Tremendous crash in Dry Goods and Notions at the New Store next to Farmers Bank.

Ohio is the only State whose visiting statesmen took lessons from the Louisiana factionists and adopted their methods.

If you want to save Nickels, Dimes, or Dollars, go to the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank, for your Dry Goods and Notions.

Republican Senators are not grieving much over their inability to compel the President to explain his removals. The only one that they have asked about specifically was explained in a way that made them sick. The fellow had tried to keep his place by pretending to have been a Democrat all his life.

A good pair Blankets for $1 15, at the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank.

Monticello Herald: J. W. McEwen of the Sentinel, called Tuesday. Mac will probably affix "P. M." to his title after the middle of next February. We hope so.

Good Canton Flannel for 4c. a yard, at the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank.

And now the Wabash Plaindealer attacks General Jas. C. Black Commissioner of Pensions, for drawing a pension of $100 a month. General Black is a badly crippled Democratic soldier.

At the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank, you get—

Good — Muslin for 5c. a yd.
" Calico " 3c. "
Best indigo blue Calico 6c. "
Good Toweling 4c. "
Best " 6c. "
Good Table Linen 22c. "
Best " 42c. "

James S. Taylor, postmaster at Reece, Michigan, was recently arrested for stealing registered letters and engaging in a swindling enterprise to rob the public. The Senate won't demand of the President his reasons for turning that rascal out.

Only 15 days for bargains in Dry Goods and Notions, at the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank.

Gen. Wm. H. Irwin, formerly of Lewistown, Pa., whom we mentioned some weeks ago as having become insane, died at Louisville, Ky., last Sunday. The deceased was a soldier in the Mexican and the late civil war.

Dress Goods and Silks are almost given away, at the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank.

A PHILADELPHIA RECORD FABLE.—A Workingman who had found great difficulty in keeping the Wolf from the Door was at last Seized with a brilliant Idea—grasping the Wolf by the Ears he lugged the infuriated Animal into the House and Dispatched it, finding a refreshing meal in its Flesh, while he dressed his Children with the Spoils of its Hide.

Moral—This Fable teaches the Workingman that he can Do Something Useful if He only has Free Raw Material.

If you need a new Cloak or Shawl go to the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank. You will find them at prices never before heard of in this State.

D. F. Yeoman started last week for Greensburg, Edwards county, Kansas. L. K. Yeoman and C. W. Lowman will offer their personal property at public sale next Thursday, and will soon thereafter take their departure for the same neighborhood.

Underwear and Hosiery at your own prices, at the New Store next to the Farmers Bank.

Meetings are being held nightly at the M. E. church with good attendance and interest.

Before buying your Dry Goods go to the New Store, next to the Farmers Bank. You will find a saving of 15 per cent.

When you have spilled anything on the stove, or milk has boiled over, and a suffocating smoke escapes, sprinkle the spot with a quantity of salt; this will stop it.

CENTRAL OFFICE—Connect me with the New Store next to the Farmers Bank:

"Hello! Is that you, Mr. Loeb?"

"Yes, madam."

"How do you sell Prints and Cotton Flannels?"

"Prints at 4c. Cotton Flannel at 4c."

"Is that all?"

"Yes, Madam."

"Well, I will be down this afternoon. Good-bye."

John Chamberlain has returned to his own property, on River street.

It is a notorious fact that Leopold gives greater bargains than any other house in town. Call and examine for yourself.

A new boy in W. H. Eger's household.

Mrs. Elizabeth Purcupile, State Grand Lectress of the O. E. S., is absent on a lecturing tour. She will visit LaFayette, Terre Haute and several other cities.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Jasper County Agricultural Society, held at the Treasurer's office, in the Court House, Saturday, January 16, 1886, the following named gentlemen were elected officers to serve the ensuing year:

President, D. H. Yeoman; Vice-President, Charles W. Coen; Secretary, Ezra C. Nowels; Treasurer, C. C. Starr; General Superintendent, Thos. J. M. McCoy.

Directors—W. S. Coen, C. W. Coen, B. Paris, Jay Lamson, J. M. Wasson, Val. Seib, H. W. Porter, Addison Parkison, D. H. Yeoman, E. C. Nowels, T. J. McCoy, C. C. Starr.

A Goodland (?) Republican announces, in the Republican this week, S. P. Thompson, as "A Good Man for State Senator," on the Republican ticket. Trot him out.—We have reformers capable of reforming him as readily as Hon. Fred. Hoover reformed your candidate for the same position in the last election for Senator.

From the remarks of our neighbor on the strictures of critic, it is evident E. C. Nowels disturbs his dreams.

The Jordan Township Teachers' Institute met last Saturday at Egypt school house. Every teacher present.

The most complete stock of Dry Goods—new and cheap—at Ralph Fendig's.

Mother Gotton, we learn, is quite ill.

MONON, IND., Jan. 11, 1886.

This is to certify that I this day received Two Thousand Dollars (2000$) of Past Master Workman Noble J. York, Recorder of Rensselaer, Lodge No. 100, Ancient Order of United Workmen, said Lodge located in the town of Rensselaer, County of Jasper, State of Indiana, the above amount (2000$) sent by N. S. Byram, of Indianapolis, Grand Receiver, through the instructions of Grand Master Workman, C. C. Genung, of Evanville, attest by A. B. Salsich, of Terre Haute, Grand Recorder, all officers of the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. of Indiana. The amount paid to me ($2000, not one penny less) in full payment of policy No. 6493 held by my husband, Alonzo Pride, up to the time of his death, in the noble order called Ancient Order of United Workmen. My husband became a member of Rensselaer Lodge No. 100, by initiation, March 24, 1884, died August 19, 1885. May the all wise Father in His infinite wisdom continue to bless this grand order in the future as He has in the past 17 years, dating back to its organization, is the desire of one who ever feels grateful to the members of the Workmen for their goodness to me the widow of their deceased brother, Alonzo Pride.

Yours Most Resp'y,
JULIAETTE PRIDE.

This is to certify that on January 9, 1886, the amount of Two Thousand Dollars (2000) was received by me as agent for the American Express Co., above amount sent by N. S. Byram, of Indianapolis, Grand Receiver A. O. U. W., in care of N. J. York, for Mrs. Juliaette Pride, wife of Alonzo Pride, deceased.

F. F. Priest, at the Chicago Grocery, wants a chance at your Butter, Eggs, and country produce generally. Farmers, give him a call.

Republicans in Jasper county are quite ready to speak of the horde of hungry office-seekers in the Democratic party that are importuning President Cleveland for position, but wherein do Republicans differ, if we are to judge from the number who are now coming to the front for a place on the Jasper county Republican ticket? Already several states have been made and again broken, and many jealousies are being smothered for the time being. At present the following named gentlemen pop up serenely to contest for the positions to which they aspire:

State Senator—S. P. Thompson, Samuel C. Maxwell, R. W. Marshall and M. F. Chilcote.

State Representative—Isaac D. Dunn, Wm. B. Austin and Lemuel Shortridge.

Prosecutor—W. W. Watson.

Auditor—George M. Robinson, Benjamin Farris, John F. Warren and Rial B. Harris.

Treasurer—Samuel R. Nichols, John W. Powell, I. B. Washburn, B. F. Ferguson and W. S. Coen.

Recorder—Thomas Antrim J. Q. Lamborn and H. J. Dexter.

Clerk—James F. Irwin.

Sheriff—Samuel E. Yeoman and Abe Hardy.

All these aspirants to satisfy—and so few positions to fill—it is no wonder that mutterings are heard from those who have heretofore had to take a back seat.—Only one that at present seems to have smooth sailing and a clear coast—Clerk James F. Irwin.

How the antagonisms engendered in the last campaign are to be harmonized is a question of importance to Republican voters and local politicians. The methods followed by certain parties to defeat some of the candidates calls for revenge, and only the opportunity to pay back principal and interest is prayed for. There will no doubt be lively times.

MUGWAMP.

It is evident that Leopold means business, and everybody would do well to avail themselves of this opportunity of saving 25 per cent. on all goods sold by him.

August Makus, of Union township, jumped from a second story window, at the Cotton House, last Sunday morning, breaking both bones of one leg, in two places, below the knee. Drs. Loughridge & Bitters set the broken bones.

Special Invitation!—Everybody is respectfully invited to call and price my goods, and I will guarantee that out of every 25 customers 24 will be bound to buy of me, as I have reduced my entire stock to such prices that they will feel constrained to purchase unless they have money to throw away.—I mean business, and am determined to secure, by the above method, new friends. Do not be misled, but come at once and convince yourselves of the truth of this statement. Very respectfully,
A. LEOPOLD.
