

FRIDAY APRIL 9, 1886.

RENSSELAER THE TABLE

PASSENGER TRAINS.

NORTH.	SOUTH.
4:51 A. M.	10:48 A. M.
4:03 " "	11:11 P. M.
4:18 P. M.	10:47 "

We have bought Mr. Farden's stock at such figures as to enable us to sell at his closing-out prices. Hemphill & Honan.

WILLIS J. WRIGHT, an aged and highly esteemed resident of Rensselaer, after a short illness, died at his home on Tuesday last, in the 72d year of his age.

"Uncle Willis" was for many, many years a resident of Rensselaer, and the vast assemblage that followed his remains to the tomb on yesterday, was an indication of the respect and esteem in which he was held by his fellow citizens.

Selling all our Dry Goods at cost to close them out. Come and get a bargain. Hemphill & H.

We will next week publish a list of the Township Trustees and Assessors successful at the late election.

The result of last Monday's election does not change the political complexion of the Board of Township Trustees.

It is a pity that there are not a few Grover Clevelands scattered throughout the country in the capacity of Governors of States.

Wils Porter is not at all satisfied with the war record manufactured for him by our friend George. We understand he has directed his children to point the finger of scorn at our neighbor.

During a religious revival at Milford, Pa., a fashionable summer resort, the daughter of a miserable drunkard became interested and was a regular attendant. The ladies have now notified her that she must dress in better style or discontinue her attendance.

"The Sentinel knows that the fee books in the Clerk's office will show that during the incumbency of said Democratic Clerk, that paper received at least half of the printing referred to."—Rensselaer Republican.

How natural for a Republican editor to lie. The very reverse is the fact.

An old soldier writing from Washington City, D. C., under date of March 24th, 1886, to the Cincinnati Enquirer, says: "My attention having been called to several paragraphs in the papers in regard to the amount of work performed by Messrs. Harrison, Logan and Holman for the gallant soldiers of our country, I beg leave to state that I have been in a position for years to know that there are others who should wear the laurels claimed by those mentioned above. I can assert positively that the Hon. D. W. Voorhees has presented more claims for our soldiers than any five Senators and Congressmen of the present Congress. On Tuesday, the 2d of March, he presented fifty-three claims for pensions, all from Dearborn county, Ind. If there are any that can show as good a record in behalf of the soldiers, let him step to the front and make himself known."

WHEREAS, a conspiracy has been formed by the coal-carrying companies to limit the supply of anthracite coal, and thereby maintain prices against consumers; therefore be it resolved, that the duty of seventy-five cents a ton on coal be and is hereby repealed.—[Philad. Iphia Record.]

The Indianapolis News (Republican) adds: That is very much to the point. The first blow to be struck at these coal monopolists who decree how much, or rather how little, coal shall be taken out of the ground, and thus enforce idleness upon the miners (last year they averaged in Pennsylvania 110 idle days), and compel the people of the country to pay extortionate prices for coal, is to break down this fine of 75 cents a ton, which the law exacts of everybody who buys coal of anybody except this millionaire monopolistic coal pool. The ten coal barons who thus protected, met at Mr. Pierrepont Morgan's New York palace the other night and sent forth the decree spoken, represent individually, according to figures in the New York World, wealth to the amount of $30,000,000, and as heads of corporations which enforce their decree, represent wealth to the amount of $658,000,000.—

These things can be, and yet we hear the twaddle that there is no such thing as a conflict between capital and labor in free America. This sort of thing causes great fatigue.

In a Hopeless Minority.

Among the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's many accomplishments not the least is his ability as a story-teller. To much amused listeners he recently told this one about a New York drummer. A typical "knight of the gripsack" was detained at a small town in western New York awhile ago, where a revival meeting was in progress. He had met a party of convivial friends during his stay there, and had what is popularly known as "a load on." Nevertheless he drifted into the revival meeting and took a seat well up in front. It was rather close in the church, and the warm air was conducive to sleep. The drummer yielded to the drowsy god, and after nodding a little sank into a profound slumber and slept through the minister's rather long and dry discourse. The audience sung a hymn and the drummer slept on. Then the evangelist began his address, and wound up his fervid appeal with this request:

"Will all of you who want to go to heaven please rise up."

Every one in the church except the sleepy drummer arose. When the evangelist asked them to be seated, one of the brothers in the same pew as the sleeping drummer, accidentally brushed against him as he sat down. The drummer rubbed his eyes, and partially awake, heard the last portion of the evangelist's request, which was:

"Now I want all of you who want to go to hell to stand up."

The drummer struggled a little, leaned forward unsteadily and rose from his seat in a jaded sort of a way. A sort of suppressed laugh he heard from some of the younger people, and an expression of horror he noticed on the faces of some of the older ones. Steadying himself against the rail he looked at the evangelist an instant, and then said:

"Well, parson, I don't know just exactly what we are voting on, but you and I seem to be in a hopeless minority."

Matt Mitchell Boone died at the residence of his uncle, R. F. Priest, in Rensselaer, on Tuesday last, in the 9th year of his age. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Priest, Rev. B. F. Ferguson officiating.

Mrs. Boone is a sister of Mrs. Priest, and has been visiting at this place for a number of weeks. Mr. Boone, located in a telegraph office in Memphis, Tennessee, reached Rensselaer but a few hours before the death of his child.

Ladies, we have secured a first-class milliner for the coming season of 1886, Mrs. Carrie Phelps of Chicago, who is a first-class artist. Come and examine goods and work before purchasing elsewhere.

Hemphill & Honan.

WALKER ITEMS.

Democracy in the ascendancy. At the town meeting in this township yesterday the best of order and good feeling prevailed, and resulted as follows:

Frederick S. Meiser, Democratic candidate for Trustee, was elected over W. Stockwell, by 6 majority.

James W. Spriggs the Democratic candidate for Assessor was elected over W. Kennedy by twenty-seven majority.

Albert Lumes, the Republican candidate for Justice of the Peace, was elected over Rhoads by one majority; and probably both Republican candidates for Constable were elected—cannot give their majorities at this writing.

There was, we believe, 112 votes polled. Meiser received fifty-eight; W. Stockwell fifty-two; Joseph Tanner one; James W. Spriggs sixty-nine; W. Kennedy forty-two; Albert Lumes fifty-two; Rhoads fifty-one; John F. Pettit sixty-four. We cannot give the number of votes McNeil, the other Republican candidate for constable, received.

OLD HARD SHELL.

BLACKFORD ITEMS.

Roads very bad.

Business is brisk in our little town.

There has been very little farm-work done in this township this spring.

Mr. J. Arnold, of Wabash, was visiting his father, A. Arnold, last Saturday and Sunday.

S. B. Jenkins was so unfortunate as to lose a valuable horse last week.

There is talk of a new postmaster at this place in the near future.

Mr. William Pullins is suffering greatly from a cut foot which, it is feared, will result seriously.

J. J. Burns has built a large shed in accordance with his desire to have ample room for his large amount of machinery.

The old time amusement of "swinging on the front gate" is being revived a little too early, as the danger of late frosts is not yet past.

Garden making is in fair play now among the ladies of our community, and all they seem to want is plenty of good seeds, moist earth and two or three favorable signs.

One of the happiest men to be found anywhere is A. H. Arnold, and all because there came to his home a few days ago a bouncing girl, and Andrew now sleeps a smilin'.

John Frazee is building a very neat barn on his farm, one-and-a-half miles south of this city. Geo. Andrews and son are doing the work.

George Reed's smiles are as bland and bright as the bottom of a new dish-pan—all on account of a boy.

Quite a polar wave swept over Nubbin Judge to-day.

Frank Goff now sleeps without snoring because he is the father of another boy. "OLD MOSSY."

April 6th, 1886.

Miraculous Escape.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Hanover, Ind., Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six month's time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottles at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.

State of Indiana, ss: Before Elias Marion, Justice of the Peace. Samuel G. Potts, Suit on note.

Silas Potts.

NOW comes the plaintiff in his own proper person and files his complaint herein, with an affidavit and undertaking in attachment, together with an affidavit that said defendant Potts is not a resident of the State of Indiana, and that this cause of action is founded on and connected with a contract, and that the object is to enforce the collection of demand by proceeding in attachment and garnishment.

There is therefore hereby given said defendant, Silas Potts, that unless he be and appear on the twenty-fourth day of April, 1886, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the afternoon, at my office in said County and State, and answer or demur to said complaint, the same will be heard and disposed of in his absence.

Witness my hand and seal this 17th day of March, A. D. 1886.

ELIAS MARION, Justice of the Peace.

March 28, 1886—$.

Since Leopold reduced prices on all his Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes below all competition, his goods go off like hot cakes.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE.

NOTICE is hereby given to the creditors, heirs and legatees of Eliza Fowler, deceased, to appear in the Jasper Circuit Court, held at Rensselaer, Indiana, on the 17th day of June, 1886, and show cause if any, why the final settlement of her estate should not be approved; and said heirs are notified to then and there make proof of their relationship to the deceased. Witness the Clerk of said Court, this 18th day of March, 1886.

JAMES F. IRWIN, Clerk, Jasper Circuit Court.

March 30, 1886—$5.

SEAL.

E. L. QUIVEY,

DENTIST,

WM. W. WATSON,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Office up Stairs, in Hemphill Building.

RENSSELAER, IND.

E. L. QUIVEY,

DENTIST,

Special attention given to the preservation of the natural teeth. Artificial teeth inserted from one to all entire set. ALL WORK WARRANTED.

Office over Warner's Hardware Store, Rensselaer, Ind.

RENSSELAER, IND.

M. B. ALTER,

Physician and Surgeon.

Office up stairs, in the Hemphill building.

Dec. 11, 1885. Rensselaer, Ind.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the Jasper Circuit Court Administrator of the Estate of Nannie H. Spiller, deceased, late of said county. Said estate is supposed to be solvent.

January 15, 1886.

EZRA L. CLARK.

JOHN MAKEEVER, President.

JAY WILLIAMS, Cashier

FARMERS' BANK,

Opposite Public Square, Rensselaer, Indiana.

Receive Deposits. Buy and Sell Exchange.

Collections made and promptly remitted. Money Lent. Do a general Banking Business.

August 17, 1885.

HUFTY HOUSE

MOUNT AYR, IND.,

G. G. HUFTY, Proprietor

Board $3 50 per week. Transient $1 per day.

A. L. WILLIS,

Gun & Locksmith, (Shop on River bank, south of School House, Rensselaer, Ind.)

All kinds of Iron and Wood turning, and fine work in Iron, Steel and Brass, on short notice, and at reasonable rates. Give me a call. v540

IRA W. YEOMAN,

Attorney at Law,

NOTARY PUBLIC,

Real Estate and Collecting Agent.

Will practice in all the Courts of Newton, Benton and Jasper counties.

Office—Up-stairs, over Murray's City Drug Store, Goodland, Indiana.

THE NEW

MAKEEVER HOUSE,

Rensselaer, Ind.

J. U. OPENED. New and finely furnished—Cool and pleasant rooms. Table furnished with the best the market affords. Good Sample Rooms on first floor. Free Bus to and from Depot.

PHILIP B. BUE, Proprietor.

Rensselaer, May 11, 1886.

LEAR HOUSE,

J. H. LEAR, Proprietor,

Opposite Court House, Monticello, Ind.

Has recently been new furnished throughout. The rooms are large and airy, the location central, making it the most convenient and desirable house in town. Try it.

THE CHICAGO COTTAGE ORGAN

Has attained a standard of excellence which admits of no superior.

It contains every improvement that inventive genius, skill and money can produce.

EVERY ORGAN WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

These excellent Organs are celebrated for volume, quality of tone, quick response, variety of combination, artistic design, beauty in finish, perfect construction, making them the most attractive, ornamental and desirable organs for homes, schools, churches, lodges, societies, etc.

ESTABLISHED REPUTATION, UNEQUALLED FACILITIES, SKILLED WORKMEN, BEST MATERIAL, COMBINED, MAKE THIS