Pullitzer, of the N. Y. World, has resigned his seat in Congress. Interference with his editorial duties is the reason assigned.

Capt. McGrath, a Republican, for the past nine years superintendent of mails in Chicago, has been removed, and the Republicans, as usual, squirm and kick t ereat.

The Republican administrations have been very considerate of the interests of manufacturing monopolies, in placing a high tariff on products, on the plea of protecting home industry, and again in refusing to impose a tariff on the importation of cheap labor to compete with our home laborers in their struggles to earn a livelihood.

Selling all our Dry Goods at cost to close them out. Come and get a bargain. Hemphill & H.

The members of the Twentieth Indiana Regiment are making arrangements for a grand re-union at Logansport, on July 1st and 2d, for the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg.

FEDERAL COURT GRAND JURORS.—The following Grand Jurors for the May term of the Federal Court have been drawn by the commissioners: George H. Brown, Rensselaer; Samuel Corey, Oaklandon; James Dalrymple, Salesburg; Joel Dillon, Arny; J. M. Goar, Richmond; Rufus Gale, Faulmer; J. D. Kesler, Prairie Creek; T. B. Loer, New Castle; E. S. Owen, Worthington; Robert Parker, Remington; Elias Phelps, Cadiz; John Ritter, Freedom; S. D. Riggs, Medarysville; W. R. Roberts, Lebanon; Hensley Simmons, Terre Haute; Adam Schmall, Crown Point; Andrew Lewis, Hillman; Alfred Thompson, Rensselaer; B. F. Tucker, Lafayette; Andrew Willets, Greentown; Andrew Wiseman, Terre Haute; G. Z. Yachacoll, Colburn; J. E. Zigler, Union Mills. It will be seen that Jasper county is called upon to furnish three members for the Federal Court Grand Jury.

TARIFF REDUCTION.—Mr. Morrison has introduced a bill in the House for the partial emancipation of the business and industry of this country from the thrall of a monopoly tariff.

The bill adds many raw materials to the free list and is expected to reduce the revenue by about $24,000,000 a year, which is now the extent of the surplus. Money taken from the people, not required by the government for legitimate expenditures is generally wasted and not infrequently spent for corrupt purposes.

The republican members of Congress will no doubt be arrayed in opposition to the reduction of taxation proposed in this bill on the false assumption that it will operate disastrously on "home industry." As many items of raw material are comprised in it, the cloak under which they seek cover will be easily removed by the people. Pass the bill.

T. J. Farden is visiting friends in Warren county.

SMALL REQUITAL FOR GREAT SERVICE.—The great War Governor, Mr. Curtin, publicly declared, on the day that General Hancock was buried, that if he had been wounded an hour earlier in the memorable battle of Gettysburg the battle would have been won by General Lee instead of by General Meade. No one is more familiar with the real history of Gettysburg than ex-Governor Curtin; and when he said, in effect, that it was General Hancock who saved Pennsylvania from being overrun and Philadelphia from being looted by Lee's Confederate troops, he declared the truth of history.—The State and city from which General Hancock drove back the hungry invading forces of the Confederacy should have enough gratitude and dignity to care for the widow of the great soldier who stood between them and their enemies. The fund for the relief of Mrs. Hancock, the first contribution to which was made in this city, is still exceedingly small in amount. It should be unnecessary to say that it becomes Philadelphia to make it adequate, and do it promptly.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Ladies, we have secured a first-class milliner for the coming season of 1886, Mrs. Carrie Phelps of Chicago, who is a first-class artist. Come and examine goods and work before purchasing elsewhere. Hemphill & Honan.

Miraculous Escape.
W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Haronia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottles at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.
