

Democratic Sentinel

FRIDAY, AUGUST 12 1887

Wm. M. Hoover vacated the Treasurer's Office to-day. He has been a faithful and accommodating official.

The time and labor demanded in printing the premium list for the Jasper County Fair has prevented due attention to the paper this week.

President Cleveland takes the ground that if a Republican, holding office under his administration, blackguards the Democratic party, he must be bounced.

The parties tried in the Federal Court for the tally sheet forgeries (instead of Conspiracy, as indicted) should have been acquitted; but the republican jurymen could not cast aside their politics.

Notwithstanding the funds in the State Treasury is lower by reason of the radical members of the Legislature, the republican State Treasurer the other day gave the pretended Lieutenant Governor over five hundred dollars.

A terrible railway accident occurred on the Toledo, Peoria & Western R.R., Wednesday night. The train was carrying 960 excursionists. When three miles east of Chatsworth City, Ill., it plunged through a burning bridge killing and wounding three or four hundred of the excursionists and employees of the road. It is supposed the bridge was set on fire with the object of robbery.

State Treasurer Lemcke says the general fund in the State treasury is reduced to nothing. The failure of the Republicans in the last Legislature to join the Democrats in devising means to raise revenue has left the finances of the State in a bad state.

It Overcame Him.

Before the Hale & Norcross fight came on—this is tradition almost—there arrived in town a dissipated miner who had worked in the mine. He was pretty badly down, apparently, but he went into a broker's office, and, after being told to get out as a tramp, he said he thought a good deal of Hale & Norcross and wanted to invest a trifling sum in it. Two feet, at $175, were bought for him, and he gave the certificate to the broker, saying that he was going to Mexico prospecting, and he would like to leave it behind to be dealt with as the broker saw fit. He was not heard of for months. Hale & Norcross was up to $12,000 a foot. One morning the broker found the dissipated miner on his doorstep when he came down to business. The miner rose and said:

"Well, I'm here. I thought I'd come and see you. I suppose there ain't nothing left of that Hale & Norcross. I guess you must 'a' sold it out, but I'm down an' ain't got a cent. Maybe you'd lend me four bits to get a bit of breakfast?"

The broker looked at him and gave him $5 to go and get a bath and a breakfast, and presently he returned. "Sit down and wait a minute. I'll make up your account presently." He left the dissipated man on the edge of a chair. He came back with a check and sent his clerk down to the bank. The clerk returned with a big bag of gold. The poor devil watched the proceedings with a miserable indifference. The gold was stacked upon the counter. "Look here. I've sold your two feet of Hale & Norcross for $25,000, and here's your money."

The miner fell down on the floor and cried like a baby. He could not read or write and had no idea what the market was. He sent a draft of $2,000 to his mother. The broker bought for him $20,000 worth of registered bonds, and gave him $2,400 in coin, which he spent in three days. Two bunko men brought him in drunk and tried to get his bonds, but the broker drove them out, and when the man got sober he came and had the bonds sewed into his clothes and was dispatched east. He has never been heard of since.

The Fascination of the Gold Mines.

An old forty-niner says of gold hunting: "It's the fascination of it. Lor', man, when you've struck it pretty rich and can see yer gold right in front of you; when you're piling it up every half hour of the day, with a nugget now and again as big as a bullet to cheer you, and then when the evenin' comes and you count it up and find a hundred odd dollars just picked out of the earth that day—well, there ain't nothin' like it. Then, when you don't strike it rich, you always think you're goin' to next day, an' it's just as exciting hearin' other men tell in the evenin' what they pulled out as it is countin' over your own. Why, I've been three and four months at a time without making a dollar and without a cent in my pocket; but, gee-whittaker! the excitement of it don't give a man twice to think how hard up he is."

POOR VS. FAT HORSES.—An extremely poor horse is usually a miserable one, but it is questionable whether it is any more so than an extremely fat one. Especially is this true where the animal is required to perform any amount of hard labor. While horses need good, wholesome food, it should not be all of the fat-producing kinds. The matter of feeding horses by the majority of horse owners never receives the attention it should. The supply of food and the different kinds should be varied as often as the amount and kinds of work is changed.

Bouquets.

What a pleasure to gather the beautiful flowers, and fashion them into bouquets, to ornament our rooms, decorate the graves of our dear ones, or gladden the heart of the invalid! They are fit messengers of love and sympathy to our sick and suffering friends, telling their own story of heavenly care and protection.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, too much food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

THERE is a good deal of talk nowadays about the strength of paper. We are told that a Bank of England note properly twisted into a rope will sustain 329 pounds. We shall next hear that our millionaires have had fire-escape ladders made of this material. We, of course, refer to the fires of this world. There is but one thing more to be done, and then we rich people can sleep the sleep of innocence at night undisturbed by alarms, and that is to make paper money which will be burglar-proof as well as fireproof.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother was also very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "I positively believe he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled.—Price 50c. and $1. at F. B. Meyer's.

That Wretched Drink.

Rev. Ernest Wilberforce, Bishop of Newcastle, is an eloquent and persistent advocate of total abstinence. Now and then, in a moment of duty, he arrays himself in web-worn clothes and goes out incognito among the poor and criminal classes on tours of observation. On one such occasion he was riding in a third-class railway carriage of which the only other occupant was a pitman. The latter, viewing the Bishop's clerical but "seedy" garments, remarked, "Ese war'n't yore a poor curate, noo, travelin' 't the likes o' anz?" "I once was, my friend," remarked the Bishop, "but—" "Oh, ay, I see!" cried the other, in all good faith, "that wretched drink! Ay, ay! Too bad!" The incident—without naming the Bishop—has since formed the topic of a cartoon in Punch.—New York Tribune.

French Lick and Baden Springs are located 80 miles Northwest of Louisville on the "Monon Route." The cures effected by using these waters, even in the most severe cases of Scrofula, Bright's Disease or Rheumatism, are immediate and lasting. For analysis, illustrated pamphlets, &c., address E. O. McCormick, Gen'l Pass'r Agent, Adams Express Building, Chicago.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottle free at F. B. Meyer's Drug store. Large Bottles $1. 6

A MEDICAL writer says that girls are so constructed that they cannot jump. Just make one of them an offer of marriage and see.

DRS. STARKEY and Palens' advertisement of Compound Oxygen in this issue of this paper should be read by all of our readers. The cures which this treatment is effecting are almost miraculous. In the few years since its discovery they have treated in all parts of the world upwards of fifty thousand patients. Thousands of these have given testimonials that they are cured, and a large proportion of the others report great benefit from its use. Their offer to send a two hundred page book free, giving a history of the treatment, with a large number of testimonials, is a liberal one. Read the advertisement and send for the book now.

L. B. Phelps, P. M., Griggs, Ohio writes: "Suffered with Asthma 40 years. Your medicine in 5 minutes does more for me than the most eminent physician did for me in three years."

H. C. Plimpton, Joliet, Ill., writes: "Send Catarrh Remedy at once. Cannot get along without it. I find it to be the most valuable medicine I have ever tried."

We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of the Remedy, we will send a copy address TRIAL PACKAGE FREE OF CHARGE.
