January 12th has a double headed dispatch on the silver question, from Washington, supposed to be from the pen of Mr. Pulitzer. The dispatch contains the following significant sentences:

"There is no chance for the suspension of silver coinage by the present Congress. It is useless for the financiers of the East to cherish the delusive hope. The real facts of the situation may as well be recognized. All the speculation about the composition of the Committee on Coinage is secondary. It will make little difference what the committee may do. The House itself is strongly against the suspension of coinage. The probabilities are that when Congress adjourns next August the situation will be precisely the same as it is to-day. All the agitation of the question in the interval, whether in Congress or out, will be without avail. The chances of a free coinage bill being pushed through the House are greater than the chances of the suspension of the present coinage. Such a bill would, of course, be vetoed by the President, and that would leave matters just as they are."

He adds further that the question is not sectional. Pennsylvania is divided. A careful canvass of the House leaves no doubt that one-third of the Republican members and two-thirds of the Democrats will vote against suspension, securing a majority of sixty in favor of the continued coinage of silver. Only eight comparatively small States in the East and North-east want suspension.

DEATH OF JUDGE HUFF.—Judge Samuel A. Huff was in attendance on the Jasper Circuit Court at the beginning of the term, last week, and returned to his home, in Monticello, Thursday, Jan. 8th. That night he retired as usual in apparent good health, and as was his custom, spent some time reading in bed with the lamp on the stand by his bed side. The next morning when called he gave no answer, and the family upon entering his room found him unconscious. The lamp burning brightly, his magazine from which he had been reading, lying upon the floor with one cover torn off, and his glasses upon the bed by his side. He never regained consciousness, and in spite of all that medical aid could do, sank steadily until death ended his earthly pilgrimage. His age was 74 years, 2 months and 24 days. In another column we publish resolutions of respect adopted at a meeting of the Rensselaer Bar.

The Remington News says: It is rumored that Bro. Marshall of the Rensselaer Republican will soon be treated to the luxury of a libel suit.

It is a notorious fact that Leopold gives greater bargains than any other house in town. Call and examine for yourself.

From the remarks of our neighbor on the strictures of critic, it is evident E. C. Nowels disturbs his dreams.

Buy the best of Fruit Trees, and in doing so leave your orders with "Turkey Joe". Satisfaction guaranteed.

F. Priest, at the Chicago Grocery, wants a chance at your Butter, Eggs, and country produce generally. Farmers, give him a call.

The chairman of the different Township Committees will be furnished with a book in which to record the names and amounts given by citizens of the townships, which names and amounts will be reported to headquarters, at Indianapolis, unless where desired that the credits be given to townships instead of individuals. The different township committees will report on or before the first Monday of March, 1886, to J. H. Loughridge, Chairman of County Committee.
J. H. LOUGHRIDGE,
E. P. HAMMOND,
E. C. NOWELS,
Committee.

It is evident that Leopold means business, and everybody would do well to avail themselves of this oppor unity of saving 25 per cent. on all goods sold by him.
