

AN OLD PREJUDICE DISAPPEARING.

Women doctors are so numerous now that the prejudice against them has long since died out. There are several in the United States, it is said, who enjoy an annual income of $20,000 and over, and a practice worth $5,000 a year is common. They have reached their present honorable position by hard and conscientious work, and all they receive is well earned. Medical colleges for women are now established in all the large cities, and the graduates from them number several hundred every year. Among the women doctors of Illinois is Miss Addie M. Barnes, of Danville, who recently moved to that city from Lafayette, Ind. She has recently had herself as a patient, and how she was successful in working a cure she tells as follows:

"I had a very stubborn case of sciatica and had been confined to my bed for three weeks. I had blistered the limb and used all kinds of liniments to no purpose. Rev. Dr. Buchtel told me of the wonderful remedy, Athlophoros. Our druggist sent for it and I bought two bottles of it. Before I had taken three doses I was able to get out of bed and sit up for two hours. In three days I went down the street. I believe that had I persevered with the remedy the cure would have been permanent. However, I have never been such a sufferer since. I keep Athlophoros in my office and often tell patients of the great relief it gave me, and recommend it."

E. K. Mercer, proprietor of the Princeton (Ill.) Tribune, says of Athlophoros:

"It is a good medicine and did me more good than did half a dozen doctors."

Mr. John H. Hutzel, proprietor of the West Side Pavilion, No. 678 West Indiana street, Chicago, who had been a victim of rheumatism, says:

"I never had a severe case of sickness before this rheumatism came on me, and I would just remark right here that I never want another such. When it first made its appearance I consulted a physician, but his medicine made me worse. I then went to St. Joseph's Hospital. After being there some time and getting no relief, I went back home. After being at home a few days, I heard about Athlophoros and decided to try it myself. I came from the hospital on the 3d of July. Two days after that I was unable to walk or sleep at night. I was in this condition when I commenced with the Athlophoros on the 7th inst., and by the 15th of the month I was well. You can see by my book, I have an exact record of the dates of the time I commenced using and when I was well."

"How long were you sick, Mr. Hutzel?"

"For five weeks I was confined to my bed, during which time I lost twenty-three pounds of flesh."

"How much did you use to effect this cure?"

"Two bottles did the work, and I have not felt any pain or return of the disease since."

"Have you known of any others that have used Athlophoros?"

"Yes; the lady that recommended it to me said she knew of an old chronic case of twenty years' standing that had been cured by the use of Athlophoros. I have had many persons that knew how I had been afflicted and suffered inquire what cured me. I am always glad to be able to say that Athlophoros is the sovereign remedy for rheumatism."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it of your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall street, New York.

The Same, Only Different.

A young man, dabbling in real estate and known financially quite well by Phil Armour, went into that gentleman's office lately.

"I've hit on a great chance to invest in a piece of property that will double in value in a year," he said, excitedly.

"Yes," replied Mr. A. quietly.

"House and lot, dirt cheap, on Grand Boulevard."

"Yes," responded Phil again.

"Owner caught in the market and forced to sell."

"Yes."

"Nobody knows anything about the chance but me."

"Yes."

"All I need is enough to bind the bargain."

"Yes."

"Could you let me have a thousand?"

"Yes."

"That's good."

"Yes."

"When can I get it?"

"Not at all. I said I could let you have it, but I didn't say I would. Better get and see somebody else. Good-by."

Queer Old Hymns.

We stumbled a while ago, says the Christian Advocate, on the following in one of Newton's hymns:

The kind unguived went
By the directed road,
When the Philistines homeward sent
The ark of Israel's God.

Loving, they passed along,
And left their calves shut up;
They felt an interest for their young,
But would not turn nor stop.

This is worthy to be remembered with Isaac Watt's verse:

He spake, and straight our hearts and brains
With all their motions rose;
Let blood the said flow round the veins,
And round the veins it flows.

It was an old Oriental doctrine that women have no souls. More enlightened philosophy concedes that they have purer, finer, more exalted souls than men. But they are too often contained in feeble, suffering bodies, which hamper and retard their full development. For all those painful ailments incident to the sex, Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is the best specific in the world, and is sold under a positive guarantee that it will do all that is claimed for it. Price reduced to one dollar. By druggists.

They'll Never Be Missed.

The brainy person who knows it all. The woman who wears an eclipse hat to the opera.

The man who is jealous of his neighbor's success.

The man who throws ashes and paper into the street.

The croaker who is always complaining of hard times.

The practical joker who gets wrothy when the joke is on himself.

The man who borrows his neighbor's paper before the neighbor has used it.

The long-nosed individual who busies himself with the affairs of other people.

The person who had friends and money and made no Christmas presents.

The bigot who forms his own opinion and demands that others coincide with him.

A bass singer ought to preserve the even tenor of his ways.

To Spur a Jaded Appetite

Is one thing, to invigorate and regulate the digestive organs is another. And yet mere appetizers are constantly mistaken for and are even termed tonics. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is on a far higher plane in the category of medical preparations than the so-called tonics which impart a relish for the food. These have their use, and are estimable, provided they be pure. But the scope of the remedial operation of the Bitters is far wider. It reforms enfeebled condition of the stomach, and purifies its juices, if vitiated, as well as promotes their secretion in healthful abundance. The stomach having, in conjunction with the liver and the bowels, been regulated, and their natural tone restored through its agency, appetite returns, as a matter of course. Fever and ague, poverty of the blood, and consequent debility, rheumatic ailments, and a tendency to kidney and bladder troubles, are also remedied by it.

The Great German Physician.

The remarkable phase in the practice of Dr. Peter W. Schmidt (frequently called Dr. Pete), he never asked one to describe their disease but tell each one their trouble without asking a question. His success is phenomenal. His practice enormous. He is sought after by hundreds wherever he goes, because he cures when every other physician and remedy have failed. He has allowed his great medicines, Golden Seal Bitters and Lung Food for Consumption, to be offered to the suffering, and we assert without fear of successful contradiction that there is no disease they will not cure. Thousands of bottles have been sold. Thousands of broken-down and discouraged invalids saved. Send to Golden Seal Bitters Company, Holland City, Mich., for facts for the Million! Price.

A Cure of Pneumonia.

Mr. D. H. Barnaby, of Owego, N. Y., says that his daughter was taken with a violent cold which terminated with Pneumonia, and all the best physicians gave the case up and said she could live but a few hours at most. She was in this condition when a friend recommended DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and advised her to try it. She accepted it as a last resort, and was surprised to find that it produced a marked change for the better, and by persevering a permanent cure was effected.

at the raising of blood from the lungs. It is one of the very earliest symptoms of consumption, and only shows the healthy efforts of the system to throw off the serious impurities of the blood which have been used in ulceration of the lungs. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a positive remedy for consumption at this stage. If taken faithfully, it will cleanse the blood, heal the ulcers in the lungs, and build up and renovate the whole system.
