Judge Turpie's Appointment.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Nothing has occurred since the 4th of March, 1885, giving the Democrats of the country larger satisfaction than the appointment Judge Turpie has received. His acceptance evidences that the office is agreeable—suited to his taste. Judge Turpie would carry to any office within the gift of the President more than enough talents to perform its duties. This is widely understood, as the President has been informed.

Mr. Cleveland asked Senator Voorhees: "Who is Judge Turpie?" "A citizen of Indiana," was the reply, "to whom I feel like apologizing every time we meet."

"Why?" "For the reason that I am in the Senate of the United States and he is not."

On the occasion of Mr. Hendricks' last visit to this city your correspondent, in the company of Senator Voorhees, was in his room at the Willard one evening. The conversation drifting upon political opinion, reference was incidentally made to Judge Turpie.

"You know what a wonderfully logical mind Judge Turpie has," observed Mr. Hendricks. "Yes," answered Mr. Voorhees, "a mind equally logical is not at present in the Senate."

Mr. Hendricks then proceeded to give the substance of an opinion on the rules of civil service reform that he had secured from Judge Turpie.

Colonel John S. Williams has written concerning the excellent influence the appointment must have upon the party.

Meeting Internal Revenue Collector Miller at the west door of the Treasury Department last evening, he extended his hand in congratulation and said: "The recognition of your fellow-citizen, Judge Turpie, is an honor to all connected with President Cleveland's administration."—Indianapolis Sentinel Special.

Charles F. Shroyer, stone-mason offers his services to all needing work in his line. Workmanship guaranteed. Charges reasonable. Orders addressed to him at either Rensselaer or Blackford will receive prompt attention.

The Monon management are again talking very positively about moving their shops from New Albany to some more central location, and there is but little reason to doubt that the removal will soon be definitely decided upon. Crawfordsville and Lafayette are again exerting themselves to make the best offers for the shops, and the former city is said to have offered a large tract of land and a bonus of $60,000 for the works. The railroad editor of the Indianapolis Journal inclines to the opinion that neither Lafayette nor Crawfordsville are likely to get these shops, and that our neighboring town of Monon will come out ahead of her big rivals, in the end. The Journal says:

"The rumor is revived that the L. N. A. & C. company is to build new shops, and the good people of Lafayette are again on the alert to secure them. The only objection to Lafayette securing the new shops is the fact they are not really on the L. N. A. & C. main line. The Indianapolis or Air-line division is the portion of the system that is coming rapidly to the front, and gives promise of being the big paying portion of the road. Therefore, it is quite likely that the management will, when they build shops, locate them at Monon."

Special Invitation!—Everybody is respectfully invited to call and price my goods, and I will guarantee that out of every 25 customers 24 will be bound to buy of me, as I have reduced my entire stock to such prices that they will feel constrained to purchase unless they have money to throw away.—I mean business, and am determined to secure, by the above method, new friends. Do not be misled, but come at once and convince yourselves of the truth of this statement. Very respectfully,
A. LEOPOLD.

For extensive variety, quality of goods, and low prices, Ralph Fendig defies competition.
