FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 3 1886.

SCHOOL BOOKS at the post-office.

Jasper County Fair at Rensselaer, Sept. 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th.

Buy your school books at the post-office.

The Jasper County Fair will hold its annual session at Rensselaer, week after next.

Commissioners' Court, September Term, will convene next Monday.

Open for inspection—Our large stock of clothing from the eastern cities.

Mrs. W. P. Green and daughter Maud returned to their home in Rensselaer Saturday evening last.

You will find the Book Store of Rensselaer at the vest-office. Buy your school books there. Cheap! Cheap!

W. H. Henkle, of Greensburg, Kansas, is visiting relatives and friends in Jasper county.

EVERYBODY should buy their school books at the Rensselaer Book Store, which is at the post-office.

C. R. Benjamin expects soon to take a health trip to North Carolina.

SPECIAL NOTICE!—I desire to notify all persons interested that on Friday, Sept. 10th, 1886, I will close my cider mill, and from and after that date will make no more cider, under any circumstances.

A. L. WILLIS.

When in attendance on the Fair next week call in and examine our fine stock of clothing, boots, shoes and notions. No trouble to show goods.

RALPH FENDIG.

You can get a bargain in glass and queensware at the "Chicago Fair," in Rensselaer. The proprietor, Mr. Elsner, wishes to make room for a large stock of clothing.

John Healey is assisting the Frankfort Band boys at the Fair at that place.

BARGAINS in school books at the post-office

Misses Hill, Hester and Pym have returned from their vacation visit among friends. The schools will open next Monday.

Mr. Elsner claims that his new store is a counterpart of the Chicago Fair, and invites the people to call and ascertain that fact.

Miss Tillie Fendig is visiting friends in Chicago.

Ralph Fendig has just returned from a purchasing trip to Chicago. In a few days he will open out an extensive and entirely new stock of dry goods, notions, etc., to which he invites the attention of his friends. They will be sold cheap for cash.

Ed. Parsons as established a general wood repair shop, in the old school building.

Special Invitation!—Everybody is respectfully invited to call and price my goods, and I will guarantee that out of every 25 customers 24 will be bound to buy of me, as I have reduced my entire stock to such prices that they will feel constrained to purchase unless they have money to throw away. I mean business, and am determined to secure, by the above method, new friends. Do not be misled, but come at once and convince yourselves of the truth of this statement. Very respectfully,
A. LEOPOLD.

For extensive variety, quality of goods, and low prices, Ralph Fendig defies competition.

John A. Randle, of Rensselaer, and Miss Jennie Hollingsworth, of Remington, were married at the residence of the bride's parents last Tuesday.

LAURA, wife of Mark N. Yeoman, and daughter of Mr. Addison Parkison, after a lingering illness died at the residence of her father, in Rensselaer, on Saturday last, aged 20 years and 2 days. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and a large number of friends followed the remains to their resting place, in Weston cemetery.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Our community was startled yesterday forenoon with the announcement that Mr. WM B. SHAW, an aged and highly esteemed citizen of Barkley township, while engaged in some repairs on a farm gate, was stricken by death. Mr. S. had a large circle of acquaintances in this and adjoining counties who will learn of his demise with regret. His age was about 75 years. The remains will be taken to Battle Ground for interment. The widow has the sympathy of all in this sudden bereavement.

James Jarrell, who cut John Johnson, in a brawl at Remington, over a year ago, was captured last Saturday and is now in jail.

The stock of Boots and Shoes at Fendig's is most complete. In variety, style, finish and price it is unsurpassed. Ralph takes great pleasure in showing his goods.

Application has been made for the admission of George Reed, of Newton township, into the insane asylum.

It is a notorious fact that Leopold gives greater bargains than any other house in town. Call and examine for yourself.

Soldiers re-union at Delphi, September 15, 16 and 17. The people of Delphi are making extensive preparations for it.

M. F. Chilcote, H. E. James and others attended the Republican State Convention at Indianapolis, yesterday.

Henry Eaglesbach has recovered from his illness and is again holding forth at his meat market.

Our neighbor fancies he sees "the familiar earmarks of a certain malicious individual" in an article published in the SENTINEL last week. The "earmarks" are numerous, and abound throughout the district, and some, as instanced in the article referred to—beyond it. The conversation given was undoubtedly "more emphatic than polite," and it was correctly reported. The reading of it was generally followed with the expression—"How true."

THE CHICAGO FAIR!

The undersigned would respectfully announce to the people of Rensselaer and surrounding country that he has just opened out, in the Stockton-Williams Block, 3d door west of the Makeever House, a counterpart of the CHICAGO FAIR, in the complete and extensive variety of standard goods, consisting of Ready-Made Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Chinaware, Glassware, Queensware, Earthenware, Hardware, Tinware, Pocket and Table Cutlery, Lamps in great variety, Notions and Novelties. In prices, too, you will have further evidence that the Chicago Fair has its counterpart located in Rensselaer. Call and see.

WM. ELSNER.

Rensselaer Republican: The people of Jasper county will not endorse a man for county Treasurer who endorsed the school fund reformer by appointing him his deputy. There are democrats who will not do that.

'Tis a poor rule that won't work both ways. The Republican's candidate for Auditor employed the individual referred to as his deputy, and, therefore, on the same principle, there are republicans who will not vote for Mr. Robinson.

If you want good clothing at low figures, call and examine the large stock just opened out at Fendig's. In the matter of supply, variety in styles, quality of goods, and low prices, Fendig can not be surpassed. All are invited to call, examine and ascertain prices, before purchasing elsewhere.

The "surplus" in the treasury came there by reason of an honest administration by a Republican Board of Commissioners. The "surplus" is a good thing to have, is it not?—Rensselaer Republican.

Yes, it "is a good thing to have," and the people will remember that Republican Boards of Commissioners and County Treasurers run affairs in the county for many years past, but that the present Democratic treasurer has been the first to introduce them to a "surplus," and Thompson's opportunities for purchasing county orders at a heavy discount has come to an end. Bro. Marshall, for claims set forth in the above is entitled to credit for cheek equal to that displayed by Mr. Thompson in the preparation of bulletins to the voters of the county.

iraculous Escape.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Haronia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottles at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.6

S. P. Thompson is attending the republican state convention, in Indianapolis, to-day.—Rensselaer Republican.

Mistaken, neighbor. Old "Mental Vigor!" was taking in the races at the Remington Fair.

An Entprising, Reliable House

F. B. Meyer can always be relied upon, not only to carry in stock the best of everything, but to secure the Agency for such articles as may be profitable and are popular with the people, thereby sustaining the reputation of being always enterprising, and ever reliable.
