KENTUCKY FRIED CHICKEN.—After thoroughly washing the chicken drain all the water off; never let chicken soak in water. When you are ready to fry it take a clean towel, lay it on the table, lay the pieces of chicken on it and turn the towel over them so as to soak up all the moisture; then pepper and salt it and dip lightly in flour; fry in lard and use plenty of it; lard is better than butter to fry chicken in. Have your frying pan hot when you put the chicken in, and give it plenty of time to cook; when it is done, if it is not browned evenly set it in the oven a few minutes, take it up as soon as done; never let it stand in the grease. To make the gravy, put a sufficient quantity of flour in the grease to make a thin paste, and stir it until it is perfectly smooth, then put in sweet milk until it is the right consistency; don't get it too thick, and let it boil about five minutes, and season to taste; then pour it over the chicken.
