

Flights of Genius.

"You look," said an Irishman to a pale, haggard smoker, "as if you had got out of your grave to light your cigar, and couldn't find your way back again."

A schoolmaster, describing a money-lender, says: "He serves you in the present tense, he lends you in the conditional mood, keeps you in the subjunctive, and ruins you in the future." A close observer of human nature remarks: "Time marches on, with the slow, measured tread of the man working by the day." A French author is charged with the prediction that France will throw herself into the arms of the liberating sword. This is not quite so bad as the Democrat's speech: "We will burn our ships, and with every sail unfurled, steer boldly out into the ocean of freedom!"

A clergyman on board a ship began a sermon in the following manner: "Dear friends, I shall embark my exhortation on the barge of my lips, in order to cross the stormy ocean of your attention, and in hope of arriving safely at the port of your ears." A learned counselor, in the middle of an affecting appeal in court on a slander suit, treated his hearers to the following flight of genius: "Slander, gentlemen, like a boa-constrictor of gigantic size and immeasurable proportions, wraps the coil of its unwieldy body about its unfortunate victim, and heedless of the shrieks of agony that come from the uttermost depths of its victim's soul—loud and verberating as the night thunder that rolls in the heavens—it finally breaks its unlucky neck upon the iron wheel of public opinion, forcing him first to desperation, then to madness, and finally crushing him in the hideous jaws of mortal death."

A young American lawyer employed to defend a culprit charged with stealing a pig resolved to convince the court that he was born to shine. Accordingly, he proceeded to deliver the following brilliant exordium: "May it please the court and gentlemen of the jury, while Europe is bathed in blood; while classic Greece is struggling for her rights and liberties, and trampling the unhallowed altars of the bearded infidels to dust; while America shines the brightest orb in the political sky—I, with due diffidence, rise to defend the cause of this humble hog-thief."

"Pray, my lord," said a gentleman to a late respected and rather whimsical Judge, "what is the difference between law and equity courts?" "Very little in the end," replied his lordship; "they only differ as far as time is concerned. At common law you are done for at once; in equity you are not so easily disposed of. The former is a bullet, which is instantaneously and charmingly effective; the latter is an angler's hook, which plays with its victim before it kills it. The one is prussic acid, the other laudanum."—Chambers' Journal.

A Useful Precaution.

It is a useful precaution for the tourist, the commercial traveler, or the emigrant to the West, to take along Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Invalids who travel by steamboat or rail should provide themselves with it, in order to prevent or remedy the nausea which the jarring and vibration of vehicles in transit often causes them. Vastly preferable is it for this simple, but needful purpose, to the heady unmediated stimulants of commerce. On board ship, it not only remedies sea-sickness, but neutralizes the pernicious effects of water slightly brackish, which, if unqualified, is apt to give rise to irregularities of the bowels, cramps in the abdominal region, and dyspepsia. To the aerial poison of malaria it is an efficient antidote. Sick headache, heartburn and wind upon the stomach, are promptly banished by it. It healthfully stimulates the kidneys and bladder, and nullifies the early symptoms of rheumatism.

Washing Day in Corea.

The Corean women, who, unlike good children, are heard but not seen, give evidence of their wakefulness and industry all night long. Corean white cotton and hemp clothes are washed by being pounded on a stone in some dirty pool or creek around the city, and they are ironed, or rather given their silken gloss, by being wound tightly on wooden rollers and pounded by the hour. Two women sit on the ground, facing each other, with the roller between, and play lively tunes with a pair of wooden drumsticks that each one holds. That rat-tat keeps up all night, and one hears it all day, and when Corean women get time to gossip is a question.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Road making was reduced to a science by McAdam, during the latter half of the last century, and from him comes the term "macadamized" as applied to road making by using stones broken into irregular sizes.

CHANCELLOR, an English captain, first sailed into the White Sea in 1553, and this led to the building of Archangel and the commerce of Russia.

The Correct Time.

There are very few men who do not pride themselves on always having the correct time, and wonderful and delicate mechanisms are devised to enable them to do so. But the more delicate a chronometer is made the more subject it becomes to derangement, and unless it be kept always perfectly clean it soon loses its usefulness. What wonder, then, that the human machine—so much more delicate and intricate than any work of man—should require to be kept thoroughly cleansed. The liver is the mainspring of this complex structure, and on the impurities left in the blood by a disordered liver depend most of the ills that flesh is heir to. Even consumption (which is lung scrofula) is traceable to the imperfect action of this organ. Kidney diseases, skin diseases, sick headache, heart disease, dropsy, and a long catalogue of grave maladies have their origin in a torpid or sluggish liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, by establishing a healthy, normal action of the liver, acts as a cure and preventive of these diseases.

By a wise provision of Providence, close beside the little tree on which nutmegs grow often stands a greater.—Texas Sigs.

Effect of Trades on the Health.

Some singular statements have been made in the Deutsche Monatschrift concerning the effect produced by different trades and industrial occupations upon the general health. Among these facts are those contributed by Prof. Hesse, of Leipsic, who points out the deplorable condition of the teeth of bakers, and who also asserts that he is frequently able to indicate the occupation of persons by the condition of their teeth. In the case of bakers the caries is soft and rapidly progressive; the principal parts attacked are the labial and buccal surfaces of the teeth, commencing at the crevix and rapidly extending to the grinding surface—the approximal surfaces not seeming to be attacked more than in other trades. Prof. Hesse believes that the disease is owing to the inhalation of flour dust, the caries being caused by the action of an acid which is formed in the presence of fermentable carbohydrates.

The soil for house plants should receive attention, as medical men have found that malarial fever is propagated among occupants of rooms containing pots of malarious earth.

A Memory of Early Days.

Bane of childhood's tender years,
Swallowed oft with groans and tears,
How it made the flesh recoil,
Loathsome, greasy, castor oil!
Search your early memory close,
Till you find another dose:
All the shuddering frame revolts
At the thought of Epsom salts!
Underneath the pill-box lid
Was a greater horror hid,
Climax of all inward ills,
Huge and gripping old blue pills!

What a contrast to the mild and gentle action of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, sugar-coated, easy to take, cleansing, recuperating, restoring the system without wrenching it with agony. Sold by druggists.

QUEER, is it not? that base-ball should depend very much upon the pitcher and cricket upon the bowl.

If Sufferers from Consumption,

Scrofula, Bronchitis, and General Debility will try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, they will find immediate relief and permanent benefit. The Medical Profession universally declare it a remedy of the greatest value and very palatable. Read: "I have used Scott's Emulsion in several cases of Scrofula and Debility in Children. Results most gratifying. My little patients take it with pleasure."—W. A. HULBERT, M.D., Salisbury, Ill.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH. Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, backing or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. However, only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, less understood, or more unsuccessfully treated by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties,
