The M. E. Sabbath school held a picnic Thursday of last week, which report says passed off handsomely and was hugely enjoyed by participants. Thanks are tendered John W. Duvall for conveyances furnished.

Repairing furniture and picture-frame work done to order at Williams & Osborne's, opposite public square.

No man "organized and led a mob to resist the draft, in Blackford county, in the war times," no mob existed in Blackford county, during the war, and no citizen of Blackford county has been appointed, by the present administration to a position in the pension department. Our neighbor of the Republic will find it more creditable to always "tell the truth."

DR. QUIVEY—Dentist—Extracts Teeth without pain. Also does all kinds of Dental work neatly and carefully. Warrants it satisfactory in every respect, and at very reasonable prices.

The managers of the Republican organs of Jasper county are engaged in "thumping" poor old Jeff Davis, who has been deprived of his citizenship by leaders of the radical party—men, who, in outspoken treason only, were his equals; in brains and courage far his inferiors.—The men who, in 1856, in their sectional convention, at Philadelphia, declared if they did not succeed with the ballot, they would with the bullet, but lacked the courage.—The men who were "willing to let the Union slide," who denounced the Constitution, the Union and the flag were no better than Jeff Davis, and their followers hurt them every time they 'thump' the old 'defunct'.

RENSSELAER, IND., May 1st, 1-87. William B. Austin this day withdraws from our firm. The new firm consists of Simon P. Thompson, David J. Thompson and Marion L. Spitzer. Thanking our patrons for past favors, we kindly solicit a continuance of their patronage. THOMPSON & BRO.

Jonathan Peacock and wife, Dr. M. B. and Mrs. Alter, and Miss Rena Peacock are visiting relatives and friends in York State. Before returning they will attend the golden wedding of a brother of Uncle Jonathan, near Lincoln, N. Y.

John Redd, agent for the American Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Elkhart, is located in Rensselaer. This company is organized under the law of 1883 regulating assessment companies, has a large membership, adjusts its losses each month promptly, and is certainly a good investment for those wishing to carry senior insurance.

ANOTHER ART CRAZE.
The latest artwork among ladies is known as the "French Craze," for decorating china, glassware, etc. It is something ENTIRELY NEW, and is both profitable and fascinating. It is very popular in New York, Boston and other Eastern cities. To ladies desiring to learn the Art we will send an elegant china plaque (size 18 inches) handsomely decorated, for a model, together with a box of material, 100 colored designs, assorted in flowers, animals, soldiers, landscapes, etc. complete, with full instructions, upon receipt of only $1.00. The plaque alone is worth more than the amount charged. To every lady ordering this outfit who encloses the address of five other ladies interested in Art matters, to whom we can mail our new catalogue of Art Goods, we will enclose extra and without charge, a beautiful 30 inch gold-tinted plaque. Address THE EMPIRE NEWS CO., Syracuse, N. Y.

Sam. Young, recently editor of the Delphi Journal, who was tried on the charge of forgery at a late term of the White Circuit Court, and acquitted, was the other day, in Delphi, arrested on a similar charge, and required to furnish $1,000 bond to answer at the next term of court. This looks like persecution, and as the case is similar to another on which an attempt was made to hold him for trial, and was so unceremoniously nollied by Judge Winfield, it is probable that it may meet the same fate.

TO EXCHANGE!—Kansas lands in Kingman, Edwards, Wabausas, Harper, and other counties, to trade for Indian Farms and Farming lands. C. P. WRIGHT.
