Gov. Gray rests a respite in the Wartner case.

Hon. John G. Thompson, a distinguished Ohio Democrat, died last Wednesday.

Continued illness in our family, and of ourself, has prevented the attention to the paper we desire to give it. We hope to be all right soon.

With what a gracious, patronizing air "Your Brother" approaches his "wheelers" and gives his "taffy" with unstinted hand.

Gen. Hancock, the hero of Gettysburg, died at his residence on Governor's Island, N. Y., on Tuesday last. His death has cast a gloom over the whole country.

That was an affecting sight witnessed on the day of the meeting of the Republican Convention at this place. The affectionate, brotherly manner in which "Your Brother" circulated among the "wheelers," pointing and directing them as to what he desired them to do made him the observed of all observers.

Call for Democratic Convention.

The Democratic voters of Jasper county will meet at their several places of voting, on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27th, 1886, and elect Central Committeemen for their respective Townships for the coming campaign, as follows, to-wit:

Hanging Grove, 3; Gillam, 3; Walker, 3; Barkley, 5; Marion, north precinct, 5, south precinct, 4; Jordan, 4; Newton, 3; Keener, 3; Kankakee, 3; Wheatfield, 3; Carpenter, west precinct, 4, east precinct, 4; Milroy, 3, and Union, 3, who, when so elected, shall meet at the Court House, in Rensselaer, on Saturday, March the 6th, 1886, and complete the organization by electing a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, of the County Central Committee.

The township committees, when elected, will at once choose a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, and shall report the names of the committeemen to James W. Douthitt, Secretary.

The members composing the old Central Committee, and all other Democrats who so desire, will meet in caucus, at the Court House, on the 6th day of March, 1886, at 11 o'clock, a. m., for the transaction of important business, looking to the welfare of the party in the future. Let there be a full attendance.

EZRA C. NOWELS, Chairman.
JAS. W. DOUTHITT, Secretary.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Board of Commissioners of Jasper county, Indiana, will receive sealed bids, until one o'clock p. m. on Friday, March 5th, 1886, for furnishing the offices of said county with Blank Books and Stationery and any other material to be used in the said offices, for a period of one year. The Board reserving the right to reject any or all bids.

GEO. M. ROBINSON, Auditor Jasper County.

Communicated.

Editor Sentinel:—An article in the Republican of 28th January, written by "Your Brother," contains a number of gauzy points, from which I extract:

"I'm glad that you and I have helped, and can help, make our party 'machine' this year." * "Each of us was and is invited as a wheeler, to take a whack at our organization."

The sentiments thus expressed by "Your Brother" is but voicings of the "ring" or "machine" as he is pleased to call it, and is made manifest by the action of the so-called Republican Convention.—The Republican voters of the county assembled in Mass Convention and then deny the rank and file of the party from taking a hand in the selection of a Chairman and Secretary for the Central Committee, is the first step to control Republican politics in the county in favor of those candidates who may be pets of the fifteen who are styled the Republican Central Committee of Jasper county, and led as an aspirant for State Senator desires. If the same influences are to succeed as those that triumphed in the contest for the nomination for Judgeship in 1884, then those who are not in accord with the "machine" must stand aside, and "wait yet a little while longer."

"Ingenious election frauds are born of this party," &c.

To what does "Your Brother" refer? If he refers to the Republican tickets put in circulation with a view to defeat Judge Ward, I think, if the trouble should be taken to ascertain the facts, these would be traced to Republicans opposed to "machine" methods. If he refers to the opening and counting of the returns in one of the townships, in the absence of the inspector, then the "ingenious election frauds" are brought home to the "machine."

"Sly tricks will be played, bold bold ones will follow."

How this rings in the ears of honest Republicans. Are the schemes of 1884, that were worked in Benton and Newton counties that snatched the nomination for Judge from M. F. Chilcote, to be re-nacted in this county in the coming campaign?

"There is a hunger and a thirst after the local offices in this county."

Yes, already many are coming to the front and asking to be recognized on account of party service, but who of the man will be called by the "machine" to be the standard-bearers of this party is yet to be seen, and those who are not called will wish, as "Your Brother" says, that they had died a bornin.

Put aside "machine" politics, be fair with the voters, and the Republican party will give its old time majorities—otherwise, not.

A REPUBLICAN.

It is a notorious fact that Leopold gives greater bargains than any other house in town. Call and examine for yourself.

Maud, The Guerrilla.

All in all it is a dramatic effort of much merit—we can safely say the best amateur performance ever witnessed by a Crawfordsville audience—It is a finished production in all its parts. It bristles with startling situations, enlivened with just enough of the ludicrous to balance the tragic and pathetic passages of the play. The dialogues are carefully arranged and preserve the thread of the play without wearying the audience. The situations are perfectly natural and so carefully arranged that they are anticipated. They are adapted to the late war and though thrilling are not overdrawn and do not impress the spectators harshly.—Crawfordsville Review.

The above named play will be produced at the Opera House, on the 19th and 20th of February, by local talent.

By a decision of the Supreme Court, Powell is on top in his fight with the Board of Commissioners.
