

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1887

Entered at the postoffice at Rensselaer, Ind.
as second-class matter.

Indianapolis is generally conceded to be a Republican city, and at the recent election went Republican, for which our neighbor is devoutly thankful.

Ex-Governor "Paisy" Fairchild was sunbbed by the citizens committee of Madison, Wisconsin, in the reception given President Cleveland in that city.

"R," who opposed the election of Mr. Cleveland, says in the Republican this week:

"His administration so far has given as general satisfaction as any we have had for years."

But the Republican won't endorse it.

Our choice in 1888, subject to the decision of the Democratic National Convention:

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice President,
Senator DAVID TURPIE, of Indiana.

Barney Conroy and Samuel E. Perkins took off their coats, despite the cold weather, and materially assisted in Republican success at the Thirteenth Ward poles.—Indianapolis News.

Barney Conroy is an ex-convict and Samuel E. Perkins is a confessed felon. The item from the News indicates pretty clearly that such characters know to what party they ought to belong.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

Our old friend "R" communicates to the Republican his disapproval of what he terms "man worship," in the hearty greetings extended by the people to President and Mrs. Cleveland on their western tour. Further on he explains the action of the people as follows:

"Cleveland is a man of thought, and, though not brilliant, he has been fortunate in life, and his administration so far has given as general satisfaction as any we have had for years."

The above extract is the honest, outspoken expression of one politically opposed to President Cleveland. The sentiment is not confined to himself. Tens of thousands of those who opposed the election of Cleveland entertain it; hence the outpouring of the people to greet him all along the line. Mr. Cleveland is not responsible for the expensive displays.

The Republican organs seem just now to be totally ignorant of the 'junketings' of Grant over this country through the favor of railway officials, and at the close of his administration 'around the world' in Government vessels inviting a 'boom' from crowned heads for the proposed "third term."

They seem to forget the 'junketing' excursions of their other Presidents on favors extended by railway officials.

They seem to forget the manner in which they traversed the most circuitous routes amid expensive displays with the remains of departed chiefs enroute to their burial places.

But they seem to be alive to the receptions given by the people to a President on a visit to them at their request, and traveling at his own expense.

The murmuring of the fault finding hypocrites will have no weight with the people.

Idaville Observer: The President and his pretty wife on their swing around the circle, are being hailed with demonstrative acclamations on all points of the journey. They were greeted at the State Capital by a hundred thousands and delighted Hoosiers, who were made happy by a glimpse of the first citizen and his fair lady.—Their reception at Chicago amounted to an ovation never before accorded to any man in the Garden City. A half million people thronged the city to do honor and pay homage to the Chief Executive. At Milwaukee the demonstration was up to the precedent, and thus it continues "around the circle." The President, as the head of the mightiest and most progressive nation on earth is entitled to all due honor irrespective of partisanship, and his wise and judicious ruling has gained for him the good will and respect of a nation which shows its appreciation by doing him unprecedented honors during his present trip of exhibition. It is good for a chief to be among his people.

The Observer is a non-partisan paper, and the writer of the above, a republican, clearly establishes this claim.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.

Crazy Poetry for the Crazy Tea

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 19.
The ladies of the W. R. C.
Are going to give a crazy tea.
So one and all,
Prepare to go,
To Makeever's Hall,
And see the show,
Crazy cake and crazy ham,
Crazy jelly and crazy jam,
Crazy chicken with your crazy tea
And if you doubt it,
Come and see.
Come every boy and bring your girl,
And take a part in the crazy whirl.
All of this with our compliments,
For the trifling sum of 25 cents.

Give Them A Chance!

That is to say your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Bozchee's German Syrup which any drugist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you you may depend upon this for certain.

The Republican victory at Indianapolis is a "hand-writing on the wall," prophetic of what is surely coming, in 1888.

DENTISTRY!—All those wishing their teeth put in order would do well to see Dr. Horton. He guarantees his work first class in every respect. Those having missing-fitting plates are especially invited to call, as, by the use of the lately invented cohesion forms, any one can secure a perfect fitting plate.

J. W. HORTON.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.

Mary E. Oosley has filed complaint for divorce against Joseph Oosley, alleging cruelty and abandonment.

D. LANCELL'S ASTHMA AND CATARRH REMEDY.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Having struggled 20 years between life and death with ASTHMA or PHTHISIS, treated by eminent physicians, and receiving no benefit, I was compelled during the last 5 years of my illness to sit on my chair day and night gasping for breath. My sufferings were beyond description. In despair I experimented on myself by compounding roots and herbs and inhaling the medicine thus obtained. I fortunately discovered this WONDERFUL CURE FOR ASTHMA AND CATARRH, warranted to relieve the most stubborn case of ASTHMA IN FIVE MINUTES so that the patient can lie down to rest and sleep comfortably. I can read the following condensed extracts from unsolicited testimonials, all of recent date:

Oliver V. R. Holmes, San Jose, Cal., writes: "I find the Remedy all and even more than represented. I receive instantaneous relief."

E. M. Carson, A. M., Warren, Kan., writes: "Was treated by eminent physicians of this country and Germany; tried the climate of different states—nothing afforded relief like your preparation."

L. B. Phelps, P. M., Griggs, Ohio writes: "Suffered with Asthma 40 years. Your medicine in 3 minutes does more for me than the most eminent physician did for me in three years."

H. C. Plimpton, Joliet, Ill., writes: "Send Catarrh Remedy at once. Cannot get along without it. I find it to be the most valuable medicine I have ever tried."

We have many other hearty testimonials of cure or relief, and in order that all sufferers from Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever, and kindred diseases may have an opportunity of testing the value of the Remedy, we will send on any address TRIAL PACKAGE FREE OF CHARGE. If your druggist fails to keep it do not permit him to sell you some worthless imitation by his representation that he has a good one, but send directly to us. Write your name and address plainly.
